

Contents

Book Summary	xxi
List of Contributors	xxii

Introduction: Chasing the Total Solar Eclipse, On the Road and in the Archive Henrike Christiane Lange and Tom McLeish	1
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---

I. COSMOS

1. The Cosmic Clockwork: The How and When of Total Solar Eclipses Mike Frost and Tom McLeish	25
2. The Unveiling of the Corona Jay M. Pasachoff	37
3. Pre-Modern Astronomies of Eclipses in the Near East and Europe C. Philipp E. Nothaft	54
4. From Science to Story: Testimony of an Eclipse-Chaser Mike Frost	69

II. HISTORY AND RELIGION

5. Solar Eclipses across Early Asia John Steele	85
6. 'The Face of the World was Wretched, Horrifying, Black, Remarkable': Solar Eclipses in the Middle Ages Giles E. M. Gasper	103
7. Annus Tenebrosus : Black Monday, Faith, and Political Fervour in Early Modern England Anna Marie Roos	127
8. Signs and Portents: Reflections on the History of Solar Eclipses David Bentley Hart	143

III. ARTS AND LITERATURE

9. Dante's Total Eclipses Alison Cornish	157
10. Eclipsed?: The Nineteenth-Century Quest to Capture Solar Eclipses in Art, Science, and Technology Roberta J. M. Olson	173

11. Total Eclipse of the Art: Vision, Occlusion, Representation Henrike Christiane Lange	204
12. When Words Fail: Eclipse, Music, and Sound Elaine Stratton Hild	258

IV. ANIMALS, WEATHER, ENVIRONMENT

13. Animal Behaviour and Eclipse Steven J. Portugal	283
14. Weather and the Solar Eclipse: Nature's Meteorological Experiment Giles Harrison	307
Conclusion: The Moon and the Sun in the Afternoon Henrike Christiane Lange and Tom McLeish	326

Appendix: The Eclipse-Chaser's Toolkit	338
A. IMPORTANT: Eye Safety Notice	338
B. Eclipse Glossary	338
C. A Short Total Eclipse Reading List	340
D. Upcoming Eclipses	340

Select Bibliography	345
Index	348