

Contents

| | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1 | Globalisation and Historiography of National Leaders | 1 |
| | Joseph Zajda, Tatyana Tsyrlina-Spady, and Michael Lovorn | |
| Part I Research Trends in Globalisation and Historiography of National Leaders: Symbolic Representations in School Textbooks: Europe and Russia | | |
| 2 | Russian History Textbooks in the Putin Era: Heroic Leaders Demand Loyal Citizens | 15 |
| | Tatyana Tsyrlina-Spady and Alan Stoskopf | |
| 3 | Political Leaders in Russian History Textbooks Between the Rise and Fall of the Cult of Personality (1938–1962) | 35 |
| | Dorena Caroli | |
| 4 | How Do Czech Children Remember Their ‘Father’? Visual Representations of the First Czechoslovak President, T. G. Masaryk, in Czech History Textbooks in Communist and Post-communist Times | 53 |
| | Andrea Průchová | |
| 5 | Benito Mussolini in Italian High School Textbooks | 73 |
| | Anne M. Wingenter | |
| 6 | History of Spain Textbooks: Diversity in the Portrayal of National Leaders | 89 |
| | Ramón Cózar Gutiérrez and Manuel Roblizo Colmenero | |
| 7 | Religious Nation or National Religion: Poland’s Heroes and the (Re) Construction of National Identity in History Textbooks | 103 |
| | Dobrochna Hildebrandt-Wypych | |

| | | |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 8 | History Textbooks for French High Schools: Events, Long-Term Trends, Europe and Skills, Not National Leaders | 123 |
| | Camille Duparc, John Barzman, and Elisabeth Robert Barzman | |
| 9 | Stephen the Great (1457–1504): A National Hero for Romanians | 143 |
| | Cătălina Mihalache | |
| | | |
| Part II | Research Trends in Globalisation and Historiography of National Leaders: Symbolic Representations in School Textbooks: Asia/the Rest of the World | |
| 10 | The Politicization of U.S. History Textbooks: Reinventing Ronald Reagan | 161 |
| | Michael Lovorn | |
| 11 | Representation of National Leaders in History Books and Textbooks in South Africa: A Transitiological Study | 179 |
| | C.C. Wolhuter, J.L. Van der Walt, and F.J. Potgieter | |
| 12 | National Heroes and National Identity Education: A Comparison of Mainland China and Hong Kong's Textbooks | 197 |
| | Wangbei Ye | |
| 13 | The Master Narrative Indoctrinating Patriotism: National Heroes in Pakistani School Textbooks | 215 |
| | Ambreen Shahriar | |
| 14 | Gender Mainstreaming in Textbooks Discourse via the Metaphorical Account of Malalai of Maiwand, Afghanistan | 229 |
| | Shabana Khattak and Hussain Akhtar | |
| 15 | Resurfaced and Disappearing Past: National Heroes in History Textbooks of Post-Soviet Kyrgyzstan | 245 |
| | Nina Bagdasarova and Larissa Marchenko | |
| 16 | The Portrayal of John Curtin as Australia's War Time Labor Prime Minister | 261 |
| | Deborah Henderson, John Whitehouse, and Joseph Zajda | |
| 17 | Research Trends in Globalisation and Historiography of National Leaders: Symbolic Representations in School Textbooks | 275 |
| | Joseph Zajda, Tatyana Tsyrlina-Spady, and Michael Lovorn | |
| | | |
| Index | | 281 |