

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction to A Research Agenda for Far-Right Violence and Extremism	1
Katalin Pethö-Kiss and Rohan Gunaratna
2 From the Lunatic Fringe to the White House: Mainstreaming the Radical Right	33
Jeffrey Kaplan
3 Right-wing Extremist Threat Landscape in Canada: Avenues for Coalescence and Transnationalization	45
Jade Hutchinson
4 Right-Wing Threat Landscape and Far-Right Threat Groups of the Greatest Concern in the United Kingdom	75
William Allchorn
5 Germany: Still “Auf dem rechten Auge blind”?	111
Alex MacKenzie and Christian Kaunert
6 Right-wing Extremism in the Nordic Countries: Analysing Threat Assessments by the Security Police	131
Katri-Maaria Kyllönen and Tommi Kotonen
7 Far-Right Extremist Movements Fighting in Ukraine: Implications for Post-Conflict Europe	157
Andreas Wimmer, Kenneth Lasoen and Daniel Melo

8	Right-Wing Extremism in Australia Julian Droogan and Jade Hutchinson	181
9	New Zealand and Right-Wing Extremism John Battersby	211
10	Conclusion to A Research Agenda for Far-Right Violence and Extremism Katalin Pethö-Kiss and Rohan Gunaratna	227
	Index	241