CONTENTS

List of Figures, Tables, Maps and Illustrations xvii

Preface xxiii

Chapter One When the Global Meets the Local 1
Citizens of the World 3
The Baha'i Religion—One of the Old "New Religions" 6
The Historical Development of the Baha'i Religion 7
The Baha'i Organisation 10
The Baha'i Communities 11
Contemporary Baha'i Beliefs and Religious Practices 12
Social Teachings 14
Globalisation and the Baha'i Message 15
Citizens of the World—Scope and Contents 19
The Globalisation Perspective 19
The Making of Baha'i into a Global Religion 20
From the Global Perspective to the Individual 22
Global Centre and Global Periphery 23
Studying the Baha'is 24
Sources for the Study of the Baha'is 24
The Baha'i Language 26
Some Considerations on Methodology 27
Issues of Terminology 29

Chapter Two Approaches to Babi and Baha'i Studies 32
Early European Studies of Babism and Baha'i 34
Josef Arthur de Gobineau 35
E. G. Browne 36
The Baha'i Ambivalence towards Browne 38
A.-L.-M. Nicolas and Later Scholars 41
Babi and Baha'i Studies Resumed 45
General Monographs, Surveys and Source Compilations 47
Surveys and Encyclopaedic Works 49
Published Sources of Babi and Baha'i History 50

Misioiis ... 51
Bull,) ... 53
i\il'ui ... 55
LaKi*s in ... 57
H'MOIR ... 62
\e*\ ... 64
Iht ... 68
[lie ... 70
V Paialld ... 73

Chapter Three Development of a Globalisation Perspective ... 76
Characteristics of Globalisation ... 77
The Historical Uniqueness of Globalisation ... 79
Approaches to Globalisation ... 81
From World System Theories to Globalisation Th e orie s ... 82
Roland Robertson's Concept of Relativisation ... 85
Peter Beyer's Approach ... 86
Roland Robertson's Global Field Model ... 88
A Theory or a Model? ... 92
An Evaluation of Roland Robertson's Global Field Model ... 94
The "Societal Level" in Robertson's Global Field Model ... 94
Totality and Dynamics of the Global Field Model ... 97
Robertson's Global Field Model in a Historical Perspective ... 98
The Emergence of Baha'i arid the Take-off of Globalisation ... 100
Development of the Dual Global Field Model ... 102
Transnational Imagined Communities ... 102
The Dual Global Field Model ... 104
Generalisation of the Dual Global Field Model ... 105
Summary of the Elements of the Dual Global Field Model ... 107
Cosmopolitanism and the Dual Global Field Model ... 108
Gemeinschaft and Gesellschqft Revisited ... 111
Gemeinschaft and Gesellschqft as Ideal Types ... 112
Robertson's Use of Gemeinschaft and Gesellschafi ... 114

The Gemeinschaft and Gesellschaft Aspects of Modern Societies ... 115
A Model of Gemeinschaft and Gesellschaft as two complementary ideal types ... 117

Chapter Four Religious Conflicts in Iran ... 119
A Shi'i State ... 120
The Shaykhi Movement ... 121
The Bab and the first Babis ... 124
A Meeting in Shiraz ... 125
Different Conversion Accounts ... 126
Letters of the Living ... 127
Failure in Iraq ... 128
Opposition and Revolt ... 130
The Road of No Return ... 133
The Millenarian and Mythological Aspects of the Battles of Shaykh Tabarsi ... 134
Preparing for the Coming of the Mahdi ... 136
The End of the Battles ... 139
The Historical Symbolism of Shaykh Tabarsi ... 141
The Bab's Texts and Doctrines ... 142
The Bay an ... 143
The Execution of the Bab and the Collapse of the Babi Movement ... 145
Babism Explained ... 147
The Issue of Babi Jihads ... 148
Babi Communism? ... 149
A Search for Other Explanations ... 150
The Context is Religion ... 151
Babism from a globalisation perspective ... 153
The Special Position of the Baha'is in Iran ... 154
The Baha'is and the Ulama ... 156
Popular Feelings Against the Baha'is ... 157
The Case of the Anti-Baha'i Society in Yazd ... 158
The Persecutions of the Iranian Baha'is in the 1980s and 1990s ... 160

Chapter Five The Making of a Global Religion ... 166
The Baghdad Exile 1853-1863 ... 166
Early Writings of Baha'u'llah ... 167

Baha'u'ilah's Declaration and the Split of the Babis 1863-1868 169
Ridvan 169
The Manifestations of God and the Unity of Religions 170
The Schism, in Edirne 172
Baha'u'ilah's Houses in Edirne 174
Baha'u'ilah's Exile to Akko 1868 1892 175
Baha'u'ilah's Writings from 1868 to 1892 177
Abdu'1-Baha and the Covenant 181
State and Religion in Baha'i Thinking 183
The Expansion of the Baha'i Religion 187
Baha'is Go West 189
A Persian in Paris 191
The Foundation of the Baha'i World Centre 193
Shoghi Effendi and Routinisation of Leadership 194
The Administrative Order 196
Shoghi Effendi's Writings 198
Shoghi Effendi's Creation of Baha'i "Sacred Language" 199
Expansion in Europe 201
A Crisis of Succession 204
Shoghi Effendi's Grave in London 204
Interim Leadership 205
The Universal House of Justice and the Baha'i Organisation 206
The Present Baha'i Organisation 207
The Baha'i Organisation in the Dual Global Field Model 211
Global Expansion 213
Growth in Numbers 215
Are Membership Data Inflated? 220
A Suggestion for a Reassessment of Baha'i Membership Data 222
From the Global Study to the Case Study of the Baha'is 228

Chapter Six The Making of a Baha'i Community 229
The First Danish Baha'i 229
The Role of the Charismatic Missionary 230
The Solitary Danish Baha'i 232

Issues of Translation 234
The Period of American Mission 1946-194-9 237
The Charismatic Missionaries 238
The Danish Baha'i Community 1949-2001 243
The Stagnation Phase 1951-1961 244
The Iranian Immigration 1961—1971 246
Rapid Growth in the 1970s 247
Acknowledgement from the State 1972-1979 250
The Iranian Refugees 1979-2002 252
Ambitions of Growth 253
Moving Towards Multi-ethnicity in the 1990s 255
A Sociological Snapshot of the Danish Baha'i Community 259
A Demographic Analysis of the Danish Baha'i Community 264
The Equations of Demography 265
The Change in Ethnic Composition 269
The Change in Gender Ratio 271
The Ageing of the Community 272
Prospects of Crisis or Growth 275
Demographic Scenarios 277
The Strategic Challenges of the Demographic Equation 282
People May Leave for Many Good Reasons 284

Chapter Seven Becoming a Baha'i 285
The Study of Conversion to New Religions 285
Conversion is a Process 287
Conversion: Who is in Control? 289
The Concept of the Religious Seeker 291
The "Active" Convert 294
The Social Environment 296
Conversion Accounts as Sources 298
Causality Analysis of a Baha'i Conversion Account 300
Previous Baha'i Conversion Studies 302
Conversion to Baha'i—~A Study of the Danish Baha'i Community 305
Entering the Baha'i Community 306
The Conversion Process 308
The Religious Backgrounds of the Converts 310

Themes of Conversionin Retrospect 312
The "Bom" Baha'is 315
Family Reactions 315
Young and Free? 3jg
The Concept of Seeke.rsh.ip Among the Danish Baha'i Converts 321
Previous Contact with other Religious Groups 321
Seekership and Ways of Joining 324
A Generation of Seekers? 327
Seekership Correlations 327
Seekership Psychology? 329

Chapter Eight Belonging to a Baha'i Community 331
Belonging by Knowing, Doing or Being 332
The Ordinances of Prayer, Fasting and the Making of a Will 335
Prayer—die Unchallenged Duty 336
Fasting-_-Open to Interpretations 339
Making a Will 345
Attitudes of the Individual Belonging to Baha'i 346
World Citizen and Liberal Attitudes 347
Personal Virtues Said to be Characteristic of Baha'is 350
Iranian Virtues_—Baha'i Virtues—Cream of Society 351
Displaying a Belonging to Baha'i 354
Marking the Baha'i Year 358
Celebration of the Baha'i Holy Days 360
Participation in Organised Baha'i Holy Days 362
Nineteen Day Feasts 365
Conferences and Other Special Events 368
Differences in Activity Level 368
Belonging to the Baha'is—A Sketchy Profile 372

Chapter Nine Mobilisation of the Baha'is 374
The Dilemma in Resource Allocation 376
Three Types of Resources 376
Stretching Resources? 378
A Trend of Stagnation 379
The Resource Mobilisation Approach 382
Assumptions of Rationality 384
Resource Mobilisation Studies in the Sociology of Religion 385

The Resource Base of the Danish Baha'i Community 387
Time 387
Labour 391
Money 392
Money is Tight 394
Resource Optimisation in Mission 397
A Model of Mission Campaigns and Resource Allocation 399
The Ratio of Gesellschaji and Gemeinschqft in the Baha'i Mission Plans 400
Baha'i Mission Practice 403
Firesides in the Danish Baha'i Community 406
External Assistance 408
The Stony Mission Field 412
Prospects of Increasing Mobilisation 416
The Danish Case—Part of a Wider Crisis? 420
Insufficient Mobilisation of Money? 421

Chapter Ten The Baha'i World Centre 424
Leaders on the Move 426
The Shrines 429
Developing the Shrine of the Bab 430
The Terraces 432
The Symbolism of the Shrine of the Bab 433
The Shrine of Baha'uTlah 436
Two Shrines—Two Symbols 437
The Administrative Buildings of the Baha'i World Centre 438
The Gardens of the Baha'i World Centre 438
International Archives Building 441
Seat of the Universal House of Justice 441
International Teaching Centre and the Centre for the Study of the Texts 445
The Baha'i World Centre in the Dual Global Field Model 447
Global Baha'i Gemeinschqft: The Concern of Individual Baha'is 447
Global Baha'i Gesellschaji: The Concern of the Universal House of Justice 449
The Baha'i Pilgrimage 449
The Pilgrims' Programme 450
The Significance of the Baha'i Pilgrimage 452

Working at the Baha'i World Centre 454
Senior Staff Recruitment 455
Junior Staff and Labourers 457
Working Conditions 459
Everyday Life 461
The Internal Baha'i World Centre Organisation 462
The Work Day of the Universal House of Justice 464
Secretariat 465
Library, Archives and Research 465
An Example of an Administrative Case 467
Other Departments 468
Relations with the Outside Israeli Society 469
Official Relations 469
Unofficial Relations 470
The Religious Metropolis 473

Chapter Eleven Baha'is Going Global 475
Interacting with the National Society: The Social Development Projects 478
A Computer School in Gambia 478
A Health Care Project in Uganda 479
Community Broadcasting in Panama 481
The Significance of Development Projects in the Baha'i Mission 484
Addressing Humankind: The Baha'i Temples 486
The Eight Temples 488
The Unique Baha'i Temple Architecture 489
Baha'i Sunday Temple Services 490
The Function of the Mashriqu'l-Adhkar 492
Influencing the World System of Societies 494
World-rejecting or World-affirming? 494
The Changing Attitudes of the Baha'i Leadership 495
The International Baha'i Bureau in Geneva 500
Current International Baha'i Institutions 501
A Change towards International Political Involvement 502
The World Summits 505
The Earth Summit 507
The Social Summit 510

Costs and Benefits of Participation in the United Nations Summits 514
A World Civil Religion? 515
Citizens of the World 516
To Be a World Citizen 517
A Call for World Citizens 520

Chapter Twelve Summary and Conclusions 522
The Dual Global Field Model and the Structure of the Book 522
The Historical Development of the Baha'i Inner Global Field 523
A National Baha'i Community 524
The Level of the Individuals 524
The Level of the National Baha'i Community 525
The Level of the International Baha'i Institutions 526

Appendix Interview Survey 531
Establishing the Group of Informants 532
Representativeness of the 120 Informants 532
The Interview Environment 534
The Questionnaire 534
Summary of the Questionnaire 535
Data Treatment 540

Bibliography 543

Index 577

Colour Plates
Black and White Plates

Costs and Benefits of Participation in the United Nations Summits 514
A World Civil Religion? 515
Citizens of the World 516
To Be a World Citizen 517
A Call for World Citizens 520

Chapter Twelve Summary and Conclusions 522
The Dual Global Field Model and the Structure of the Book 522
The Historical Development of the Baha'i Inner Global Field 523
A National Baha'i Community 524
The Level of the Individuals 524
The Level of the National Baha'i Community 525
The Level of the International Baha'i Institutions 526

Appendix Interview Survey 531
Establishing the Group of Informants 532
Representativeness of the 120 Informants 532
The Interview Environment 534
The Questionnaire 534
Summary of the Questionnaire 535
Data Treatment 540

Bibliography 543

Index 577

Colour Plates
Black and White Plates

Baha'u'ilah's Declaration and the Split of the Babis 1863-1868 169
Ridvan 169
The Manifestations of God and the Unity of Religions 170
The Schism, in Edirne 172
Baha'u'ilah's Houses in Edirne 174
Baha'u'ilah's Exile to Akko 1868 1892 175
Baha'u'ilah's Writings from 1868 to 1892 177
Abdu'1-Baha and the Covenant 181
State and Religion in Baha'i Thinking 183
The Expansion of the Baha'i Religion 187
Baha'is Go West 189
A Persian in Paris 191
The Foundation of the Baha'i World Centre 193
Shoghi Effendi and Routinisation of Leadership 194
The Administrative Order 196
Shoghi Effendi's Writings 198
Shoghi Effendi's Creation of Baha'i "Sacred Language" 199
Expansion in Europe 201
A Crisis of Succession 204
Shoghi Effendi's Grave in London 204
Interim Leadership 205
The Universal House of Justice and the Baha'i Organisation 206
The Present Baha'i Organisation 207
The Baha'i Organisation in the Dual Global Field Model 211
Global Expansion 213
Growth in Numbers 215
Are Membership Data Inflated? 220
A Suggestion for a Reassessment of Baha'i Membership Data 222
From the Global Study to the Case Study of the Baha'is 228

Chapter Six The Making of a Baha'i Community 229
The First Danish Baha'i 229
The Role of the Charismatic Missionary 230
The Solitary Danish Baha'i 232

Issues of Translation 234
The Period of American Mission 1946-194-9 237
The Charismatic Missionaries 238
The Danish Baha'i Community 1949-2001 243
The Stagnation Phase 1951-1961 244
The Iranian Immigration 1961—1971 246
Rapid Growth in the 1970s 247
Acknowledgement from the State 1972-1979 250
The Iranian Refugees 1979-2002 252
Ambitions of Growth 253
Moving Towards Multi-ethnicity in the 1990s 255
A Sociological Snapshot of the Danish Baha'i Community 259
A Demographic Analysis of the Danish Baha'i Community 264
The Equations of Demography 265
The Change in Ethnic Composition 269
The Change in Gender Ratio 271
The Ageing of the Community 272
Prospects of Crisis or Growth 275
Demographic Scenarios 277
The Strategic Challenges of the Demographic Equation 282
People May Leave for Many Good Reasons 284

Chapter Seven Becoming a Baha'i 285
The Study of Conversion to New Religions 285
Conversion is a Process 287
Conversion: Who is in Control? 289
The Concept of the Religious Seeker 291
The "Active" Convert 294
The Social Environment 296
Conversion Accounts as Sources 298
Causality Analysis of a Baha'i Conversion Account 300
Previous Baha'i Conversion Studies 302
Conversion to Baha'i—~A Study of the Danish Baha'i Community 305
Entering the Baha'i Community 306
The Conversion Process 308
The Religious Backgrounds of the Converts 310

Themes of Conversionin Retrospect 312
The "Bom" Baha'is 315
Family Reactions 315
Young and Free? 3jg
The Concept of Seeke.rsh.ip Among the Danish Baha'i Converts 321
Previous Contact with other Religious Groups 321
Seekership and Ways of Joining 324
A Generation of Seekers? 327
Seekership Correlations 327
Seekership Psychology? 329

Chapter Eight Belonging to a Baha'i Community 331
Belonging by Knowing, Doing or Being 332
The Ordinances of Prayer, Fasting and the Making of a Will 335
Prayer—die Unchallenged Duty 336
Fasting-_-Open to Interpretations 339
Making a Will 345
Attitudes of the Individual Belonging to Baha'i 346
World Citizen and Liberal Attitudes 347
Personal Virtues Said to be Characteristic of Baha'is 350
Iranian Virtues_—Baha'i Virtues—Cream of Society 351
Displaying a Belonging to Baha'i 354
Marking the Baha'i Year 358
Celebration of the Baha'i Holy Days 360
Participation in Organised Baha'i Holy Days 362
Nineteen Day Feasts 365
Conferences and Other Special Events 368
Differences in Activity Level 368
Belonging to the Baha'is—A Sketchy Profile 372

Chapter Nine Mobilisation of the Baha'is 374
The Dilemma in Resource Allocation 376
Three Types of Resources 376
Stretching Resources? 378
A Trend of Stagnation 379
The Resource Mobilisation Approach 382
Assumptions of Rationality 384
Resource Mobilisation Studies in the Sociology of Religion 385

The Resource Base of the Danish Baha'i Community 387
Time 387
Labour 391
Money 392
Money is Tight 394
Resource Optimisation in Mission 397
A Model of Mission Campaigns and Resource Allocation 399
The Ratio of Gesellschaji and Gemeinschqft in the Baha'i Mission Plans 400
Baha'i Mission Practice 403
Firesides in the Danish Baha'i Community 406
External Assistance 408
The Stony Mission Field 412
Prospects of Increasing Mobilisation 416
The Danish Case—Part of a Wider Crisis? 420
Insufficient Mobilisation of Money? 421

Chapter Ten The Baha'i World Centre 424
Leaders on the Move 426
The Shrines 429
Developing the Shrine of the Bab 430
The Terraces 432
The Symbolism of the Shrine of the Bab 433
The Shrine of Baha'uTlah 436
Two Shrines—Two Symbols 437
The Administrative Buildings of the Baha'i World Centre 438
The Gardens of the Baha'i World Centre 438
International Archives Building 441
Seat of the Universal House of Justice 441
International Teaching Centre and the Centre for the Study of the Texts 445
The Baha'i World Centre in the Dual Global Field Model 447
Global Baha'i Gemeinschqft: The Concern of Individual Baha'is 447
Global Baha'i Gesellschaji: The Concern of the Universal House of Justice 449
The Baha'i Pilgrimage 449
The Pilgrims' Programme 450
The Significance of the Baha'i Pilgrimage 452

Dario II (XXVH dinastia) 6. Il recupero dell'indipendenza (xxxvm-xxx dinastia) e la seconda dominazione achemenide 7. La conquista di Alessandro Magno (332 a.C.) e la dinastia dei Tolomei (305-330 a.C); l'Egitto provincia rornana 8. Arte, religione, cultura e società nell'Egitto del I mill. a.C. 9. Bibliografia

VIILIregni sudarabid, di ALESSANDRA AVANZINI 691

1. Il paese 2, Arabia Felix 3. I primi viaggiatori 4, I testi 5, I regni 6. Le lingue 7. Archeologia e storia dell'arte 8. L'organizzazione dello stato: il re, la societa, l'economia, la religione 9. Bibliografia

INDICI

Indice dei nomi della Sezione I 731
Indice delle illustrazioni 762
Indice delle cartine 7^5

Dario II (XXVH dinastia) 6. Il recupero dell'indipendenza (xxxvm-xxx dinastia) e la seconda dominazione achemenide 7. La conquista di Alessandro Magno (332 a.C.) e la dinastia dei Tolomei (305-330 a.C); l'Egitto provincia rornana 8. Arte, religione, cultura e società nell'Egitto del I mill. a.C. 9. Bibliografia

VIILIregni sudarabid, di ALESSANDRA AVANZINI 691

1. Il paese 2, Arabia Felix 3. I primi viaggiatori 4, I testi 5, I regni 6. Le lingue 7. Archeologia e storia dell'arte 8. L'organizzazione dello stato: il re, la societa, l'economia, la religione 9. Bibliografia

INDICI

Indice dei nomi della Sezione I 731
Indice delle illustrazioni 762
Indice delle cartine 7^5

PPN: 256167575
Titel: Citizens of the world / a history and sociology of the Baha'is from a globalisation perspective ; by Margit Warburg. - Brill Leiden [u.a.] 2006
ISBN: 90-04-14373-4hbk.
Bibliographischer Datensatz im SWB-Verbund