

Contents

Introduction	1
Rita D. Sherma
The Hermeneutics of the Word “Religion” and Its Implications for the World of Indian Religions	19
Arvind Sharma
Max Müller and Textual Management: A Postcolonial Perspective	33
Sharada Sugirtharajah
Being and Text: Dialogic Fecundation of Western Hermeneutics and Hindu Mīmāṃsā in the Critical Era	45
Purushottama Bilimoria
The Hermeneutic Circle and the Hermeneutic Centre	81
Klaus Klostermaier
Cāturdharmya: Hermeneutics of Integrative Differentiation	95
Shrinivas Tilak
Psychological Growth and Heroic Steadfastness in the Mahābhārata	121
Aditya Adarkar
Value Ethics in the Early Upaniṣads: A Hermeneutic Approach	151
T.S. Rukmani
Engagement with Sanskrit Philosophic Texts	169
Stephen H. Phillips
Truth, Diversity, and the Incomplete Project of Modern Hinduism	179
Jeffery D. Long

The Other of Oneself: A Gadamerian Conversation with Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavism	211
Leena Taneja
Concluding Remarks	233
Arvind Sharma	