

Contents

CONTRIBUTORS	ix
INTRODUCTION
The Frykenberg Vamsavali : A South Asia Historian's Genealogy, Personal and Academic, with a Bibliography of His Works Richard Fox Young	1
1. Indian Participation in Enabling, Sustaining, and Promoting Christian Mission in India Daniel Jeyaraj	26
2. "Ancient Churches" and Modern Missions in the Nineteenth Century Wilbert R. Shenk	41
3. Empire and Misinformation: Christianity and Colonial Knowledge from a South Indian Hindu Perspective (ca. 1804) Richard Fox Young	59
4. Creating Christian Community in Early-Nineteenth-Century Agra Avril A. Powell	82

CONTENTS

5. An “Ardour” of Devotion: The Spiritual Legacy of Henry Martyn	108
Brian Stanley
6. Revival, Syncretism, and the Anticolonial Discourse of the Kherwar Movement, 1871-1910	127
Peter B. Andersen
7. Caste, Catholicism, and History “from Below,” 1863-1917	144
Chandra Mallampalli
8. Hindu Pundits and Missionary “Knowledge” of Hinduism	158
Geoffrey A. Oddie
9. Proselytism in the History of Christianity in India	181
Michael Bergunder
10. Anticipating Independent India: The Idea of the Lutheran Christian Nation and Indian Nationalism	196
Gunnel Cederlöf
11. Indian Christians and Nehru’s Nation-State	217
Judith M. Brown
12. Christian Interpretation of “Hinduism”: Between Understanding and Theological Judgment	235
John B. Carman
13. An Overview and Analysis of Missionary Collections in the United Kingdom Relating to South Asia	249
Rosemary Seton
14. North American Sources for the Study of Protestant Christian Missions in India	266
Martha Lund Smalley
INDEX	277