

Journalism Ethics

A Philosophical Approach

EDITED BY CHRISTOPHER MEYERS

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

2010

Contents

Contributors, xix

Section One: Theoretical and Conceptual Foundations

Part I: Ethics Theory and Decision Making

Introduction, 3

1. An Explanation and a Method for the Ethics of Journalism, 9
Deni Elliott and David Ozar
2. Moral Development and Journalism, 25
Renita Coleman

Part II: History and Justification

Introduction, 35

3. Press Freedom and Responsibility, 39
Stephanie Craft
4. The Moral Justification for Journalism, 53
Sandra L. Borden
5. The Search for Global Media Ethics, 69
Herman Wasserman

Part III: What Is Journalism? Who Is a Journalist?

Introduction, 85

6. Why Journalism Is a Profession, 91
Michael Davis
7. Who Is a Journalist? 103
Jay Black
8. Norms and the Network: Journalistic Ethics in a Shared Media Space, 117
Jane B. Singer

Part IV: Objectivity

Introduction, 131

9. Inventing Objectivity: New Philosophical Foundations, 137
Stephen J. A. Ward
10. Is Objective News Possible? 153
Carrie Figdor

Section Two: The Practice of Journalism

Part V: The Business of Journalism

Introduction, 167

11. Journalism's Tangled Web: Business, Ethics, and Professional Practice, 171
Ian Richards
12. The Decline of the News Business, 185
Rick Edmonds
13. Covering a World That's Falling Apart, When Yours Is Too, 193
Martha Steffens

Part VI: Privacy

Introduction, 197

14. The Ethics of Privacy, 203
Clifford G. Christians
15. Understanding and Respecting Privacy, 215
Candace Cummins Gauthier

Part VII: Approaching the News: Reporters and Consumers

Introduction, 231

16. Conflicting Loyalties and Personal Choices, 237

Jacqui Banaszynski

17. A Robust Future for Conflict of Interest, 249

Edward Wasserman

18. Respecting Sources' Confidentiality: Critical but Not Absolute, 271

Aaron Quinn

19. The Ethical Obligations of News Consumers, 283

Wendy N. Wyatt

Part VIII: Getting the Story

Introduction, 297

20. The Ethos of "Getting the Story", 301

*Patrick Lee Plaisance*21. Mitigation Watchdogs: The Ethical Foundation for a Journalist's Role, 311*Lee Wilkins*

Part IX: Image Ethics

Introduction, 325

22. Visual Ethics: An Integrative Approach to Ethical Practice in Visual Journalism, 331*Julianne H. Newton and Rick Williams*

23. Ethics and Images: Five Major Concerns, 351

Paul Martin Lester

Index, 359