

Contents

Foreword by Mimi Handler xi

Preface: The Enchanting Box xiii

Acknowledgments xv

Chapter 1 An Introduction to Women's Painted Furniture, 1790–1830 1

Chapter 2 The Process of Creating Women's Painted Furniture 24

Chapter 3 Motifs in Women's Painted Furniture 62

Chapter 4 Women's Education 104

Chapter 5 American Schoolgirl Art Pupils and Their Painted Pieces 124

Chapter 6 Conclusion: "Ancients" and "Moderns" 162

APPENDIXES

Appendix A Art Instruction Books of the Federal Period 179

Appendix B The Rules of Litchfield Academy, 1825 182

Appendix C A Chronicle of Sir Andreas B. Engstrom's Advertisements
Offering Lessons, 1825–1827 184

Appendix D Professional Treatment of Elizabeth Perkins' Table 188

Appendix E Recipe for Finishing a Young Lady 190

Appendix F Suppliers of Materials Used to Create Historical Replications of Women's Painted Furniture, 1790–1830 191

Appendix G Historical Societies and Museums with Women's Painted Furniture in Their Collections 192

Appendix H Research Institutions Providing Archival Material on Women's Painted Furniture 196

Appendix I Further Reading 198

Glossary 199

Bibliography 213

Index 219