

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abbreviations and bibliography	5
I. Catalogue and concordance of the texts
A. Descriptive catalogue by publication numbers	9
B. Concordance of excavation and edition numbers	12
II. Introduction
1. The archive and its discovery	13
2. Dating the archive	18
3. Kuliya's family	19
4. Kuliya as messenger of kārum Kanesh	21
5. Kuliya's commercial activities and relations	22
a. His business and contacts	22
b. The main persons interacting with Kuliya	24
6. Language and writing of the texts	29
a. Scribal features	29
b. Lexical features	33
7. The format of the edition	34
II. Giriş	37
III. Edition of the Text
1. Kuliya as a messenger of the kārum (1-6)	65
A. The texts	65
B. Interpretation	80
a. Geographical aspects	80
b. Kuliya's task and the system of taxation	82
1. The tithe (išrātum) on iron	82
2. The “ šaddu²utu -tax of kārum Kanesh”	85
3. Taxation of caravans arriving via the sukinnu -route	88
4. Reasons, origin and formulation of the new rules	89
c. Conclusion	90
2. Letters (7-34)
A. Introduction	91
B. The texts	93
a. Letters by Kuliya (7-8)	93
b. Letters from Kuliya from his wife, alone and with others (9-13)	96
c. Other letters addressed to Kuliya alone and with others (14-29)	104
d. Letters not addressed to Kuliya (30-31)	127
e. An unidentified letter, a “supplement” and a letter envelope (32-34)	131
3. Contracts, depositions and private records of transactions
a. Records of single transactions (35-42)	133
b. Groups of contracts and depositions copied in memorandums (43-49)	143
4. Various memorandums (50-61)	155
5. Lists of tablets (62-69)	174
A. Introduction	174
a. Containers for tablets	174
b. The lists	176
B. The texts (62-69)	178

6. Various texts (70-73)
a. Judicial records (70-71)	184
b. Sealed envelope of a letter (72)	186
c. The eponym list "KEL A" (73)	186
7. Three letters of Kuliya excavated in 1989 (74*-76*)	187
IV. Indices
1. Personal names	193
2. Geographical names and nisbes	201
3. Gods	202
4. Year eponyms	202
5. Words attested and discussed	202
6. Texts quoted or commented upon	208
V. Seal impressions, cuneiform copies and photos
1. Seal impressions, by Masako Omura	211
2. Drawings of damaged, difficult and unusual cuneiform signs	214
3. Photos envelopes and selected tablets	215