

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	VII
I. Summary of the Themes Treated in Reportatio IIA , Questions 13-27	IX
II. The Sources of Reportatio IIA , Questions 13 to 27	XXXV
1. Explicit sources	XXXV
2. Implicit sources	XXXVIII
III. Case Studies of Implicit Sources	XLII
1. Question 15: The Somewhat-Subtle Doctor and Auriol's Ass	XLIII
1.1. Article 1 and Peter Auriol, In II Sent. , d. 3, q. 2	XLIII
1.2. Article 2	XLVIII
1.2.1. Scotus and Scotism	XLVIII
1.2.2. Principia	LI
1.2.2.1. Three arguments for positive (middle) specific unity	LII
1.2.2.2. Arguments against positive (middle) unity	LIII
1.2.2.3. Auriol's objection?	LIII
1.2.3. To be determined later	LVII
2. Question 22: Auriol, Burley and the Refugium Miserorum	LVII
2.1. Four difficultates	LVIII
2.2. The discussion in IV:23	LIX
2.2.1. Two opinions from Auriol	LX
2.2.2. Walter Burley's Principium IV	LXIV
2.2.2.1. Marchia and the Tractatus primus	LXIV
2.2.2.2. Radulphus Brito's Quodlibet	LXVIII
2.2.3. Thomas Aquinas' view and Francis' solution	LXX
2.3. The four opinions of IIA:22	LXXI
2.3.1. Opinions 1-3 and VII Metaphysics , comment 31	LXXV
2.3.2. Opinion 4 and Marchia's view	LXXVIII
2.4. Marchia's resolution and the refugium miserorum	LXXIX
3. Question 26: The Hidden Source of Non-Hidden Speech	LXXXIII
IV. Notes on the Edition of Questions 13-27	LXXXVIII
V. Conclusion	XCVI
VI. Editorial Conventions	XCVIII
REPORTATIO A IN II LIBRUM SENTENTIARUM, QQ. 13-27
Q. 13: Utrum angelus vel anima sit composita ex materia et forma	1
Q. 14: Utrum in substantiis separatis possint esse plura individua in eadem specie	22
Q. 15: Utrum angeli sint compositi ex actu et potentia	42
Q. 16: Utrum angelus per se sit in loco vel tantum per accidens	75

Q. 17: Utrum potentiae sensitivae in homine et in aliis animalibus sint eiusdem speciei	107
Q. 18: Utrum intellectus sive anima intellectiva sit immortalis	116
Q. 19: Utrum immortalitas animae possit naturaliter de ipsa anima demonstrari a priori vel a posteriori	119
Q. 20: Utrum intellectus et voluntas in homine et in angelo sint eiusdem rationis	136
Q. 21: Utrum idem sit obiectum intellectus et voluntatis	180
Q. 22: Utrum angelus possit causare effective aliquam formam substantialem materialem	196
Q. 23: Utrum angelus intelligat componendo et dividendo per discursum syllogisticum vel non	213
Q. 24: Utrum voluntas daemonis sit obstinata sic quod necessario velit malum ex immobili apprehensione intellectus vel ex aliquo habitu necessitante voluntatem ad malum	233
Q. 25: Utrum obiectum aliquod materiale possit aliquid causare in intellectu angeli	254
Q. 26: Utrum angelus loquens causet in illo cui loquitur actum intelligendi	265
Q. 27: Utrum unus angelus possit videre seu intelligere cogitationes alterius angeli	277
BIBLIOGRAPHY
Primary Sources	297
Secondary Sources	301
INDICES
I. Index Biblicus	305
II. Index Auctoritatum	306
III. Index Codicum Manuscriptorum	310
IV. Index Nominum et Locorum	312