

■ CONTENTS

Prologue	xi
Introduction	3
PART I ■ Object of Inquiry: Indian Rationalists, Modes of Unbelief and Disenchantment	7
1 Indian Rationalists	9
2 Modes of (Non-)Religiosity and Unbelief	19
3 Rationalization and Disenchantment	29
4 Methodological Remarks and Research Setting	41
PART II ■ History: Roots of Organized Rationalism in India	47
5 “Narrative” of the Indian Roots of Rationalism	49
6 Evolution of Rationalism in Colonial India	57
7 Influence of the English Rationalist Movement	69
8 Organized Rationalism in 20th-Century India	79
9 Recent History of Organized Rationalism in Maharashtra	101
PART III ■ Ethnography: Maharashtra Anhashraddha Nirmulan Samiti (ANiS)	107
10 ANiS in Action: The Science-Van	109
11 Organizational Structure and Setup of ANiS	145
12 Profile and Agenda of ANiS	181
13 Individual Interpretations and Applications of Rationalism	207
14 Rationalism as a Way of Life	221
15 ANiS in Context	245
16 Impact of ANiS	267
PART IV ■ Theory: The Mode of Unbelief of ANiS	271
Epilogue: Disenchanting India Contextualized	285
Empirical Question: A Transnational Rationalist Movement?	286
Theory: Disenchantment as Problematic Master-Narrative	294
Metatheory: Prospective Reflections on “Researching Rationalism”	302

References	313
Appendixes
1 Transliteration of Hindi and Marathi Terms	335
2 Interviews and Documented Conversations	336
3 Anti-Superstition Bill	341
4 Original German Quotations	350
Index	355