

Contents

List of Abbreviations	vii
Introduction: Moving between Worlds—GRAHAM M. SCHWEIG	1
General Remarks	1
The Focus of Goswami's Work	3
A Sketch of Goswami's Life	9
On the Preparation of this Book	16
1. In Quest of the "Theological" Prabhupāda	21
The Need and Aim of This Study	23
The Approach of This Study	27
Background of the Pre-ISKCON Prabhupāda	32
2. The Travails of Illegitimacy: Historical Setting	38
Counterculture Discourse: The Mid-1960s to Mid-1970s	38
Cult-Controversy Discourse: The Mid-1970s to Mid-1980s	51
A Discourse of Indifference: The Mid-1980s to the Present	71
Summary and Reflections	82
3. Sources of Knowledge: Pramāṇa	87
The Influence of Parents and Teachers	89
The College Setting and Christian Influences	92
Earlier Vaishnava Teachers in Bengal	102
Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī as Prabhupāda's Guru	108
Prabhupāda as Authoritative Commentator	112
Summary and Reflections	119

4. Krishna, the Supreme Personality of Godhead: Sambandha	120
The Relationship with Krishna as Sambandha	123
Prabhupāda's English Mahāvākya Phrase	127
The Three Ultimate Spiritual Energies	132
Deeper Theological Implications	138
The Question of Translation	146
Prabhupāda's Root Metaphor	149
Protecting Krishna's Intimate Līlās	151
Summary and Reflections	157
5. Bhakti, Devotional Service: Abhidheya	158
Influence of Pan-Indic Conceptions of Bhakti	159
Rūpa Gosvāmin's Conception of Bhakti	165
The Relationship of Service to Bhakti	167
Rūpa Gosvāmin's Five Principal Practices of Bhakti	172
(1) Association with Devotees: Sādhu Saṅga	173
(2) Collectively Praising the Divine Names: Nāma-Saṅkīrtana	177
(3) Hearing the Bhāgavata Purāṇa: Bhāgavata Śravaṇa	183
(4) Residing in a Holy Place: Mathurā-Vāsa	187
(5) Serving the Sacred Image: Śrī-Mūrti Sevana	191
Concluding Reflections	198
Conclusion: Prema, Purest Love: Prayojana—GRAHAM M. SCHWEIG	200
The Uncontainable Nature of Prema	200
Is There a "Theology" of the Chaitanya School?	205
Three Foundational Sacred Texts	209
Three Manifestations of the Loving Divinity	213
The Ultimate Theological Focal Point	217
The Divine Love Call	223
A Theology of Divine Secrecy	226
The Gifts of Theology	230

Works Cited 233

Index 259