

Contents

Preface	V
Contents	VII
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
I. Monotheism and Institutions: A Polarized Discussion	5
A. Antagonism between Monotheism and Institutional Particularism?	5
B. A Dangerous Alliance between Monotheism and Institutional Particularism?	12
II. Primary Questions and Argument	16
III. Limitations	18
IV. Shape of the Study	19
Chapter 2: Conceptualizing Monotheism and Institutions in Chronicles	20
I. Contextualizing Monotheism	20
II. Defining and Conceptualizing Monotheism	21
A. Divine Oneness	22
B. Divinity	24
C. Divine Existence	25
D. Toward a Contextual Definition and Conception of Monotheism	26
III. Research on Monotheism in Chronicles	31
IV. A Literary-Rhetorical Approach to Monotheism and its Application to Chronicles	35
A. Configurations of Divine Supremacy in Literary Worlds	37
1. Homological Configurations	38
2. Homologies in Chronicles	42
B. Rhetorical Function of Monotheism	44
C. Summary of Approach	48
V. The Chronicler's Historical Context: A Broad-Based Survey	48
A. Social Context: Population and Economic Collapse	51
B. Religious Distinctiveness in Yehud?	54
C. Yahwistic Temples beyond Yehud	57
D. Non-Yahwistic Diversity around Yehud	60
E. Achaemenid Imperium	61
VI. Literary Considerations	67

Chapter 3: The Temple and Divine Supremacy	72
I. Functional Participation: Yhwh's Exclusive Temple and the Disappearance of Syncretism	75
A. Saul's Reign	78
B. Solomon's Reign	81
C. Athaliah's Reign	86
D. Joash's Reign	87
E. Ahaz's Reign	88
F. Hezekiah's Reign	92
G. Manasseh's Reign	93
Excursus: Shrines and Centralization in Chronicles	97
H. Josiah's Reign	99
I. Conclusions	101
II. Qualitative Participation	102
A. Solomon's Exchange with Hiram (2 Chr 1:18-2:17[2:1-18])	105
1. The Temple and Yhwh's Fame	105
2. The Temple's Participation in Divine Reality	108
3. Resisting Absolute Congruency	110
B. The Temple as Iconic Participant in Divine Reality (an ancient Near Eastern Analogy).....	114
III. Material Participation	117
A. Divine Design and Choice	118
B. Divine Appearances at the Temple Site	122
C. Divine Wisdom	125
D. Wealth and Stature	127
E. Conclusions	130
IV. Chapter Conclusions	131
A. Review	131
B. The Temple, Divine Imaging, and Monotheism	132
 Chapter 4: The Priesthood and Divine Supremacy	 138
I. Priestly Unity and Fullness in Chronicles	140
II. The Priesthood's Relationship to Divine Reality	148
A. Divine Fullness among Priestly Ranks	149
B. Divine Election	150
C. Divine Design	152
III. The Priesthood's Inaugural Hymn (1 Chr 16:8-36)	154
A. Paradigmatic Duties	154
B. Divine Supremacy in the Hymn	156
1. "Beyond all gods"	158
2. Hand-made "gods"	159

3. “But Yhwh made the heavens”	160
4. “Before him ... in his place”	160
5. “Transferring” wealth to the One King	163
6. The Sanctuary as Locus of the Supreme God	164
7. Conclusions	164
IV. Realizing the Vision of 1 Chr 16: Levites as Heralds of Yhwh’s Exalted Presence (2 Chr 20)	165
A. Vanguard Motif	165
B. Levitical Ark-Bearing and Musical Duties	168
1. Levitical Musical Performance as the Logical Extension of Ark-Bearing	169
2. A Levitical Musical Vanguard in Battle	174
C. Conclusions	179
V. Priestly Unity and Jeroboam’s Revolt	180
A. Part I: The Formation of the Kingdom of Judah (2 Chr 11:13-17)	180
B. Part II: Abijah’s Speech to the North (2 Chr 13:4-12).....	185
1. Human-made Priesthoods	187
2. A Priesthood like the Nations’	190
C. Conclusions	191
VI. Patterns of Restoration: Priestly Reappointment Narratives	191
A. Asa’s Reforms (2 Chr 15)	193
B. Jehoshaphat’s Reforms (2 Chr 17, 19)	195
C. Athaliah’s Reign and Jehoiada’s Reform (2 Chr 22:10-23:21) ...	197
D. Hezekiah’s Reform and Ceremony (2 Chr 29-31)	200
E. Josiah’s Reform (2 Chr 35)	203
F. Conclusions	205
VII. Chapter Conclusions	207
 Chapter 5: The Monarchy and Divine Supremacy	209
I. David’s Devotion to the Cult and Supreme King	211
A. David’s Devotion to the Ark and Temple	211
1. David as Nationally Unifying Figure	213
2. David as Reformer	215
3. David as Exemplary Donor	216
B. David’s Farewell Prayer to the Exalted King (1 Chr 29:10-19) ..	217
C. Conclusions	220
II. David’s Participation in Divine Kingship	220
A. Participation Through Covenant	222
1. David’s Prayer (1 Chr 17:16b-27)	222
2. Solomon’s Prayer (2 Chr 6)	230
B. David as Co-Recipient of Worship?	232

C. Conclusions	234
III. Solomon's Participation in Divine Kingship	234
A. Solomon's Election	235
B. Solomon's Royal Splendor and Legitimacy	236
C. Solomon's Status as Occupant of the Divine Throne	237
D. Solomon as Exalted King	241
IV. Summary Reflections on David and Solomon	243
V. Post-Solomonic Participation in Divine Kingship:
Jehoshaphat and Hezekiah	243
A. Jehoshaphat	244
B. Hezekiah	248
VI. Differentiating Human and Divine Rule	253
VII. Chapter Conclusions	257
A. Review	257
B. Aspects of Continuity and Discontinuity between Kingship in Chronicles and Samuel-Kings	259
 Chapter 6: Conclusions	261
I. Integrated World, Exalted Institutions	262
II. Institutional Legitimacy and Theological Reflection	264
III. An Uneasy Alliance	266
 Works Cited	271
 Select Scripture Index	301
 Subject Index	306