

Contents

List of Figures	xi
List of Tables	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
1. 'The Object of Military Law Is to Maintain Discipline': Different Laws for Different People	16
Parallel History: Civilian Law and Military Law	17
The Death Penalty	20
The Aims and Realities of Military Law	26
Civilian Jurisdiction and Military Jurisdiction: Problems and Resolutions	31
The Problem of the 'Criminal'	33
2. 'A Court of Justice and Not a Court of Law!': Courts and Justice in the Services	40
Parallel Histories: Civilian Courts and Military Courts	41
Courts Martial	44
'Heads We Win, Tails You Lose'	53
Bobbies, Redcaps, and Others	58
Punishment	63
3. 'Law Makes Crime': What Difference Does War Make?	70
4. 'The Biggest Thieves in the World': Service Personnel and Property Crime	84
Quarter-blokes and Petty Thieves	85
Thinking Bigger: The Black Market	88
Frauds and Rackets in a Ruined Europe	92
Working in Packs	96
White Collar: Khaki Collar	98
Miscellaneous Offences	102
5. 'I Didn't Like the Officer [...] and I Don't Like You': Crimes Against the Person	105
Drinking, Feuding, and Fighting	107
The Moral Economy of the 20th-century Serviceman	111
Lethal Violence	120
Sexual Violence	122
Gross Indecency	131
6. 'The Unwritten Law': Servicemen and Domestic Violence	136
'Manslaughter under Great Provocation'	137
'I Found Him with My Wife and Did What I Was Entitled To'	142
'The Rising Tide of Bigamy'	145

7. The Shell-shock Defence	148
'My Mind Was Brought Back to the Years When I Was in France'	148
'The Very Man Who Might Go Mad at Any Moment'	152
Barbed-wire Disease	156
8. Post-war Crime Waves?	160
Deserters, Bad Soldiers, Bad Citizens	161
Beggars and Fraudsters	166
Violent Veterans	168
The Veteran As Spiv	171
9. Conscripts and Professionals: Beyond the World Wars	174
The Best Years of Their Lives?	175
War Crimes and Other Crimes	181
Changes in the Military Justice System	185
10. 'I Could Have Done Other Stuff': The Return to Professional Services	191
Drinking, Violence, and Post-traumatic Stress	192
Heroes to Zeroes? Heroes to Victims?	195
Bibliography	202
Index	213