

Contents

List of Figures	viii
List of Tables	ix
List of Abbreviations	x
1 Civil society and democracy in the EU: High expectations under empirical scrutiny Beate Kohler-Koch	1
2 Governing with the European civil society Beate Kohler-Koch	18
3 Involving civil society in EU governance: The consultation regime of the European Commission Christine Quittkat and Beate Kohler-Koch	41
4 Consultation in daily practice: An in-depth analysis Christine Quittkat	62
5 New instruments serving democracy: Do online consultations benefit civil society? Christine Quittkat	85
6 The balancing act of European civil society: Between professionalism and grass roots Beate Kohler-Koch and Vanessa Buth	114
7 Information strategies of organized civil society: Does anyone listen? Christina Altides	149
8 Civil society participation: More democracy or pluralization of the European lobby? Beate Kohler-Koch	173
Appendix	192
Bibliography	196
Index	213
	vii