

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction
Growing Together? Processes and Problems of German Unification Konrad H. Jarausch	1
Part I. Political Processes
Chapter 1
Two Decades of Unity: Continuity and Change in Political Institutions Gero Neugebauer	25
Chapter 2
United, Yet Separate: A View from the East Heinrich Bortfeldt	44
Chapter 3
Debates and Perceptions about German Unification: The Centrality of Discourse Helga A. Welsh	64
Part II. Economic Problems
Chapter 4
Institutional Coping: The Treuhandanstalt and the Collapse of the East German Economy, 1989–1990 Wolfgang Seibel	83
Chapter 5
East Germany 1989–2010: A Fragmented Development Rainer Land	104
Chapter 6
Getting Even: East German Economic Underperformance after Unification Jonathan R. Zatin	119

Part III. Social Upheaval

- Chapter 7*
1989 and the Crisis of Feminist Politics 135
Ute Gerhard
- Chapter 8*
Women's Movements in East Germany: Are We in Europe Yet? 154
Ingrid Miethe
- Chapter 9*
Feminist Encounters: Germany, the EU, and Beyond 171
Myra Marx Ferree

Part IV. Cultural Conflict

- Chapter 10*
GDR Literature Beyond the GDR? 183
Klaus R. Scherpe
- Chapter 11*
Unity and Difference: Some Reflections on a Disparate Field 205
Frank Hörnigk
- Chapter 12*
The Painful Exit from the Cold War: East German Writers and the Demise of the Reading Culture 213
Frank Trommler

Part V. International Normalization

- Chapter 13*
The "Normalization" of Humanitarian and Military Missions Abroad 231
Beate Neuss
- Chapter 14*
German Foreign Policy after 1990: Some Critical Remarks 252
Erhard Crome
- Chapter 15*
"To Deploy or Not to Deploy": The Erratic Evolution of German
Foreign Policy since Unification 267
Andrew I. Port
- Note on Contributors 278
- Selected Bibliography 282
- Index 285