

Contents

Introduction	1
1. Sacramentum : An Ordering Concept from Antiquity to the Early Middle Ages	8
2. The Articulation of Polity: Baptism as the Foundation of an Imperium Christianum	48
3. The Carolingian Subject: The Sacramentum of Baptism and the Formation of Identity in Alcuin of York	94
4. The Carolingian Machinery of Christian Formation: Charlemagne's Encyclical Letter on Baptism from 811/812 and Its Implications	147
5. The Sacramental Assumption: Baptism and Carolingian Society in the Ninth Century	207
Conclusion: Loss and Legacy	262
Bibliography	279
Index	309