

Contents

INTRODUCTION	10
The first civilisations	12
Commerce and conflict	13
Cities – a global phenomenon	15
Centres of importance	19
Technology and meaning	25
Places of transformation	26
CASE STUDY: Tenochtitlán: causeway city	28
CHAPTER 1 THE RENAISSANCE CITY: 1450–1600	30
The West emerges	32
Enterprise and technology	33
New perspectives, new precision	34
Pictures and forms	38
Case study: Venice: jewel in the lagoon	48
CASE STUDY: Constantinople: where West encounters East	54
CHAPTER 2 NEW HORIZONS, NEW WORLDS: 1600–1700	58
New world settlements	60
Urban developments	60
Cities and states	62
Planning Paris and London	65
CASE STUDY: Amsterdam: the canal ring city	74
CHAPTER 3 AN IMPERIAL AGE: 1700–1800	82
Urban and economic growth	84
Places of power	84
New cities for the new world	86
Centres of trade and cosmopolitanism	89
Maps and realities	90
CASE STUDY: Edinburgh: a city of two towns	102

CHAPTER 4 HOTBEDS OF INNOVATION 1800–1900	112
Industries and populations.....	114
Transportation arteries.....	114
The infrastructure of improvement.....	115
Cartography and technology.....	117
An age of information.....	120
A world of changing cities.....	121
CASE STUDY: mapping society: a scientific era	130
CHAPTER 5 A GLOBAL ERA	166
A worldwide trend.....	168
Megacities.....	170
Urban concerns: from sanitation to crime.....	171
Urban and national identities.....	173
The need for residential spaces.....	175
Styles of development.....	177
Shifting centres of gravity.....	178
Changing cityscapes.....	180
New technologies.....	181
Data and discontent.....	182
CASE STUDY: Brasilia: a monument to modernism	194
CHAPTER 6 FROM PRINT TO PIXEL: INTO THE FUTURE	204
Authoritarian visions.....	206
Exemplary cityscapes.....	206
Mind maps and planning maps.....	213
CASE STUDY: Eco-cities: green replaces grime	216
List of maps.....	218
Index.....	221
Image credits.....	224