

Contents

List of Illustrations xi

Foreword xiii

Introduction 1

1. Landscape Painting in the Nineteenth Century 9

Nineteenth-Century Views of New Haven and Its Sentinels 24

Gallery One, Views of New Haven from the Rocks 28

2. Topography and Geology of the New Haven Area 45

3. Silliman's Conundrum: The Role of Basalt in the Geological Controversy between Neptunists and Plutonists 51

4. Tectonic Setting of New Haven's Rocks 61

The Geology of West Rock, East Rock, Pine Rock and Mill Rock 68

West Rock 70

Gallery Two, West Rock Paintings 76

East Rock 92

Gallery Three, East Rock Paintings 96

Pine Rock and Mill Rock 112

5. The Judges Cave on West Rock 117

Gallery Four, Judges Cave Paintings 122

6. Thomas Cole's Landmark in His Course of Empire Paintings 129

Appendix One: Minerals and Metals Associated with Connecticut Basalts 137

Appendix Two: Further Notes on the Artists and Their Art 140

Bibliography 145

Webliography 150

Geologic Glossary 152

Acknowledgments 155