

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
INTRODUCTION	1
Chapter 1
UNIFYING THEME OF 1 CORINTHIANS 5.1–11.1:
PAST CONTRIBUTIONS AND LIMITATIONS	7
1.1. Jewish Sin and Holiness	7
1.2. Condemning Sexual Immorality	11
1.3. Social Identity Formation	16
1.4. Condemning Eating Idol Food	21
1.5. The Approach and Program of This Study	30
Chapter 2
THE LITERARY INTEGRITY OF 1 CORINTHIANS 5.1–11.1	33
2.1. Linguistic Parallels Between 1 Corinthians 5–7 and 1 Corinthians 8.1–11.1	34
2.1.1. ἐλεύθερος 7.21–22, 39//9.1, 19: Total Renunciation	35
2.1.2. ἐξουσιάζω 7.4 (×2)//ἐξουσία 8.9, 9.4–6, 12 (×2), 18: Conditional Use of Authority	35
2.1.3. φυσικόω, ἀγάπη and γνώσις 4.18–5.2//8.1–3: Against Social Evaluation	37
2.1.4. δουλόω 7.15//9.19: Bringing Salvation to Outsiders	38
2.1.4.1. 7.15—Hope for Household Salvation	39
2.1.4.2. 9.19–23—‘I might by all means save some’	43
2.1.5. Other Key Words or Phrases	45
2.2. Thematic Parallels	46
2.2.1. 1 Corinthians 5 and 10: Past and Present	46
2.2.2. Echoes of Deuteronomy	47
2.2.3. No Schisms within the Church	48

2.2.4.	Identity Marker of Sinning Insiders	51
2.2.4.1.	Satan as a Symbol of Discipline Against Sinning Brothers	51
2.2.4.2.	Sinning Brothers as Isolated Insiders	52
2.3.	Conclusion	54
Excursus 1
Critical Comments on Smith's Arguments for a Curse Reading in 1 Corinthians 5.5 54
Chapter 3
THE FUNCTION OF SATAN LANGUAGE IN 1 CORINTHIANS 5.1–11.1 IN THE LIGHT OF THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS AND PSEUDEPIGRAPHA
58
3.1.	Satan in the Dead Sea Scrolls	60
3.1.1.	Belial in the Rule of the Community	61
3.1.1.1.	Covenant Breakers Sharing the Destiny of Belial	61
3.1.1.2.	Belial as a Covenant Breaker: 1QS X, 10-25	62
3.1.2.	Belial in the Damascus Document	64
3.1.2.1.	Belial as a Hunter: CD-A IV, 9–V, 2; CD-A V, 9-11	65
3.1.2.2.	Belial as the Foreign Oppressor Pharaoh: CD-A V, 15-21	67
3.1.2.3.	Belial as an Executioner of Apostate Insiders in the End Times; Apostates are Subject to Temporary Excommunication	68
3.1.2.4.	Conclusion: Paul Shares the Tradition of Three Nets of Belial	70
3.1.3.	Belial in the Halakhic Letter: 4Q398 14-17 II, 1-8	70
3.1.4.	Belial in the War Scroll	70
3.1.4.1.	Belial as a Symbol of Gentile Political Powers: 1QM I, 1-5, 13-17	71
3.1.4.2.	Belial as Past Enemies of Israel: 1QM IV, 1-2; XI, 5-10	71
3.1.4.3.	Belial as an Angel of Enmity Towards God: 1QM XIII, 1-6, 9-12	71
3.1.4.4.	Belial as a Definite Loser in the Future Final Battle: 1QM XV, 1-3; XVI, 11-12	72
3.1.5.	Belial in Other Dead Sea Scroll Texts	72
3.1.5.1.	Belial in Hodayot	72
3.1.5.2.	Belial in Psalms Scrolls 4Q88 and Peshier Psalm 4Q171	73

3.1.5.3.	Belial in 4Q174, 175, 177	73
3.1.5.4.	Belial in 11QMelchizedek	74
3.2.	Satan in the Pseudepigrapha	75
3.2.1.	Satan in the Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs	75
3.2.1.1.	Satan as the Destination, Tempter and the Evil Path of God's People	77
3.2.1.2.	Satan Deceives All Peoples Including Outsiders	78
3.2.1.3.	Relevance to 1 Corinthians 5–7	78
3.2.2.	Satan in the Testament of Job	81
3.2.2.1	Relevance to 1 Corinthians 8.1–11.1	83
3.2.3.	Satan in Other Pseudepigrapha before Paul	84
3.3.	Conclusion	84

Chapter 4

ECHOES OF SCRIPTURE AND IDENTITY FORMATION

IN 1 CORINTHIANS 5.1–11.1: PART 1, 5.1–7.1	89
4.1.	Three Criteria for Identifying the Echoes	90
4.2.	Old Testament Allusions in 1 Corinthians 5: Pentateuch and Sirach	91
4.3.	The Social Context of 1 Corinthians 5: Stepmother–Stepson Union in the First Century	96
4.3.1.	A Condemned Relationship?	97
4.3.2.	The Influence of Poetry and Plays on the Social Ethos	101
4.3.3.	Reasons for Boasting	102
4.3.4.	Implications for 1 Corinthians 5.1	103
4.4.	The Rhetorical Purposes of Old Testament Allusions in 1 Corinthians 5	104
4.4.1.	Not Like the Outsiders	104
4.4.2.	Abandoning an Embracing Attitude towards Sin	105
4.4.3.	Sins are Shameful	109
4.4.4.	Immediate Action against Immoral Insiders	110
4.5.	A Common Theme of 1 Corinthians 5 and 1 Corinthians 6.1–7.1: Insiders Judging Insiders	111
4.6.	Old Testament Allusions in 1 Corinthians 6: Pentateuch and Daniel	112
4.7.	The Social Context of 1 Corinthians 6: Civil Justice and Various Sexual Relations	117
4.8.	The Rhetorical Purposes of Old Testament Allusions in 1 Corinthians 6.1–7.1	121
4.8.1.	Impartial Justice in Making Judgments between Brothers	121

4.8.2.	Condemning Illicit Sex	122
4.8.3.	Abandoning an Embracing Attitude towards Casual Sex	123
4.9.	1 Corinthians 7.1 Summarizes 1 Corinthians 5–6	125
	Excursus 2
	Are the Echoes of Old Testament Recognisable?
	Responses to William Harris' Thesis of Low Literacy Rate	128
Chapter 5
ECHOES OF SCRIPTURE AND IDENTITY FORMATION
IN 1 CORINTHIANS 5.1–11.1: PART 2, 7.2–11.1		134
5.1.	The Social Context of 1 Corinthians 7.2-16	134
5.1.1.	Sexually Open and Temporal Marriage	134
5.1.2.	How Can Marriage Avoid Sexual Immorality?	138
5.2.	The Rhetorical Purposes of Genesis 2.24 in 1 Corinthians 7.2-9	139
5.2.1.	Marriage as Sexually Closed	139
5.2.2.	Sexual Intercourse in Marriage > Devotion to Prayer	141
5.2.3.	Avoiding Sexual Sin > Taking Care of One's Children	142
5.3.	Εἰδωλόθυστα as Idol Meals	144
5.4.	Old Testament Allusions in 1 Corinthians 8.1–11.1	145
5.5.	The Social Context of 1 Corinthians 8.1–11.1: Eating Idol Meals	146
5.5.1.	Local Deities: Solidarity with Family and Friends	147
5.5.2.	Isthmian Gods: Civic Honour	150
5.5.3.	Imperial Cults and Greek Gods: Economic Prosperity	151
5.6.	The Rhetorical Purposes of Old Testament Allusions in 1 Corinthians 8.1–11.1	154
5.6.1.	Against the Religiously Open Polytheistic Culture	154
5.6.2.	Taking Care of Your Weak Brothers	157
5.6.3.	Justifying Paul's Own Rights	158
5.6.4.	Against Eating Isthmian Meals	159
5.6.5.	Against 'One God, Many Names/Idols'	161
5.6.6.	Christ as the Only Benefactor of Insiders	163
5.7.	Conclusion	167

Chapter 6

CHRIST AND THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY:

THE SOCIAL IMPLICATIONS OF CHRIST LANGUAGE

IN 1 CORINTHIANS 5.1–11.1 170

6.1. Christ Language at the Beginning of 1 Corinthians 170

6.1.1. Paul, the Corinthian Church and their Relationship 170

6.1.2. Church-Israel and Church-Society Relations 172

6.2. Christ Language in 1 Corinthians 5:
A Milestone of New Lives 173

6.3. Christ Language in 1 Corinthians 6:
A Wake-up call for Critical Changes 174

6.3.1. Christ as a Spiritual Location 174

6.3.2. Christ as the Eternal Home of Insiders 176

6.4. Christ Language in 1 Corinthians 7: New Social Lives 177

6.4.1. New Marriage as Life-long Union 177

6.4.2. New Patron–Client Relation 179

6.4.3. Disapproval of Mixed Marriage 182

6.4.4. New Tripartite Priority in Christ 188

6.5. Christ Language in 1 Corinthians 8.1–11.1 189

6.5.1. One God, One Lord Jesus Christ 189

6.5.2. Through Christ We Exist 192

6.5.3. The Gospel-in-Motion 194

6.5.4. Refraining from Idol Meals 198

6.5.4.1. The Moving Rock 198

6.5.4.2. Idol Meals Replaced by Christ’s Meal 200

6.5.4.3. Imitating Paul’s Life with Christ-defined
Values 202

6.5.5. Christ Language Encounters Non-confessional
Religion 203

6.6. Conclusion 206

Excursus 3

Is Paul Anti-Imperial? 207

Chapter 7

CONCLUSION 210

Bibliography 217

Index of References 230

Index of Authors 242