

Contents

Foreword by Michel Boivin XI

Acknowledgments XV

List of Figures XVIII

Introduction 1

The Khōjā: History and Importance 2

The Khōjā from the Perspective of Indian Ocean Studies 7

The Current Study: Methodology 9

A Note on Terminology 11

The Current Study: Overview 14

Chapters 1 and 2: The Genealogy and Migration of the Khōjā 14

Chapter 3: Religious Citizenship 15

*Chapters 4 and 5: Quranic Gujarati, Epigraphy, and the Dō'ā'ōnō
Majmū'ō* 19

Chapter 6: Shrines 21

Chapter 7: The Veil 26

Conclusion 27

PART I

Historiography

1 Genealogy: The Origins of the Khōjā 33

Religious Origins 33

Migration and Diaspora 35

Schism 35

From Indic Caste to Islamic Nationhood 44

Esoteric versus Exoteric Readings of Khōjā Religion 45

2 The African Khōjā: From the Colonial Period to the Present 48

The Colonial Period 48

The Postcolonial Period: African Independence 51

The Development of the Khōjā Community in Dar es Salaam 54

Khōjā Confederation from the Postwar Period to the Present 56

Khōjā Demographics in Modern-Day Africa 58

PART 2

Politics

- 3 The Evolution of Khōjā Political Power: Religious Citizenship 67
 Introduction 67
 Khōjā Membership as Communal Citizenship 67
 Conditions of Membership 68
 The Center: Ethnicity and Gender 68
 The Periphery: Inter-marriage and Half-Castes 70
 Constitutional Organization 72
 Taxation 76
 Social Welfare 77
 Foreign Policy 79
 Uganda: 1972 Asian Expulsion 79
 Somalia: Operation Ghadeer 80
 Conclusion 82

PART 3

Linguistics

- 4 The Khōjā Language: Quranic Gujarati 93
 Introduction 93
 Background 93
 Bōhrā Gujarati: A Move toward Persianized Urdu and Arabic 94
 Ismā'il's Quranic Transliteration Scheme 96
 Historical Background: Religious Texts for the Laity 96
 Opposition and Legal Rulings 97
 The Increasing Importance of Arabic Texts 98
 Detailed Analysis: Consonants 99
 Detailed Analysis: Vowels and Punctuation Marks 102
 Comparative Analysis: The Quran, Chapter 1, Verses 1-7 104
 Adoption 106
 Indo-African Epigraphy: Seven Inscriptions 107
 Inscription 1. An Early Entryway Inscription on the Khōjā Hujjatul Islam Masjid 108
 Inscription 2. An Entryway Inscription on a Khōjā Caravanserai 108
 Inscription 3. A Later Entryway Inscription on the Khōjā Hujjatul Islam Masjid 110

Inscription 4. An Entryway Inscription on the Āgākhānī Khōjā Poor Women's Home 111

Inscription 5. An Entryway Inscription on an Āgākhānī Khōjā Jamātkhānā 112

Inscription 6. A Façade Inscription on a Khōjā Widows' Home (Vidhvāśram) 113

Inscription 7. A Memorial Entryway Inscription on a Kuwwatul Islam Imāmvādō 114

Polyglotism 115

Conclusion 116

5 Khōjā Religious Texts: The Dō'āōnō Majmū'ō 118

Introduction 118

Overview 118

Table of Contents 119

The Text: Selective Analysis 121

List of Names 121

Prayers for Alleviating Difficulty 122

Sacred Maps 122

Quranic Bibliomancy 125

The Majmū'ō in African Praxis 128

Conclusion 129

PART 4

Ethnology

6 Ritual Space: Khōjā Shrines 137

Introduction 137

The Mēhphīl as a Sacred Space 137

Material Culture, Worship, and Fellowship in Shrines 138

Material Culture 138

Worship: The Khōjā Majlis 140

Communal Fellowship: The Caste Feast 144

Other Ritual Spaces: Taboos 145

The Story of a Shrine: Mēhphīlē Abbās 147

Sacrality 150

Conferring Sacrality: Historical Rituals and Modern Renovation 150

Permanent and Temporary Sacrality 151

	Shifts in Sacrality	152
	Performing Sacrality	153
	The Proliferation of Shrines	155
	Conclusion	157
7	The Body: The Khōjā Adoption of the Veil	158
	Introduction	158
	Overview: Abbasi's Lectures and the Complex Background of the Adoption of the Veil	159
	Historical Precedent: Use of the Veil before the 1980s	160
	The Adoption of the Veil among the Ismaili Bōhrā	161
	The Influence of Postcolonial Changes	162
	Postcolonial Insecurity	162
	Dar es Salaam Hegira	163
	The Influence of Zanzibari Culture	164
	Symbolism of the Veil in Narrative Prayers	166
	Narratives of Resistance to Colonization	168
	The Influence of Iran	169
	Prerevolutionary Iran	169
	The Iranian Revolution: Messianic Iran	170
	Postrevolutionary Iran: A Utopian Dystopia	170
	Veiling Change: The Veil in Modern-Day Discourses	173
	The Veil as a Source of Power: Feminist Discourse and Resistance to Western Oppression	173
	The Missionary Imperative	174
	The Islamic Concept: The Veil as an Expression of Islamic Culture	176
	Résistance: Nonadoption of the Veil	177
	Conclusion	178
	Conclusion	180
	Lexicon	185
	Bibliography	194
	Index	221