

Contents

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xi
List of Contributors	xiii
Part I. Concepts
1. On Cohesion Anthony King	3
2. Subaltern Soldiers: Eurocentricism and the Nation-State in the Combat Motivation Debates Tarak Barkawi	24
3. Killing and Cohesion in Close Combat: Contexts and Concepts from the First World War to the Present Rob Johnson	46
Part II. Current Debates
4. From a Sociology of Units to a Sociology of Combat Formations: Militaries and Cohesion in Urban Combat Eyal Ben-Ari	73
5. Discipline and Punish: Encouraging Combat Performance in the Citizen and Professional Army Anthony King	93
Part III. Historical Experience
6. Combat and Cohesion in the Early Twentieth Century: Strengthening the Inverted Pyramid Antulio J. Echevarria II	119
7. Re-evaluating Combat Cohesion: The British Second Army in the Northwest Europe Campaign of the Second World War Jonathan Fennell	134

Part IV. Case Studies

8. New Model Diggers: Australian Identity, Motivation, and Cohesion in Afghanistan 167
Garth Pratten
9. A Profession of Love: Cohesion in a British Platoon in Afghanistan 200
Patrick Bury and Anthony King
10. Hierarchy, Status, and Combat Motivation in the French Foreign Legion 216
Mikaela Sundberg
11. Cohesion and Misconduct: The French Army and the Mahé Affair 234
Pascal Vennesson
12. Cohesion, Political Motivation, and Military Performance in the Italian Alpini 250
Chiara Ruffa

Part V. The Home Front

13. Of FOBs and Families 269
Leonard Wong and Stephen Gerras
14. Beyond the Battlefield 291
Christopher Dandeker and Simon Wessely
15. The Future of Cohesion 309
Anthony King

Bibliography 325

Index 349