

Contents

vii	Contributors
xi	Preface and Acknowledgments
1	1 Introduction KARL GALINSKY

Part One: Concepts and Approaches

24	2 Kaleidoscopes and the Spinning of Memory in the Eastern Roman Empire SUSAN E. ALCOCK
33	3 Monument and Memory in Ancient Greece and Rome: A Comparative Perspective RACHEL KOUSSER
49	4 The Mnemology of Empire and Resistance: Memory, Oblivion, and Periegesis in Imperial Greek Culture TIM WHITMARSH

Part Two: Imperial Memories and Local Identities

66	5 Making Masters, Making Subjects: Imperial Ideology and Memory Policy in the Early Roman Empire and in the Later Roman State JOHN WEISWEILER
86	6 Ritual and Memory: Hellenistic Ruler Cults in the Roman Empire CARLOS F. NOREÑA
101	7 Cultural Memory, Religious Practice, and the Invention of Tradition: Some Thoughts on Philostratus's Account of the Cult of Palaemon JAS' ELSNER
116	8 Shaping the Memory of Early Christian Cult Sites: Conspicuous Antiquity and the Rhetoric of Renovation at Rome, Cimitile-Nola, and Poreč ANN MARIE YASIN

Part Three: Presence and Absence of Memory in the Roman East and West

- 134 9 The Homeric Memory Culture of Roman Ilion
C. BRIAN ROSE
- 153 10 From the Individual to the Collective: Memory Practices on Religious Sites
in Roman Britain
ZENA KAMASH
- 170 11 The Western Empire and the “People without History”:
A Case Study from Southern Iberia
ALICIA JIMÉNEZ
- 191 12 Kings from the Deep: The Lydian Lakes and the Archaeological Imagination
FELIPE ROJAS
-

Part Four: The Transformation of Memory at Rome

- 206 13 Mars and Memory
GREG WOOLF
- 225 14 Conflict, Culture, and Concord: Some Observations on Alternative Memory
in Ancient Rome
STEVEN H. RUTLEDGE
- 240 15 The Multivalence of Memory: The Tetrarchs, the Senate, and the Vicennalia
Monument in the Roman Forum
ELIZABETH MARLOWE
- 264 Bibliography
- 291 Index