

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| The transformative power of the European Union: An introductionIreneusz P. Karolewski/Monika Sus                                       | 7   |
| Part One: The EU's transformative power towards Poland'slegal and political system  | 19  |
| Chapter 1: The European transformation of the legislative, executiveand judicial power in PolandRobert Grzeszczak                  | 21  |
| Chapter 2: European Union activity in the field of civil law and itsimpact on Polish national contract lawEwa Wójtowicz            | 36  |
| Chapter 3: Interest representation in Poland after EU accession:More regulated, professional and legitimate?Agnieszka K. Cianciara | 54  |
| Chapter 4: The impact of EU membership on Polish political partiesAnna Paczeńskiak   | 78  |
| Part Two: Case studies of the EU's transformative power  | 109 |
| Chapter 5: The transformation of EU governance, identity makingand the counterterrorism policies of the EUIreneusz P. Karolewski   | 111 |
| Chapter 6: The Polish renewable energy and climate policies underthe impact of the EUAndrzej Ceglarz/Andrzej Ancygier              | 137 |

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 7: Polish foreign policy after 2004: How European is it really? The case of the Eastern dimension of the ENP | 169 |
| Monika Sus  |     |
| Chapter 8: Functionalism and transformation potential of the European Union. The case of Eastern Partnership         | 189 |
| Stanisław Konopacki   |     |
| Chapter 9: The neofunctional transformation in the Polish borderland?  | 205 |
| Anna Bachmann   |     |
| Chapter 10: Gender equality policy after the Polish accession to the EU: Transformation or obstinacy?                | 230 |
| Jolanta Maj   |     |
| Notes on Contributors  | 251 |