

Contents

Foreword IX

Prof. Dr. Vaira Viķe-Freiberga

Preface XI

Krzysztof Pomian

Acknowledgements XVI

List of Illustrations XVII

Introduction 1

Prologue: On the Eve of the 20th Century, a Cultural Awakening that Faced Twin Obstructions 13

- 1 Awakening of the Latvian Provinces in the Second Half of the 19th Century 14
- 2 The Artistic Influence of Germany and Russia 28
- 3 Towards a 'Romantic Nation' 43

PART 1

1905–1915 A Socio-Cultural 'Risorgimento'

- 1 The Emergence of Demands for Autonomy in the Russian Empire 59
  - A 1905: The First Revolution for Liberation 59
  - B The Structure of Latvian Society 69
  - C Between Imperial Loyalty and the Pull of Nationhood 76
- 2 The Formation Of An Imaginary Landscape for the Latvian Nation (1905–1920) 83
  - A The Presence of German and Russian Cultures: Double Oppression or Double Opportunity? 83
  - B The Idea of Latvia: Existing Reality or 'Invention' 87
  - C Ethnographic Culture: A Crucial Foundation for Identity 94
- 3 The Arts in the Service of the Latvian Idea 102
  - A Creation of an Appropriate Context for the Latvian Arts 102
  - B Painting at the Outposts of National Construction 112
  - C Architects Create the Setting 121

PART 2*1915–1920 *The Chaos of the First World War

- 4 The Collapse of the Russian Empire and the Emergence of Latvian Political Demands 154
  - A The Latvian Riflemen, Trailblazers of National Pride 154
  - B Civilians in the War: Refugees and the German Occupation 166
  - C Emergence of the Latvian State Thanks to the Russian Revolution 173
- 5 Depiction of a Heroic People, a New Source from the Imaginary Landscape Created in Latvian Art 182
  - A The Representation of Battles 182
  - B Artists and the Epic Hardships of Refugee Life 190
  - C Art in the Midst of Turmoil 198
- 6 Artists in the Service of National Symbolism 208
  - A The Image of the New State 208
  - B Military Symbols 220
  - C The Influence of Patriotic Representation in Public Life 230

PART 3*1920–1934 *The Construction of a State

- 7 A Vulnerable Parliamentary State 239
  - A A Constitution is Laboriously Put in Place 239
  - B The Latvian State Faced with a Culturally Heterogeneous Population 246
  - C Running the Affairs of State 255
- 8 An Assertive Cultural Policy 270
  - A The Past, a Source of Inspiration 271
  - B Creation of New Cultural Institutions 287
  - C In Sculpture, the Influence of Commissions 297
- 9 The ‘Latvianization’ of the Visual Arts 326
  - A Painting 326
  - B Emblems and Decorative Arts 363
  - C Architecture and the Return to Order 406

PART 4From Nation to Nationalism

- 10 The Authoritarian Regime (1934–1940) 422
  - A An Authoritarian Regime Takes Control 422
  - B Latvia: A Latvianized State 437
  - C A Change of Model: Drawing Inspiration from Italian fascism 442
- 11 Latvianisation of the Arts 452
  - A The State as a Participant in Artistic Activities 453
  - B Celebrating Latvian Identity in the Field of Painting 464
  - C Decorative Arts – Embracing the Nation 480
- 12 Architecture and Urban Development Harnessed by the State 500
  - A Strengthened Institutions 501
  - B Tendencies 504
  - C Projects on an Epic Scale 515
- Conclusion 525
- Maps 531
- Chronology 534
- Bibliography and Sources 541
- Index 563