

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii

PART I INTRODUCTION

1	The Anthropology of Suicide: Ethnography and the Tension of Agency Daniel Münster and Ludek Broz	3
---	--	---

PART II SUICIDE, PERSONHOOD AND RELATIONALITY

2	Personhood, Agency and Suicide in a Neo-Liberalizing South India James Staples	27
3	The Lonely Un-Dead and Returning Suicide in Northwest Greenland Janne Flora	47
4	Between Demons and Disease: Suicide and Agency in Yucatan, Mexico Beatriz M. Reyes-Foster	67
5	Four Funerals and a Wedding: Suicide, Sacrifice, and (Non-)Human Agency in a Siberian Village Ludek Broz	85

PART III SELF-DESTRUCTION AND POWER: BODIES, RESISTANCE AND CRISES

6	Farmers' Suicide and the Moral Economy of Agriculture: Victimhood, Voice, and Agro-Environmental Responsibility in South India Daniel Münster	105
---	---	-----

7	Dying to Live in Palestine: Steadfastness, Pollution and Embodied Space Deen Sharp and Natalia Linos	127
8	Accumulating Death: Women's Moral Agency and Domestic Economies of Care in South India Jocelyn Chua	147
9	Learning Suicide and the Limits of Agency: Children's "Suicide Play" in Sri Lanka Tom Widger	165
10	Suicide, Agency and the Limits of Power Katrina Jaworski	183
PART IV AFTERWORD
11	Afterword: Taking Relationality to Extremes Marilyn Strathern	205
	Index	213