

Table of Contents

List of Figures	xi
List of Maps	xiii

Introduction	1
 1. Revolution	 11
Crisis and Reform as Politics in the Contemporary Ottoman Empire	14
Founding the Young Turk Movement	28
The 31 March Incident and the New Political Precedents of Ottoman Politics	34
To Rule and Govern: The Challenges and Structures of Prewar Unionist Administration	38
 2. Collapse on the Margins	 53
The Signposts for Catastrophe: The Balkans, Libya, and Yemen	56
War over Libya	70
War over the Balkans	79
Catastrophe's Aftermath: Politics and Society after the Balkan Wars	90
 3. Great War	 101
Taking the Nation to War: Internal and External Politics	103
A New Nation Forged in War: Mobilization and National Politics	110
The Fighting Begins: From the Caucasus to the Sinai	116
Gallipoli: The Great Victory	121
A Pyrrhic Struggle in Iraq	127
Taking Stock of War in 1916	130
 4. Deportation	 135
Setting the Scene for Disaster: Anatolia in the Modern Era	140
Unionist Anatolia: Conditions for Disaster	151
Ottoman Settlement Politics and the Road to Mass Exile	159
The Great Disaster Commences, November 1914–April 1915	165
An Empire Remade by Exile	170
Life after Exile: International and Local Implications of the Deportations	180
 5. Empire Divided	 185
Becoming the Arab Lands: Arab Politics and Society in the Nineteenth Century	189
Arabs and Young Turks: Arab Politics and Society under the CUP	201
War in the Arab Lands: The Travails of the Early War Years	207

War's Bitter End: The Ottoman Retreat from the Arab Lands	218
Dismantling the Ottoman Empire in the Arab lands	227
6. Downfall and Repudiation	235
Unionism's Fall: Ottoman Strategy and High Politics at the End of the Great War	240
The Last Thermidor: Wartime Society and the Development of Postwar Politics in Anatolia	249
"Let us Resist": The National Movement Emerges	263
"The World has Caught Fire": Massacre, Insurrection, and the End of the Ottoman Empire	278
Coda: The Life and Times of the "Last Ottoman"	294
Bibliography	299
Index	311