

Brief Contents

Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
About the Author	xix
1 Introduction: The Terrorist Threat	1
PART I
Terrorism	17
2 The Perennial Debate: What Is Terrorism?	19
3 Terrorism in the Global Context	45
4 Terrorism in the American Context	72
5 Religious Terrorism: Political Violence in the Name of God	105
6 The Making of Terrorists: Causes, Conditions, Influences	135
7 Women, Children, and Terrorism	155
8 Common Thread: Goals, Targets, and Tactics	173
9 Organizational Structures and the Financing of Terror	206

PART II
Counterterrorism	233
10 Terrorism and America's Post-9/11 National Security Strategy	235
11 The Utility of Hard and Soft Power in Counterterrorism	255
12 Balancing Security, Liberty, and Human Rights	287
13 Homeland Security: Prevention and Preparedness	322
PART III
Terrorism and Counterterrorism in News Media and Internet	351
14 Terrorist Propaganda and the Mainstream Media	353
15 Terror and Hate in Cyberspace	379
16 Counterterrorism in the News	400
17 Conclusion: Living with Terrorist Threats	419
Appendix: Major Terrorist Incidents since the Late 1970s	427
Bibliography	441
Index	451

Detailed Contents

Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
About the Author	xix
1 Introduction: The Terrorist Threat	1
Terrorism Trends Over the Last Decades	7
PART I
Terrorism	17
2 The Perennial Debate: What Is Terrorism?	19
The Meaning of Terrorism Over Time	22
The Definitional Potpourri	23
Obama Administration: Downplaying the “T” Word	34
Public Debate on the Definition of Terrorism	34
State Terror(ism)	35
The Meaning of Terrorism in this Volume	37
Is Terrorism Ever Justified?	37
Terrorism Studies, a Field in Search of Theory and Methodology	39
3 Terrorism in the Global Context	45
Different Types of Groups	46
The Roots of Modern Terrorism	48
The Post-World War II Wave	50
1968: The Advent of Modern-Day Terrorism	52

IRA and ETA: Groups that Transcend the Average Life

Span of Terrorist Groups 55

The Decline of Left-Wing Terrorism 57

The Rise of Catastrophic Terrorism 58

Unrestrained Terrorism and Counterterrorism after the Cold War 59

The Old and New Terrorism in the Post–Cold War Era 60

Modernization, Globalization, and the Proliferation of Religious Violence 62

*ISIS—a Terrorist Organization, a Guerrilla Force, or a
Rogue State?* 67

4 Terrorism in the American Context

72

Right-Wing Terrorism 73

The Ku Klux Klan 74

Christian Identity and Neo-Nazi Groups 79

The Patriot and Militia Movement 82

The Sovereign Citizens Movement 85

Left-Wing Terrorism 87

The First Anarchists in the United States 87

The Weather Underground 89

The Black Panther Party 90

The Symbionese Liberation Army 91

Single-Issue Terrorism 92

Antiabortion Violence 93

The Animal and Earth Liberation Fronts 95

The Jewish Defense League 96

Puerto Rican Nationalist Groups 97

Ideological Waves 99

5 Religious Terrorism: Political Violence in the Name of God

105

Defending the Faith in “Cosmic Wars” 112

The Proliferation of Religious Violence 114

Alienation, Humiliation, and Fear 115

The Jihadi Movement and Political Violence 118

Muslims 118

Islamists 119

Salafis and Wahhabis 120

	Jihadis	120
	Jihadi Ideology	122
	Homegrown Jihadis in the West—Including the United States	127
6	The Making of Terrorists: Causes, Conditions, Influences	135
	Terrorism as a Result of Rational Choice	139
	Terrorism as a Result of Personal Traits	141
	Terrorism as a Result of Social Interaction	144
	Differences between Leaders and Followers	145
	The Lone Wolf Phenomenon	146
	The Lack of a Universal Terrorist Profile	148
	The Stages Leading to Terrorism	148
	The Roots of Terrorism: No Simple Answers	151
7	Women, Children, and Terrorism	155
	For the Sake of Love	162
	Demonstration of Gender Equality	163
	Can Real Women Become Terrorists?	164
	Tactical Advantages of Female Terrorists	165
	The Making of Child Terrorists	168
8	Common Thread: Goals, Targets, and Tactics	173
	Do Terrorists Achieve Their Goals?	174
	The Selection of Targets	175
	Terrorist Methods: From Primitive Bombs to WMD	178
	Most Common Methods of Terrorist Attacks	180
	Most Likely CBRN Weapons in the Hands of Terrorists	199
9	Organizational Structures and the Financing of Terror	206
	ISIS: Organized Like a Police State	215
	How Terrorist Groups Decline or End	216
	Terrorist Groups' Big Helpers: State Sponsors	218
	The Case of Saudi Arabia	221
	Failed and Failing States and "Brown Areas"	223
	Involuntary Host Countries	225
	Financing Terrorism	225
	Narco-Terrorism or Narco-Funded Terrorism?	228

PART II
Counterterrorism	233
10 Terrorism and America's Post-9/11 National Security Strategy	235
President Bush's National Security Strategy	241
I. Making the World Safer and Better	241
II. Preemption Before Threats Become Imminent	242
III. Unilateral Use of Force	243
President Obama's National Security Strategy	244
Obama's Controversial "Drone War"	249
11 The Utility of Hard and Soft Power in Counterterrorism	255
Military Hard Power	258
Military Retaliation/Reprisal	259
Military Preemption	262
Commando Raids	264
Assassinations	266
Hostage Rescue Missions	268
Nonmilitary Hard Power: Economic Sanctions	270
Drying Up Financial Resources	271
Soft Power and Counterterrorism	272
Deterrence	272
Diplomacy	273
Talking to Terrorist Groups	276
Public Diplomacy	279
Conciliation and Peace	281
12 Balancing Security, Liberty, and Human Rights	287
U.S. Anti- and Counterterrorism Laws	291
Edward Snowden: Hero or Villain?	297
The Rights of "Enemy Combatants"	301
Torture: Leaders and Followers	306
Obama on Torture and Rendition	314
Torture: The Public Debate	315
13 Homeland Security: Prevention and Preparedness	322
Problems with the Basic Homeland Security Approach	325
Preparedness for Man-Made and Natural Disaster	326

Post-9/11 Reorganization of Homeland Security	327
General and Specific Homeland Security Strategies	333
It's the Intelligence, Stupid	335
Reorganization of the Intelligence Community	340
International Cooperation	344
Congress Resists Change	346

PART III

Terrorism and Counterterrorism in News Media and Internet	351
14 Terrorist Propaganda and the Mainstream Media	353
Publicity: The Universal Terrorist Goal	358
An Alternative View: Contemporary Terrorists Do Not Need Publicity	359
Terrorism and the Triangle of Communication	361
Media-Related Goals	362
The Attention-Getting Goal	363
The Recognition Goal	365
The Respectability/Legitimacy Goal	368
Bedfellows in a Marriage of Convenience	369
Media and Terrorist Contagion	371
Defending the Media	373
Treason or Public Service?	374
15 Terror and Hate in Cyberspace	379
Social Media as an Ideal Alternative to Mainstream Media	386
Radicalization, Recruitment, and Incitement	387
Preaching Hate and Inciting Violence	389
Self-Reporting of Violence	391
Planning and Executing Terrorist Operations	392
Retrieving Valuable Information	395
Raising Funds	396
16 Counterterrorism in the News	400
The Media and Military Responses to Terrorism	405
The Bombing of Libya (1986)	405
Bombing of Iraq's Intelligence Headquarters (1993)	406
Missile Strikes in Afghanistan and Sudan (1998)	407

The Post-9/11 War Against Terrorism	408
Military Action Against Al Qaeda and the Taliban (2001)	410
The Invasion of Iraq (2003)	412
The Iraq War: Different News Coverage Abroad	415
17 Conclusion: Living with Terrorist Threats	419
Appendix: Major Terrorist Incidents
since the Late 1970s	427
Bibliography	441
Index	451