

CONTENTS

List of Figures	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Notes on Contributors	xi
Introduction	1
PART I
Conceptual Cartographies	13
1 On the Zoopolitics of the Voice and the Distinction Between Nature and Culture Ana María Ochoa	16
2 The Aesthetic Subject and the Politics of Speculative Labor Marina Vishmidt	25
3 Art and the Politics of Time-as-Substance John Roberts	37
4 The Choreopolitical: Agency in the Age of Control André Lepecki	44
5 Thinking Contradictory Thoughts: On the Convergence of Aesthetic and Social Factors in Recent Sociologies of Art Eduardo de la Fuente	53

6	Becoming Revolutionary: On Russian Suprematism Boris Groys	67
7	Failure Over Utopia Lisa Le Feuvre	75
8	What Did You Hear? Another Ten Theses on Militant Sound Investigation Ultra-red	83
PART II
	Institutional Materialities	91
9	Institutional Critique Redux Critical Art Ensemble	95
10	Social Turns: In Theory and Across the Arts Shannon Jackson	104
11	The Politics of Contemporary Curating: A Network Perspective Joasia Krysa	114
12	Perverse Joy: The Paradoxes of Censorship Svetlana Mintcheva	122
13	Art Is Garbage Toby Miller	129
14	Grass Stage's Theater of Precarity in Shanghai Mark Driscoll	139
15	Evangelicalism and the Gay Movement in Singapore: Witnessing and Confessing Through Masks Keng Sen Ong	148
16	A Transformative Initiative for Achieving Cultural Equity: Community Arts University Without Walls Marta Moreno Vega	159
17	Hapticality in the Undercommons Stefano Harney	173

PART III
Modalities of Practice		181
18 Charming for the Revolution: Pussy and Other Riots		184
Jack Halberstam
19 The Yes Men		194
Jacques Servin
20 16 Notes on Collectivism and Dark Matter		200
Gregory Sholette
21 Some Notes about Art, Code, and Politics under Cloudy Empire(s)		205
Ricardo Dominguez
22 The Aesthetics of Algorithmic Experience		214
Ned Rossiter and Soenke Zehle
23 Computational Aesthetics in the Practices of Art as Politics		222
Patricia Ticiento Clough
24 Toward Participatory Aesthetics: An Interview with Claire Bishop		230
Claire Bishop with David Riff and Ekaterina Degot
25 The Politics of Popular Art in India		237
Swati Chattopadhyay
PART IV
Making Publics		249
26 Living Politics: The Zapatistas Celebrate their Twentieth Anniversary		252
Diana Taylor
27 Carnival, Radical Humor, and Media Politics		261
Robert Stam
28 Dynamic Encounters and the Benjaminian Aura: Reflections on the New Media, Next Media, and Connectivity		272
Wafaa Bilal
29 Seeking a Theater of Liberation		278
Dudley Cocke

Contents

30	By Any Means Necessary Jan Cohen-Cruz	288
31	If You Really Care about Change, Why Devote Your Life to Arts and Culture? Reflections of a Cultural Organizer Caron Atlas	298
32	Pedagogies in the Oakland Projects Suzanne Lacy	309
	Index	321