

Children, Youth, and Spirituality in a Troubling World presents purposeful conversation on the spiritual yearnings, expressions, and challenges of children and youth in a world of rapid change, dislocation, violence, and competing loyalties. Leading the conversation are the following essayists:

■ Claire Bischoff ■ Susanne Johnson ■ Jennie S. Knight ■ Bonnie Miller-McLemore ■ Mary Elizabeth Mullino Moore ■ Joyce Ann Mercer ■ Veronice Miles ■ Rodger Nishioka ■ Evelyn Parker ■ Luther E. Smith Jr. ■ Joshua Thomas ■ Katherine Turpin ■ David White ■ Almeda Wright ■ Karen Marie Yust

MARY ELIZABETH MULLINO MOORE will become dean of the School of Theology, Boston University, in January 2009. She is the author of several books, including Teaching as a Sacramental Act, and currently directs the Women in Theology and Ministry Program at Candler School of Theology, Emory University, where she is also professor of religion and education.

ALMEDA M. WRIGHT is a doctoral candidate in practical theology at Emory University, where her research focuses on spirituality and race-identity development among African American youth. She currently serves as the assistant director and research coordinator of the Youth Theological Initiative at Candler School of Theology.
