

Contents

Acknowledgements VII

Notes on Contributors VIII

Introduction: Beyond a Western-Centric Historical Interpretation of the Great War 1

Oto Luthar and Nikolai Vukov

1 The Man Who Marched Away: WWI in the Memories of Slovenian Soldiers 18

Oto Luthar

2 War in Puszta: The Great War and the Hungarian Peasantry 38

Ignác Romsics

3 Between Reality and Imagination: Changing Memories of the Serbian Theatre of War 55

Daniela Schanes

4 “An Ugly Black Night”: Remembering the Austro-Hungarian Occupation of Serbia 1915–1918 71

Olga Manojlović Pintar and Vera Gudac Dodić

5 Bosniaks in WWI: Loyal, Obedient, Different 85

Ahmed Pašić

6 Caring for the Wounded: Zagreb Military Hospitals in WWI 97

Vijoleta Herman Kaurić

7 Internment in WWI: The Case of Thalerhof 111

Katharina Wesener

8 War and Memory: The Fascist Instrumentalization of the Italian Front 123

Fabio Todero

- 9 War Commemorations in Inter-War Romania: Cultural Politics and Social Context 137
Silviu Hariton
- 10 Commemorating the Dead and the Dynamics of Forgetting: Post-mortem Interpretations of WWI in Bulgaria 162
Nikolai Vukov
- Index 189