

Contents

- 1 Rethinking Multiculturalism from a Trans-East-Asian Perspective 1
Koichi Iwabuchi, Hyun Mee Kim and Hsiao-Chuan Hsia

SECTION 1: MULTICULTURALISM POLICY DISCOURSE: CRITICAL INTERROGATION 19

- 2 Korean Multiculturalism and Its Discontents 21
Ji-Hyun Ahn
- 3 Multicultural Taiwan: Policy Developments and Challenges 37
Li-Jung Wang
- 4 Multicultural Co-living (tabunka kyosei) in Japan: Localized
Engagement without Multiculturalism 55
Koichi Iwabuchi

SECTION 2: RACIALIZATION OF MULTICULTURAL
SITUATIONS 69

- 5 The Racialization of Multicultural Families by Media
in a Multicultural Nation 71
Hyesil Jung
- 6 Enacting Race and the Nation in Taiwan: How Immigration Laws
Embodiment the Dark Side of the Nation-building Process in Taiwan 85
Bruce Yuan-Hao Liao
- 7 Intersecting Japanese Nationalism and Racism as Everyday
Practices: Toward Constructing a Multiculturalist Japanese
Society 103
Yuko Kawai

SECTION 3: CULTURAL POLITICS OF MULTICULTURAL SUBJECT MAKINGS	125
8 Can “Multicultural Soldiers” Serve the Nation? The Social Debate about the Military Service Management of Mixed-Race Draftees in South Korea Hyun Mee Kim	127
9 The Making of Multiculturalistic Subjectivity: The Case of Marriage Migrants’ Empowerment in Taiwan Hsiao-Chuan Hsia	141
10 Historicizing Mixed-Race Representations in Japan: From Politicization to Identity Formation Sachiko Horiguchi and Yuki Imoto	163
SECTION 4: MULTICULTURALISM AND LONG-EXISTING ETHNIC MINORITIES	183
11 Hwagyo under the Multiculturalism in South Korea: Residual Chinese or Emerging Transcultural Subject? Hyunjoon Shin	185
12 Multiculturalism and Indigenous Peoples: A Critical Review of the Experience in Taiwan Daya Dakasi Da-Wei Kuan	203
13 Living in Love and Hate: Transforming Representations and Identities of Zainichi Koreans in Contemporary Japan Kohei Kawabata	221
Index	235
About the Contributors	239