

CONTENTS

A Note on Translations	ix
Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1	17
Making Nazi Flags and Nazi Citizens	17
The First Nuremberg Law: Of New York Jews and Nazi Flags	19
The Second Nuremberg Law: Making Nazi Citizens America: The Global Leader in Racist Immigration Law	29
American Second-Class Citizenship	34
The Nazis Pick Up the Thread	37
Toward the Citizenship Law: Nazi Politics in the Early 1930s	43
The Nazis Look to American Second-Class Citizenship	48
Conclusion	59
CHAPTER 2	69
Protecting Nazi Blood and Nazi Honor	73
Toward the Blood Law: Battles in the Streets and the Ministries	73
Battles in the Streets: The Call for “Unambiguous Laws”	81
Battles in the Ministries: The Prussian Memorandum and the American Example	81
Conservative Juristic Resistance: Gürtner and Lösener	83
The Meeting of June 5, 1934	87
The Sources of Nazi Knowledge of American Law	93
Evaluating American Influence	113
Defining “Mongrels”: The One-Drop Rule and the Limits of American Influence	124
	127

CONCLUSION	132
America through Nazi Eyes	132
America's Place in the Global History of Racism	137
Nazism and American Legal Culture	146
Acknowledgments	163
Notes	165
Suggestions for Further Reading	197
Index	201

Translatio
noted. I h
English w passages
.html.

One G
June 5, 1
script app
als on th
procedur
Reform d
The rele
transcrip
edited d
available
stenogra
reproduc