

Contents

- 1 Introduction 1
Lynn Catterson

The Artist as Dealer

- 2 The Many Hats of Mary Cassatt: Artist, Advisor, Broker, Tastemaker 39
Laura D. Corey
- 3 The Misses Williams in Salem and Rome 59
Jacqueline Marie Musacchio

Dealers Shaping and Influencing Taste

- 4 “A Public-Spirited Merchant”
Samuel P. Avery, Art Dealer, Advisor, Philanthropist 93
Leanne Zalewski
- 5 Dealing with Cubism: Daniel-Henry Kahnweiler’s Perilous Internationalism 115
Fae Brauer

Supply Created by Dealer

- 6 Charles Mather Ffoulke and the Market for Tapestries in Late Nineteenth-Century America 161
Denise M. Budd
- 7 The Art Dealer and the Devil: Remarks on the Relationship of Elia Volpi and Wilhelm von Bode 181
Patrizia Cappellini

Demand Created by Dealers

- 8 An Imaginary Italy on the Shores of Florida: Paul Chalfin, Vizcaya and the International Market for Italian Decorative Arts in 1910s 205
Flaminia Gennari-Santori
- 9 Selling French Modern Art on the American Market: César de Hauke as Agent of Jacques Seligmann & Co., 1925–1940 227
Sébastien Chauffour

The Role of Photographs in the Selling of Art

- 10 Stefano Bardini and C.F. Walker, His London Agent 249
Annalea Tunesi
- 11 Surrogates and Intermediaries: The Informational Role of Photographs in the Art Market 269
Alexandra Provo

The Bureaucratic Network

- 12 A Lesson in Loopholes: Stefano Bardini, and the Export of the Botticelli Frescoes from Villa Lemmi 291
Joanna Smalcerz
- List of Illustrations 311
- List of Contributors 314
- Index 320