

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Preface. Pablo Aparicio Resco.	1
2. From Pay-Per-View to Pay-Per-Publish, on the Commoditisation of Academic Publishing. Jaime Almansa Sánchez.	9
3. Archaeology and Capitalism. Juan Manuel Vicent García.	19
4. Professional Archaeology in Spain: A Qualitative Synthesis. Rafael Soler Rocha.	31
5. Together Hand in Hand Towards Extinction: The Patrimonial (Neoliberal) Guardianship of Rural Communities. Xurxo M. Ayán Vila y José M ^a . Señorán Martín.	47
6. Consuming the past, Digesting Identity: When the past Becomes a Product. Antonio Vizcaíno Estevan.	59
7. Neither Ethics nor Excellence: The Wreck of Neoliberal Archaeology in Spain. Alicia Torija.	71
8. Economic Persuasion and Institutional Ceremonies Through the Cataclysm of Spanish Contract Archaeology Case. Eva Parga-Dans.	85
9. In Need of a Transfusion? The Humanities and Society, and Vice Versa. Beatriz Comendador.	97

10. Archaeologies of the Present and Museums of the Future, or How to Open up the Relationship Between Heritage and the Common Good. Antonio Lafuente y Paz Sastre.	109
11. From Home Care to Advertising Poster: On Neoliberal Thinking and Gender Archaeology. Alfonso Monsalve Romera.	121
12. Migrant Archaeologists Facing 21st Century Neoliberalism. Pedro Carretero.	131
13. The Place of Archaeology in Late Capitalism: The Structure of Violence in the Disciplinary and Post-disciplinary Phases of Archaeology. Alejandro Haber.	143
14. Archaeology and Neoliberalism in PerU: An Approach. Henry Tantaleán.	161
15. Suburban Revolution: A Note on Archaeology and Neoliberal Capitalism in the Mexican Megalopolis. Juan Reynol Bibiano Tonchez y Juan José Guerrero García.	177
16. Archaeology and neoliberal multiculturalism in Chile. Patricia Ayala Rocabado.	191
17. Welcome to the Desert of the,Real: Industry and Capital in the Atacama, 1880-2015. Flora Vilches.	203
18. Archaeology and Natural Resource Exploitation in Uruguay in the Framework of Developmentalism and Neoliberal Globalization. Gustavo Verdesio.	213
19. How I Learned the Law of the Market. Laurent Olivier.	223

20. Archaeology Without the Senses: Anaesthesia and Capitalism. José Roberto Pellini.	239
21. The End of History and Polish Archaeology after the Fall of Communism. Dawid Kobialka.	249
22. Under the Umbrella of Neoliberalism: Iranian Archaeology and the Reduction of Cultural Diversity. Leila Papoli-Yazdi y Omran Garazhian.	263
23. Caught in a Business Scenario: Implications of Neoliberalism on Archaeological Heritage Management in the Netherlands. Monique H. van den Dries.	279
24. New Managerial Strategies in British Commercial Archaeology. Nicolas Zorzin.	297
25. Neoliberalism and Archaeology in Germany. Ulrike Sommer y Martin Schmidt.	327
26. The Challenge of Neoliberalism and Archaeological Heritage in Turkey: Protection or Destruction? Veysel Apaydin.	341
27. Epilogue: Archaeology as Political Action. Randall H. McGuire.	353
Bibliography	367
About the authors	421