

Contents

Introduction: Wood finishing work, a promising area of research?	7
Paulo Charruadas, Pascale Fraiture, Patrice Gautier, Mathieu Piavaux, Philippe Sosnowska

Between carpentry and joinery: Constructing flooring, ceilings and roofing

1 Constructing ceilings: The floors of the Rhone region in the south of France at the end of the Middle Ages	24
Émilien Bouticourt
2 Structural timber in 15th- and 16th-century town houses in 's-Hertogenbosch (The Netherlands): Recent research on supporting structures	46
Maarten W. Enderman
3 Ceilings and floorings in Austria: Types, dating and wood species	66
Michael Grabner, Andrea Klein, Sebastian Nemestothy, Erwin Salzger
4 Contribution to the history of Brussels floorings, Belgium (16th-19th centuries): Initial results of an archaeological and dendrochronological investigation	78
Philippe Sosnowska, Pascale Fraiture, Sarah Crémer
5 Panelled frames, modes of use: A technological and typological study of several roof frames in the Hainaut (Belgium)	112
Jean-Louis Vanden Eynde
6 Wood shingles of medieval roofs: A first approach in France	128
Pierre Mille

Organising light and space: Doors, windows, stairs and panelling

7 Wooden witnesses: Romanesque joinery and other wooden elements or their negatives divulging historical secrets of the St Martin's Church, Zaventem (Belgium)	150
Karin Keutgens, Bernard Delmotte, Charles Indekeu
8 Wooden nailed doors in western France: An Armorican model inherited from the Middle Ages?	166
Vincent Bernard, Bruno Béthencourt, Yannick Le Digol, David Nicolas-Mery, Pierre Mille

9	Analyses of wooden front doors in rural buildings from Austria Sebastian Nemestothy, Andrea Klein, Michael Grabner	182
10	The watertight integrity of window sills in western France: A simple system with a complex development history Arnaud Tiercelin	198
11	Window frame inventory number 3079 in the collections of the Royal Museums of Art and History, Brussels (Belgium): Results of archaeological, historical and dendrochronological studies Patrice Gautier, Pascale Fraiture, Valérie Montens	222
12	Grand staircase and joinery work on the Lange Vijverberg, The Hague (The Netherlands) in light of documents Ada de Wit	240
13	Indoor joinery and furniture made for 18th-century houses in Liège (Belgium) Isabelle Gilles	254