

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Illustrations .....	ix
Acknowledgments .....	xiii
Introduction .....	1
The Adoration of the Magi by Filippino Lippi
Chapter One.....	7
Images of Elderly People
I Significant details.....	7
a) Body .....	7
b) Gestures.....	14
c) Physical and psychological characteristics.....	25
d) Attributes.....	29
e) Metaphors of old age and time .....	34
f) Colours .....	38
II Main elderly characters.....	44
a) God the Father.....	44
b) Joseph.....	47
c) Simeon .....	56
d) Anna, the prophet in the Presentation at the Temple.....	58
e) The oldest magus.....	60
f) Anne, the mother of the Virgin Mary.....	62
g) Elizabeth.....	68
h) The most popular old saints in Tuscan paintings .....	71
Chapter Two.....	75
An Ambiguous Perception of Old Age
I Dichotomy between the texts and images .....	75
a) A hesitant positive image of old age in the iconography.....	76
b) An ambivalent image of old age in the sources.....	83
- A cautiously positive vision of old age in the literature .....	90
- A very negative vision of old age in the literature .....	101
- Old age in the demographical sources.....	107
c) Old age as a model .....	111

II Comparison with other artistic contexts.....	116
a) Joseph and other ridiculous old characters in Northern European paintings .....	116
b) Different Italian visions of old age.....	125
c) Some negative examples in the Tuscan context .....	136
Chapter Three .....	139
Images of Intergenerational Relationships
I Elderly versus young people .....	139
a) Several generations in the same image.....	150
b) Age difference between Joseph and Mary.....	155
c) The magi as the three ages of human life .....	161
d) Very human old people in front of the divine Child.....	167
II Gender differences .....	178
a) Negative visions of female old age .....	178
b) Gender differences in the iconography.....	184
c) Old women as models .....	192
Conclusion.....	199
The Paradigm Shift
Bibliography.....	207
Primary Sources
Secondary Sources	