

Contents

Foreword	vii
Prem Kumari Srivastava & Gitanjali Chawla
Acknowledgements	xix
Introduction – The Poesy of Alterity	xxiii
CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK
The Lok-al in a Global World: Folk and Popular Culture Studies as a Means to a Cosmopolitics of the Future	3
Simi Malhotra
INTERROGATIONS
1. Critiquing the Fourth World Literature: Sustaining the Politics of Postcolonialism and Translation	15
Abhinaba Chatterjee
2. “ It’s Our Land ”: Dispossession and Displacement in Popular Imagination and Life Narratives of the Indigenous People of Australia and India	35
Payel Paul
3. In Search of Politics and Poetics of Representing Hunters	54
T.S. Satyanath
CONFLUENCES
4. Echoes of the Flute: Songs and Stories of Love and Longing of the Gaddi Tribe	77
Hina Nandrajog

- | | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 5. | Indigenous Discursive Practices and the Popular Imagination: The Mappilas of Malabar
Abubakkar K. K. | 96 |
| 6. | Bringing the Haat to the City: The Socio-Cultural and Commercial Dynamics of Dilli Haat
Mona Sinha & Manjari Chaturvedi | 109 |
| 7. | Taking the Liberty: Female Retellings of the Ramayana — Sita's Ramayana and Sita Sings the Blues
Hiya Chatterjee | 124 |

RETELLINGS

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 8. | Myth, Misogyny and Marginalisation:
A Reading of Mahasweta Devi's Bayen
Anupama Jaidev | 145 |
| 9. | The 'Out of Context' Subaltern: Cinematic and Literary (mis) Representations of Tribal Women in India
Vinanti Vasishth | 161 |
| 10. | The Indigenous and the Alternative Cosmopolitanism of Hindi Cinema with a special focus on Mrigya (1976)
Smriti Suman | 178 |
| | Our Contributors | 194 |
| | Index | 198 |