

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	xii
List of contributors	xiii
Preface by Nanouschka Myrberg Burström and Gitte Tarnow Ingvardson	xvii
Introduction: Faith and ritual materialised: Coin finds in religious contexts Nanouschka Myrberg Burström	1
PART I
Money in rituals and practice	11
1. Death by deposition? Coins and ritual in the late Iron Age and early Roman transition in northern Gaul David Wigg-Wolf	13
2. The impact of coinage on ritual offerings during the late Iron Age (c. 250–25/15 BC) Michael Nick	30
3. Coins and baptism in Late Antiquity: Written sources and numismatic evidence reconsidered Claudia Perassi	49
4. Pilgrims, pennies and the ploughzone: Folded coins in medieval Britain Richard Kelleher	68
5. Why money does grow on trees: The British coin-tree custom Ceri Houlbrook	87

PART II

Coins as secular and sacred objects	109
6. Coins as non-coins: The use and meaning of Roman coins in religious contexts outside the Empire Helle W. Horsnæs	111
7. Firmly I believe and truly: Religious iconography on early Anglo-Saxon coins Anna Gannon	125
8. Pecuniary profanities? Money, Christianity and demonstrative giving in the early Middle Ages Rory Naismith	142
9. Coins and the church in medieval England: Votive and economic functions of money in religious contexts Martin Allen	160
10. Sacra Moneta: Mints and divinity: Purity, miracles and powers Lucia Travaini	174

PART III

The value and worth of offering	191
11. Worthless? The practice of depositing counterfeit coins in Roman votive contexts Fleur Kemmers	193
12. Scandinavian women in search of salvation: Women's use of money in religion and devotional practice Svein H. Gullbekk	209
13. A cheap salvation? Post-Reformation offerings in Finnish churches Frida Ebrnsten	228
Index	249