

CONTENTS

1 Introduction: A Movable Armenia	1
Michael Pifer
Part I Rethinking Boundaries	11
2 The Age of the Gharib: Strangers in the Medieval Mediterranean	13
Michael Pifer
3 Past the Mediterranean and Iran: A Comparative Study of Armenia as an Islamic Frontier, First/Seventh to Fifth/Eleventh Centuries	39
Alison Vacca
4 A Fish Out of Water? Armenia(ns) and the Mediterranean	59
Sergio La Porta
Part II Connecting Histories	79
5 From “Autonomous” to “Interactive” Histories: World History’s Challenge to Armenian Studies	81
Sebouh David Aslanian

6	Mapping Jerusalem: Re-reading the City in the Context of the Medieval Mediterranean	127
	Tamar M. Boyadjian
Part III Breaking National & Imperial Paradigms		149
7	Between Anatolia and the Balkans: Tracing Armenians in a Post-Ottoman Order	151
	Hakem Al-Rustom
8	Armeno-Turkish Writing and the Question of Hybridity	173
	Murat Cankara
9	Wandering Minstrels, Moving Novels: The Case of Khach'atur Abovean's Wounds of Armenia	193
	Vahram Danielyan
Part IV Texturizing Diaspora		205
10	Weaving Images: Textile, Displacement, and Reframing the Borders of Visual Culture	207
	Marie-Aude Baronian
11	Diasporic Flânerie: From Armenian Ruinenlust to Armenia's Walkscapes	221
	David Kazanjian
12	Spaces of Difference, Spaces of Belonging: Negotiating Armenianness in Lebanon and France	247
	Vahe Sahakyan
Part V Placing Statehood		269
13	Contemporary Armenian Drama and World Literature	271
	Myrna Douzjian

14	How to Write the History of the Third Republic or How Not to Write It	287
	G. J. Libaridian
	Part VI Epilogue	307
15	The Mediterranean Is Armenian	309
	Karla Mallette
	Index	323