

This volume honors Robert A. Kolb, retired Director of the Institute for Mission Studies and Missions Professor in systematic theology at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, and perhaps the leading authority on the development of "Wittenberg Theology" in the English-speaking world. His teaching and writing, which continue without flagging, have emphasized the importance of retranslating the Christian faith expressed in the Lutheran Reformation in terms that address current issues and contemporary people. In this volume, colleagues and co-workers relate to Dr. Kolb's insights into the history of the Reformation era and on the impact of various Reformation issues, even on life today.
