

Contents

The artist's (self-)discovery. Foreword	11
María Bolaños
<hr/>
The Paragone with Antiquity in early sixteenth-century Italian art	17
Vincenzo Farinella
<hr/>
Alonso Berruguete and the Laocoön	29
Archaeological scholarship and sentiment of sculpture in early sixteenth-century Rome
Tommaso Mozzati
<hr/>
Investing effort and funds in amassing classical sculptures	43
Concerning a few collectors of antiquities in sixteenth-century Spain
Miguel Morán Turina
<hr/>
Classical Antiquity in Spain in Berruguete's day	55
Gazing into the mirror of the past
Carlos Morán Sánchez
<hr/>

Catalogue

The marvelous interplay between classical rules and freedom of forms 68

Manuel Arias Martínez

- I The light of Antiquity in Rome 76
- II Sarcophaguses and lessons 108
- III Under the influence of the Laocoön 126
- IV Reinterpreting models 148
- V In the shadow of a great scallop shell 180

Works featured in the exhibition 205

Bibliography 208

Index 214

Index of works by Alonso Berruguete 219
