

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	x
-----------------	---

INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1
DIASPORA SPACE, DISPLACED IDENTITIES, AND DIASPORIC RELIGION	3
Reading Dis/placed Identities	5
African American Biblical Interpretation and Displacement	5
Biblical Interpretation and Early “Christian” Identity	7
Thinking with Diasporic Identities	9
Theories of Diaspora	9
Religion and Diaspora	11
Race/Ethnicity and Diaspora	12
Diasporic Identity as Fixed and Fluid, Coherent and Contested	12
Intercultural Criticism as Method	14
Postcolonial Feminist/Womanist Hermeneutic	15
The “New Negro” Lens	17
Constructing an Identity Formerly Known as “Jewish”	17
Conclusion	18

Part I

MODELS OF ETHNO-SPATIAL REASONING

Chapter 2
A PLACE TO CALL HOME: THE GREAT MIGRATION AND THE MAKING OF THE NEW NEGRO	23
The Historical Context of the Great Migration	25
Factors Contributing to the Great Migration	26
The Great Migration and Public Discourse	29
Sermons and Letters from the Great Migration	32
Religion	33
Theme of Suffering	39
Movement and Spatiality	41
The New Negro: The (Re)making of a People	45
What’s in a Name?	45
Naming, Fictive Kinship, and Unity in Diversity: Gender, Class, Ethnicity	47

We Are Family: Fictive Kinship and the New Negro	52
Changing the World: Creativity, Hope, and Vision	53
Conclusion	54

Chapter 3

CALLED OUT: ALEXANDRIAN JEWISH IDENTITY IN THE ROMAN IMPERIAL CONTEXT	57
Exodus and Exile: Jewish Identity as a Diasporic Identity	58
Discourses of Displacement: Ancient Greek and Roman Concepts of Exile	59
Living in Diaspora	61
Jewish Identity in a Roman Imperial Context	64
In Flaccum and the Flexibility of Alexandrian Jewish Identity	65
The Ideal Imperial Name—Roman Citizen: Civis romanus sum	65
Imperial Naming: External Jewish Identity	67
I Am, We Are: Self-Naming and Jewish Identity	72
Conclusion	77

Part II

A NEW NEGRO HERMENEUTIC

Chapter 4

A BETTER COUNTRY: HEBREWS AND AN IDENTITY FORMERLY KNOWN AS JEWISH	81
Themes in Hebrews	82
Identity and Space in Hebrews	83
Social Context of Hebrews	85
Roman Imperial Context	87
Spatiality in Hebrews	88
Reading Hebrews through the New Negro Lens	93
Re/membering Ancestral Claims: Kinship, Imitation, and Marginality	93
Outside the Camp: Putting Outsiders in Their Place	100
Suffering as an Embodied Experience	103
The City That is to Come: Imagining a Future	106
(An)Other First-Century Voice	108
Conclusion	109

Chapter 5

A PECULIAR PEOPLE: 1 PETER AND AN IDENTITY THAT WILL COME TO BE KNOWN AS CHRISTIAN	111
The Audience and Their Social Context	112
Themes in 1 Peter	114
Diaspora Space: Exile, Place, and Identity	114

Reading 1 Peter through the New Negro Lens	118
New Birth, New Family	119
And You Shall Be Called: Naming and Being Named	122
Suffering for the Name	126
How, Then, Shall We Live?	128
(An)Other First-Century Voice	132
Conclusion	134

CONCLUSION

Chapter 6
CALLED OUT: RETHINKING CENTERS AND MARGINS	139
Borders and Borderlands	139
Bibliography	146
Index	155