

Table of contents

Acknowledgement	xii
General Introduction	1
Scope of work	2
Research Methods	5
Basel Mission Archives	5
SMA Archives and Houses (Holland, Ireland; Italy)	5
Archdiocesan Archives, Cape Coast, Ghana	6
Museums, Castles, shrines (Elmina, Cape Coast, Shama, Bantoma)	7
Interviews	7
Chapter 1
Relations between ancient Ghana and present-day Ghana	9
1.1. Introduction	9
1.2. Relevance of ancient Ghana to present-day Ghana	10
1.2.1. Foundation, frontiers and affluence of ancient Ghana	10
1.2.2. The ‘title’ Ghana (Gana)	13
1.2.3. Decline of ancient Ghana	14
1.3. Connectivity between the two Ghanas – origins of Akans	17
1.4. Epilogue	21
1.5. Religion on the Gold Coast before the missionaries came	22
1.5.1. Religion defined?	22
1.5.2. Religion as ‘imbibed’ in African culture	23
1.5.3. The Ghanaian and the Supreme Being	25

1.5.3.1. Ancestor veneration	27
1.6. Political system before the missionary era	28
1.6.1. The chief – administrator cum religious leader	29
1.6.2. Communal living	30
1.7. Present Republic of Ghana – miscellaneous facts	31
1.7.1. Abridged political history of Ghana – short prologue	32
1.7.1.1. The Gold Coast and pre-independence ‘Ghana’	33
1.7.1.2. Kwame Nkrumah, ‘The Big Six’ and Ghana’s independence	35
1.7.1.3. Politics after independence – the 1 st Republic	39
1.7.1.4. Kofi Abrefa Busia and the 2 nd Republic	41
1.7.1.5. Hilla Limann presides over the 3 rd Republic	43
1.7.1.6. The 4 th Republic – Rawlings and the way forward	43
1.8. Epilogue	44

Chapter 2

Mission in retrospect: Pioneer missionary attempts	45
2.1. Introduction	45
2.2. Christianity: First contact with Africa	45
2.3. Christianity: First contact with West Africa	48
2.4. Missionary antecedents on the Gold Coast: 1471?	49
2.5. French discovery of the Gold Coast – a hypothesis?	51
2.6. Motivation for the ‘missionary’ endeavour: Prester John	52
2.6.1. Crusade against Moslems	54
2.6.2. Vocation of Portugal	55

2.7. Arrival of Portuguese seamen at Shama on the Gold Coast	57
2.8. Landing at 'Edina'	58
2.8.1. Motivation for building of St. George (São Jorge) Castle	59
2.8.1.1. Remote preparations – advisors consulted	60
2.8.1.2. Volunteers needed, indulgence granted	60
2.8.1.3. Journey, arrival and first Mass at Elmina	61
2.8.1.4. Meeting with the Chief – beginning of the project	63
2.8.1.5. 'Important' visitors to the Castle?	65
2.9. Start of missionary activities – initial missionary success	66
2.9.1. Western education – Portuguese efforts	67
2.9.1.1. Dutch contribution to formal education	68
2.9.2. Liturgical and devotional life on the Mina coast	69
2.9.3. Jurisdictional area of the Church	69
2.10. Authorisation of other missionary groups	69
2.10.1. Recourse to the Society of Jesus 1554	70
2.10.2. Consent of the Augustinians 1572	71
2.10.2.1. Methodical strategy to redeem the neglected Mina Mission	71
2.10.2.2. Death of five of the Augustinian Priests	72
2.11. Investigation and take-over by Propaganda Fide 1630	73
2.11.1. Findings of Propaganda Fide and positive action	74
2.11.2. Capuchins at Axim and Kommenda 1638	76
2.11.3. Quick remedy	77

Chapter 3

The period of the non-Catholic Missions 1737-1880	78
3.1. Introduction	78

3.2. The Moravian Church 1737	78
3.3. Anglican Mission 1752: purpose on the Gold Coast	81
3.3.1. Rev. Thomas Thompson opts for West Africa	82
3.3.1.1. Thompson's legacy to the Anglican Church at Cape Coast	83
3.3.2. Philip Quaque's early life and seminary training	84
3.3.2.1. Quaque's 'impact' on the Gold Coast	85
3.4. The Basel Mission Society 1828	87
3.5. Foundation of the Methodist Missionary Society 1835	88
3.5.1. Death: cause of distractions – plans for indigenous ministers	91
3.5.2. Thomas Birch Freeman: Patriarch of Methodism in Ghana	92
3.5.2.1. Palaver with the home committee – Freeman resigns	94
3.5.2.2. Freeman's return and death	97
3.6. The Bremen Mission 1847	99

Chapter 4

Setbacks to missionary efforts	101
4.1. Introduction	101
4.2. Impediments and Hindrances to the Mission	102
4.2.1. Scuffles among Europeans	102
4.2.2. Strained European-African Relations	104
4.2.3. Weather conditions, malaria – diseases and deaths	106
4.2.4. Infiltration of Christianity into sovereign courts and palaces	109
4.2.5. The widespread influence of African Traditional Religion (ATR)	111
4.2.5.1. Tagging ATR as 'pagan', heathen, etc.	112
4.2.5.2. Etymology of the word 'pagan'	114
4.2.6. Segregation	116

4.2.7. The presence of Mohammedanism	118
4.2.8. Unsuitable chaplains and inefficient clergymen	119
4.2.9. The Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade (TAST)	121
4.2.9.1. Domestic slavery – Africans' involvement in the ST?	122
4.2.9.2. Western interest in the Slave Trade	123
4.2.9.3. Direct involvement of missionaries in the Slave Trade	126
4.3. Conclusion	128

Chapter 5

The 19th century Missionaries: The Basel Mission (BM) 1828	129
5.1. Introduction	129
5.2. Background history of the BM	131
5.2.1. Overview of pietism	132
5.2.1.1. Transnational expressions of pietism	135
5.2.1.2. Worldview of the reformists and individual worldview	137
5.3. Ab initio preparations towards missionary adventure	140
5.3.1. A true friend?	142
5.3.2. Final hurdle and arrival on the Gold Coast	143
5.3.2.1. Aims and vision of the founders of the BM	145
5.4. Relation to indigenous priests	148
5.5. Later missionaries	153

Chapter 6

Achievements of the BMS	154
6.1. Introduction	154
6.2. Impact of the BM on the society	154
6.2.1. Influence in education	155

6.2.2. Health care delivery	159
6.2.3. Manufacturing and industrial training	164
6.2.4. Road construction	166
6.2.5. Agriculture, trade and commerce	167
6.2.5.1. Tetteh Quarshie – originator par excellence	169
6.3. Motivational reasons for continuing on the Gold Coast	171
6.3.1. Indentations by insiders	171
6.3.2. Perceptions and endorsements by external observers	174
6.4. Reinforcement and plans for the future	176
6.5. Conclusion	178

Chapter 7

Second phase of Catholic Mission on the Gold Coast (1880): Founders of contemporary Catholicism	179
7.1. Introduction	179
7.2. Exposé of the founders of present-day Catholicism	180
7.2.1. SMA and the beginnings of the Elmina Mission	181
7.2.1.1. Melchior de Marion Brésillac: background history of the SMA	182
7.3. Advocates of today’s Catholicism in Ghana	186
7.3.1. Pierre Bonnat	187
7.3.1.1. Death of Pierre Bonnat	188
7.3.2. Sir James Marshall – vita	189
7.3.2.1. Marshall – campaigner for the Gold Coast	190
7.4. Road to present-day Catholicism in Ghana	192
7.4.1. Fr. Louis Charles Gommenginger and the choice of Elmina	193
7.4.2. Arthur Brun confirms Elmina as the rightful place	194
7.4.3. Arguments against Elmina	196

7.5. Decretum from Propaganda Fide and settlement at Elmina	197
7.6. Résumé – Frs. Moreau SMA and Murat SMA	198
7.6.1. Fr. Auguste Moreau SMA	198
7.6.2. Fr. Eugène Murat SMA	199
7.7. Workload – tempus et maris aestus neminem manent	200
7.7.1. Expansion of the Church	202
7.7.1.1. Mission-extension trips – Jukwa mission 1880	203
7.7.1.2. Fr. Moreau and Mr. Brun in Kumasi – April, 1882	203
7.7.1.3. Visit to Accra: facilitated by Governor Moloney – June, 1882	206
7.7.1.4. First piece of land acquired at Axim – October, 1882	207
7.7.1.5. Cape Coast – first service at the Castle 1883	209
7.7.1.6. J. B. Amisssah invites Moreau to Anomabo 1884	212

Chapter 8

Initial challenges and difficulties of establishment	214
8.1. Introduction	214
8.2. Poor living conditions	214
8.3. Real test – pecuniary difficulties	216
8.3.1. Rescue? – The French Government	218
8.3.2. The SMA Mother House	219
8.3.3. Philanthropists – donors, benefactors	220
8.3.3.1. Chapfallen and wrathful Moreau	222
8.4. Harsh and moribund climate: deaths and repatriations	223
8.4.1. Sickness, burst of fevers, furloughs and death of Murat	224
8.4.1.1. Interim appointments: Frs. Michon and Boutry	226
8.4.1.2. More backstopping for the staff at Elmina	228

8.5. Unavailability of land at Elmina? – St. Joseph’s Hill procured after three long years	230
8.5.1. Collapse of the first building	231
8.6. Presence of non-Catholic Missions: Baslers – the strongest group	233
8.6.1. Rivalry between Catholics and Methodists	235
8.6.1.1. Reproche from ‘observers’ after visit to Kumasi	237
8.6.1.1.1. The Gold Coast Times truly smelled danger: Reasons	239
8.6.1.1.2. Moreau’s defense in the political tussle	240
8.7. More internal frustrations?	241
8.7.1. Fr. Moreau is dead	244
Chapter 9
Impetus: Reasons for continuous stay	246
9.1. Introduction	246
9.2. Memory of failure of first attempts: Background to founding a Mission station in Algeria	246
9.2.1. Work in Algeria – authority struggle	249
9.2.2. The die is cast – SMA Fathers leave Algeria	251
9.3. South Africa Mission (SAM)	253
9.3.1. Discontentment – scrappy harvest for too many labourers	254
9.3.2. Père Planque’s mollifying role amid the difficulties	255
9.3.3. Congé of St. Helena	257
9.3.4. Reasons for preferring the Gold Coast	257
9.4. Remnants of Catholicism – literacy – from the Castle school to ‘the school at Elmina’	259
9.4.1. The first OLA Sisters arrive	260
9.4.1.1. The Sisters and the girls’ school at Elmina	262
9.5. More traces of Catholicism	262

9.5.1. 'Nana Ntona'	265
9.5.1.1. Enshrinement of 'Nana Ntona' – personal inquest	265
9.5.1.2. Written records on 'Nana Ntona' – what to believe	267
9.5.1.2.1. St. Anthony's arrival and potency at Elmina	268
9.5.1.2.2. Evidence of history?	270
9.6. Receptiveness and hospitality of the indigenes	271
9.7. Evangelisation role played by locals	272
Chapter 10
Overview: merits and demerits of missionary tasks activities	274
10.1. Rendezvous: Review of scope of work	274
10.2. Missionaries on the Gold Coast – good omen or bad omen?	279
10.2.1. Conflict area: lumping culture and 'fetishism' together	280
10.2.2. Positive impartations: Education	282
10.2.2.1. Locals in favour of 'western culture'	285
10.2.2.2. Human sacrifice abolished?	287
10.2.3. Conclusion: Nkrumah's appreciation	290
Abbreviations	291
List of plates	293
Bibliography	305
Primary sources	305
Secondary sources (alphabetically arranged)	305
Electronic Sources	327
Scriptural Sources	327
About the author	329