

Contents

Preface	page vii
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	I
1 The Reformation of the Later Middle Ages	11
Reform, Reformation, and Prophecy	15
The Schism-Shocked Later Middle Ages	17
The Prophetic Voice	23
Catechesis and Pastoral Theology	33
Doing One's Best	36
Becoming Saints: A Theology of the Holy	42
Reformation and the Augustinians	60
2 Seeking God's Mercy: Living the Augustinian Life	64
Being an Augustinian	64
Luther's Religionization	83
Luther's Formation	85
Luther and Augustine	90
3 Discoveries and Breakthroughs	99
Luther's Tower Experience Revisited	100
Luther's Account	104
Passive Righteousness	118
Pulchra Haec Philosophia : Luther and Aristotle	128
Luther's Disputation Against Scholastic Theology : A Closer Look	130
Luther the Scholastic	138
Faith and Reason	148
4 Luther's Ways of Thought	154
Luther's Cognitive Way of Thought	156
Logic for Faith: Luther as Dialectician	158
Quid est Noticia?	161
Cain and Abel	174
Certitude	175

	Luther's Substantive Way of Thought	178
	Hope: Something New	181
	Substantive Form: Anthropological Perspectives	183
	Lex Charitatis	190
	The Liberty of the Christian	193
	Tradition and Innovation: Luther and Medieval Theological Traditions	197
5	Brother Martin Luther, Augustinian	202
	Cloister and Congregation	203
	Luther and the Late Medieval Augustinian Tradition	213
	Luther as Biblical Theologian	223
	Reformation and Theology	232
6	Mother Church and the Pope	240
	Brother Martin Luther, Heretic	242
	Luther's Early Ecclesiological Thought	251
	The Problem of Indulgences	273
7	The Woe of the World: Luther From Friar to Reformer	301
	Brother Martin's Ecclesiology in Context	303
	The Throne of Antichrist	341
	Brother Martin in Exile	346
8	The Failure of the Reformation	349
	Ends and Beginnings	350
	Religionization and Confessionalization	359
	What Might Have Been – And Still Be?	370
	Bibliography	376
	Index	393