

Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Prologue	xii
Introduction: the birth pains of a new global order	1
PART I
The order war	13
1 The order wars in the twenty-first century	15
2 Between Lyotard and Hegel: beyond Kant and the binary logic	37
3 The end of Western modernity?	51
PART II
Floating balance	69
4 Clausewitz's "wondrous trinity" and floating balance	71
5 Clausewitz, polarity, and a different dialectics: a new beginning	94
PART III
Harmony	115
6 Harmony between freedom and equality	117
7 Confucian harmony and East Asia's mega-discourses for governance	132

x Contents

PART IV

Recognition 161

8 Marx's reversal of Hegel 163

9 Between Clausewitz and Hegel: revitalizing the struggle for recognition 182

10 Between Carl Schmitt and Hannah Arendt: mediation between friends and foes 199

Epilogue: sharing power in a new global order 215

References 217

Index 235