

Issue # 33

30 June 2016

About ACT

The Association of Commercial Television in Europe (ACT) is a trade body for the commercial broadcasting sector in Europe. Formed in 1989, the ACT has 27 member companies active in 37 European countries, operating and distributing several thousand free-to-air and pay-tv channels and new media services.

Contact us:

pc@acte.be

Follow us:

@act_eu

www.acte.be

Members' Newsroom

Canal+ new offer

Canal+ unveils its new offer: from September, Canal+ subscribers will receive 150 hours of additional exclusive content with more sports, movies, culture and entertainment programmes. Canal+ will offer its viewers the following free channels: CANAL8, CANALSTAR and CANALNEWS.

Read more

Eurosport secures Wimbledon rights

Eurosport secures Wimbledon rights to become the only broadcaster to show live coverage of all four Grand Slams in the UK.

Read more

RTL Group New Mission Statement: Entertain. Inform. Engage.

RTL publishes its new Mission Statement and its new tagline "Entertain. Inform. Engage." RTL Group's co-CEOs, Anke Schäferkordt and Guillaume de Posch, quote the first line of RTL Group new Mission Statement: 'We are innovators who shape the media world across broadcast, content, digital.' It's ambitious, yes. But, given our rich and highly successful history, we think it's just right".

Read more

Sky launches NOW TV, the UK's first contract-free triple play bundle

Sky launches NOW TV, an online streaming service offering TV, broadband and call bundles. This will be the UK's first ever contract-free triple play bundle.

Read more

Viacom launches BET Play

Viacom launches BET Play application which will allow viewers to stream some of BET's original series and award winning shows. BET Play is available in 100 countries for iOS, Android, and AirPlay-supported TVs.

Read more

ACT members

