

CMAJ Pre-submission form for non-Research articles

CMAJ receives many inquiries about whether we are interested in receiving a submission on a particular topic. If you have drafted a full article, kindly submit it for consideration via our submissions system (https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/cmaj). Editors will not provide opinions on full manuscripts outside of the submissions system; however, we will offer a pre-submission opinion on a short outline. If you have an idea for a non-Research article that you think may be suitable for CMAJ, please use the following template to provide the information we require. Once completed, please return the form by email to Editorial@cmaj.ca.

| Title of the proposed article |  |  |
|-------------------------------|--|--|
|                               |  |  |
|                               |  |  |

Specific article type

(please see guidance on CMAJ's website and make sure your proposed article will adhere to the format, word count, number of authors and number of references of the chosen article type described in the bottom 2/3 of this link - Submission guidelines | CMAJ)

Practice — Cases Analysis

Practice — What is your call? Commentary

Practice — Innovations in Practice Review

Practice — Decisions Humanities — Medicine and society

Practice — Five things to know about... Humanities — Encounters

Practice — Clinical images

Proposed author(s)

| (Please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and any relevant competing interests; if none, please include a very brief description of their expertise and a very brief description of the ve | ease |
|--|------|
| state so.)   |      |

| Author | intorn   | nation |
|--------|----------|--------|
| Author | 11110111 | Iauoii |

| Include Name, and e     | expertise and any re | elevant competing         | g interests for each | h author: |  |
|-------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------|---------------|--|
| 11101000 1101110, 01111 |                      | ile varie de l'ip de l'iç | , 11101 0000 101 0       | 1 44          |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
| "Why should I re        | ad this auticle w    | 2"                        |                          |               |  |
| (Please include two se  |                      |                           | CMAJ reader's qu         | estion.)      |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |
|                         |                      |                           |                          |               |  |

(Please provide 4-6 single sentence points.) Point 1 Point 2 Point 3 Point 4 Point 5 Point 6 Explain what your article adds to what has already been published on the topic (Please explain in a maximum of 100 words.)

Main points to be made in the article

Thank you for returning the completed form to Editorial@cmaj.ca. A member of the Editorial office will follow up with you.