

Gone To Texas Celebration

On the night before classes begin in the fall semester, the university hosts a night featuring music, great food, and kicks off the academic year, all under the main tower. This is the same location where students will attend their final graduation ceremony. For EER students, this event marks a milestone and provides an opportunity to witness true Texas friendship with all of the incoming students from across the campus.