29:47 in Iowa Breaks U.S. Mark by Three Seconds; Welch Wins Women's Race

by CRAIG COOPER

DAVENPORT, Iowa - Legendary distance runner Bill Rodgers is back in the record business at age 40.

Rodgers, four-time winner of both the Boston and New York City marathons, smashed the recognized masters record for 10 kilometers by blowing away the field in the Heartland Hustle on October 1.

The 40-year-old from Sherborn, Mass., covered the flat, fast course in downtown Davenport in 29:47.1, despite draining humidi-Pending certification, Rodgers' effort will be recognized as the American masters record. The previous mark was 29:50, set by California's Tracy Smith last year.

Winning the women's race for the second straight year was Priscilla Welch, the former British Olympian who now trains in Boulder, Colo. She ran 34:28 to win by six seconds over Charlotte Thomas of San Diego, Calif.

In all, six masters runners earned top-ten status with their finishes.

Finishing eighth was Robert Schlau, Charleston, S.C. (31:37). Trailing Welch in third place was Barb Filutze, Erie, Pa. (35:53). Missouri's Jane Hutchison was fourth (36:39) and Gabriele Andersen of Sun Valley, Idaho, was sixth (37:24).

Rodgers said when he arrived in town two days before the race that he was shooting for the 10K record. He also wanted to avenge three masters losses this year to Schlau.

I wanted to try and break the 10K record here in Davenport, where I knew the course was good and where people have been so great to me over the past decade," he said. "I consider Davenport to be one of the race capitals of the country."

Rodgers had some doubts about his record try as he broke away from the

by JERRY WOJCIK

Dr. Joan Ullyot, a 48-year-old sports medicine specialist from San Francisco, set a national W45-49 record of 2:47:39 with a women's first place in the St. George Marathon in St. George, Utah on October 1. The previous record was 2:53:22, set by Sandra Kiddy in 1982. Last year, Gail LaDage-Scott, another masters runner, set the women's course record of 2:37:13 in this race, noted for its downhill slant.

Ullyot said she came to St. George with four goals: "I wanted to run a PR. I wanted to be under 2:50 (the women's U.S. Olympic Trials qualifying time). I wanted to get the family record back from my 21-year-old son, who ran a 2:48:02 at Boston. My last goal was to run a 2:44."

Three out of four is not bad.

Charles Nak, M40, of Salt Lake City won the men's masters race in 2:36:32. Gaylon Jorgensen of Provo, Utah won the M55-59 contest with a sensational masters third-place 2:37:59.

Top Masters To Run In National 30K

Bob Schlau, Jane Hutchison, Nancy Oshier, Barbara Filutze, Norm Green, Bill Olrich, and Bill Johnston are some of the top masters runners who will vie for TAC National Masters Championship titles November 13 in the Foundation 30K Championships in Clarksburgh, Calif., a Sacramento suburb.

Per TAC rules, TAC Championships medals will be awarded, threedeep, in 5-year age groups from 40-44 through 90+.

The race is the 13th of 15 on the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit.

JOHN POPPELL WRITES ABOUT CAPS"

June 14, 1988

Dear Dr. Frank:

It is not my intent to get in the middle of a debate on the merits of any product. However, I feel compelled to write because of some things I have seen printed in the National Masters News.

I became aware of your products and ordered them approximately 30 days ago. I have been using them at least that long, and am now on my second order. I suppose long before now, had the difference I noticed been psychological, it would have disappeared.

I am a masters sprinter, age 57, who has been the national 100- and 200-meter champion for the last two years. I attribute my moderate success not to any great talent but rather to a willingness to train hard. Because of my age and the fact that my training occurs in Florida where the climate is very warm and humid, I have constantly battled fatigue at the end of my workouts. It has made for very short days, early dinners, and almost a complete lack of energy for any social life. Since I have been taking your products, I have noticed an amazing change in my physical stamina, my ability to withstand the hard workouts my coach prescribes, and an unbelievable recovery from these workouts which allows me to enjoy many other things well past the time when I normally would be caved in and in bed. I don't know if RACE CAPS and ENDURO CAPS will do the same for others; but, as for me, I can state without hesitation it has been a delightful discovery.

Sincerely yours, J.S. Poppell

INTRODUCING XOBALINE", A NEW WINNER

Xobaline (Cobamamide) is the coenzyme form of vitamin B12. The Merck Index states "The coenzyme is the metabolically active form of Vitamin B12." Guyton's Textbook of Medical Physiology states "Vitamin B12 is an essential nutrient for all cells of the body, and growth of tissues in general is greatly depressed when this vitamin is lacking. This results from the fact that Vitamin B12 is required for synthesis of D.N.A., therefore, lack of this vitamin causes failure of nuclear maturation and division."

Athletes in Europe have started using Xobaline because of its anabolic effects. This is the most powerful new product I have found. I have made remarkable new gains with it and know you will like it.

ZOLA BUDD

I protest the article written in the September issue of NMN under the banner 'Speaker's Corner' entitled 'Why Don't They Leave Zola Budd Alone?'

There were many reasons why Zola Budd was not left alone, not least, out of respect for blacks and black athletes the world over. To have accepted her without conditions would have shown little respect and understanding for the feelings of millions of blacks. The issue was debated hotly in this country and there were pitiful elements to the way it proceeded but, for me, there could have been no other outcome.

But whatever the rights and wrongs of the case I fail to see what the issue has to do with veteran athletics, and I protest, most strongly, the anti-black tone the article by Richard Lee Slotkin look

> Sarah Cawkwell London, England

Reading "Speaker's Corner" (Oct. NMN) tells me why Alvin Chriss is the Special Assistant to the Executive Director of TAC while I am still trying to figure out how to cross-change my van tires.

The article was remarkable as a rebuttal to a seemingly innocent, but passionate, feeling I'm sure most share: let's keep politics out of sports. Sadly, Chriss explains how that is, at this time, an ephemeral fantasy and will remain so for a good while.

His answer was hard sell, yet tactful and diplomatic, and neither aggressive or condescending toward Dick Slotkin. When we choose up, I want Chriss on my side.

> . Phil Mulkey Atlanta, Georgia

DOWN WITH POLITICS AND MONEY

I am turned-off by the general direction track and field is heading, including the masters movement.

J) Politics: Whatever happened to Zola Budd is a shame, a gutless sell-out to grandstanding politicians and business interests. Masters pay their own expenses, not officially representing their countries, yet not everybody can compete in international meets (e.g. black South Africans).

2) Prize money: We are becoming like golf. Millions of weekend hackers supporting a dozen pros. Most of us work and have other repsonsibilities, so we are faceless masses and salivate on the expected $10,000 matchup between two former big names with no regular jobs. My team won three national cross country championships in 1986 when all were held in the East, but we could not scrape up enough money to go to Seattle the next year.

Some of the reported results are losing meaning when money determines who is running or not. Of course, life is not fair, never was, but masters are copying the worst aspects of open running. I love the sport and serve it in several capacities, but in the future I wish to distance myself from reading about masters. No 10K time should be reported (except over 65 years of age) if the person does not earn a check by working 40 hours a week and trains after working hours.

Miklos Gratzer Syracuse, New York

WAVA MEDAL STANDARDS

Since when can older women be expected to run 800 meters at a faster pace then they can run 400 meters? We refer to the medal standards for the VIII World Veterans' Championships. The chart reads as follows for women 70 and older.

	Time for	Time for
	400	800
W'70	2:15	4:20
W75	2:35	4:50
W.80	2:55	5:20

By contrast, men in the same age groups are not expected to do the impossible. Examples:

M70	79.0	3:15
M75	88.0	3:30
M80	1:48.0	3:4:

Is this a way to discourage older women from competing in this Championship or just an honest mistake? WAVA should certainly re-examine the table and make necessary revisions before entries close on May 1, 1989. Let's be fair.

Polly Clarke John Clarke Estes Park, Colorado

What can be gained by passing laws for medal standards that would squelch the spirit of the man who was 97-years-old in Melbourne and would be 99 if he comes to the USA (Eugene) in 1989?

These medal standards could cause international repercussions. Don't use them.

Martha Rousseau Spring Valley, California

AGE DISCRIMINATION

The South Coast Classic 10K Run on September 18 in Orange, Calif. was well organized, but the awards presentation unfairly discriminated against masters.

Twenty awards went to the 19-44 age groups, but only five to the 45-49s. Then only five to the 50-59s. Worse, only three were given to all runners 60-and-over.

Yes, there are fewer older people in the race, but their discriminatory Continued on page 8

An Open Letter to Alvin Chriss

by RICHARD LEE SLOTKIN

Wow! Did you ever take me to task for my article on the bashing of Zola Budd. For the Special Assistant to the Director of The Athletics Congress to employ your considerable intelligence and eloquence in such a fierce and lengthy diatribe indicates that I struck a lot closer to home than you would admit. And that's quite interesting, because TAC was not my target; the IAAF was.

But, Alvin, old buddy, like all good attorneys you jumped on a subject that you didn't really inderstand and switched it to one that you did. In other words, you missed the point.

You call me naive. My goodness, Alvin, I'm older than you are. And, I've been to Seoul. No, not with the U.S. Olympic team, but 34 years earlier with another team. That one was called the United States First Marine Division. I've been in other wars too. Wars in corporate offices, wars involving affairs of the heart and even wars involving certain athletic organizations. Alvin, my friend, I've been around and I've got the scar tissue to prove it.

So, don't tell me I'm naive and uninformed, implying that you aren't, and that you are privy to secret information that I'm not. After ten years in the magazine business, I have my sources too.

But, my whole point was not the politics of the situation. It was this irrepressible urge so many people have for finding a socially acceptable way to beat up on someone.

As an attorney, Alvin, you know all there is to know about due process. Yet, because of some alleged misconduct or indiscretion on the part of Budd's managers, you are willing to gloss over the fact that she alone, of all Her Majesty's citizens, was about to be extorted out of her civil rights.

You point out that Mark Plaatjes

$28,200 Masters Money In Marathon Championships

by JERRY WOJCIK

The California International Marathon in Sacramento, Calif., on December 4 is also the 1988 U.S. TAC National Masters Championships. But more than titles are up for grabs. Meet director John Mansoor's prize money breakdown includes $28,200 for masters men and women.

The first man and woman masters will each receive $3000, with $2000 going to the second places, and $1000 to the third spots. In addition, the first three places in each five-year division (40-80+) will get $300, $200, and $100.

Prize money will also go to the top 40-49 and 50+Pacific Association men and women teams.

In a rare display of generosity for 40-and-over runners, masters athletes can win open money, division money, and masters overall money. So, conceivably, a masters runner could win more than the open winner's prize ($5000).

But, that is not the bottom line. Race sponsors are offering a $100,000 bonus to the masters man who breaks Jack Foster's world masters record of 2:11:19, which has been on the books since January 1974.

The Sacramento Long Distance Running Association is staging the event. See schedule for entry details.

and some others are having no problems with performing in world competition. Sure, because they played it smart and kissed ass; didn't rock the boat, is how you would put it. Well, I agree that discretion is the better part of valor in these situations, and I agree that they may have done the "right" thing, but that just proves my point. Budd did nothing to justify her attack on legal grounds. But the IAAF isn't interested in such niceties, nor are the goons who attacked her on the race course. They wanted to kick ass, plain and simple, and well-meaning folks, like you, Alvin, let them get away with

Talk about being "specious." Be hanged by your own petard. Her handlers made jerks of themselves so hang her! Yahoo! Right on! Screw the Magna Carta!

And, I'm the specious one?

Furthermore, I think you are being just a bit disingenuous, Alvin. I am familiar enough with your professional skill so that I'd bet the rent money on you if, tomorrow, Ollan directed you to go before some tribunal and make the case for Zola Budd.

Now, that would be something to see!

Hey! Nice hearing from you.

Do the Legs Really Go First? Case Study: Peter Mundle

t's easy to get a somewhat distorted view of the effects of aging on athletic performance from publications like National Masters News. For the most part, you read only about people who are doing well. Seldom do you read about the many once-champion runners who haven't been able to keep pace.

One such runner is Peter Mundle, a 60-year-old veteran of some 45 years in the racing wars. During the early years of masters running, Mundle was one of the standouts. The 1973 age-record book shows him as owning numerous track records from 1500 to 10,000 meters. They include a 4:28.2 mile at age 41, a 14:48.6 three-mile at 43 and a 32:08 10,000 at 44.

Taking those performances and "normal" declivity, Mundle should be running 10,000 in around 37 minutes these days.

He's not. In the 1987 Nationals, Mundle plodded around the track in 47:54, lapped numerous times by Patrick Devine, winner of the 55-59 division in 36:48.5 At the World Games in Melbourne a few months later, he recorded 52:22.

Observers aware of Mundle's background as an elite runner probably assumed that he had given up serious running and was just out for an easy jog while attending the events as a spectator. That's not quite the case.

Some editors and readers want everything upbeat. They want to hear that we can go on and on defying Father Time. It helps promote the sport. For the editor, that means higher circulation. For the reader, it means continuing to think positive. But I believe in being realistic and taking an objective view of things. It's not all peaches and cream. To the extent that I am making a long term study of the effects of aging on athletic performance, hopefully to culminate in a book one of these days, I'm as interested in runners like Mundle as much as I am in the people making the current headlines in NMN.

What, I wondered, has happened to Mundle? Is he just not motivated these days? Has he had physical problems? How can a guy with the ability he once had have dropped off so much? I contacted him for some answers.

No, Mundle has not lost interest in racing. Nor has he had any significant injuries in recent years. "I have never lost the joy of competition," Mundle said by phone from his Venice, Calif. home. "If I could get my legs back, I'd be training as hard as ever. You know how your legs feel the last few miles of a marathon? Well, mine feel like that all the time. They're chronically fatigued. It's kinda frustrating."

Mundle theorizes that he has put too many miles on his legs and they have rebelled. He feels it is a biochemical problem involving the blood vessels. After taking up track in high school, Mundle went on to the University of Oregon to train under both Bill Hayward and Bill Bowerman. He set a school-record 9:32 for two miles in 1950. After graduating, he continued to run, improving his 2-mile best to 9:11, while also recording a 4:16 mile, 31:30 for 10,000, and 2:24 for the marathon, all nationally competitive times in those years.

From 1960 to 1970, Mundle averaged 5,000 miles of training a year under the tutelage of Mihaly Igloi, a revolutionary coach who defected to the United States from Hungary following the 1956 Olympic Games.

It has been said that many of Igloi's runners succumbed to early burnout because of his very demanding workouts. But Mundle doesn't feel that Igloi hastened his decline, physically or mentally. "I was always a hard trainer, anyway," he explains. "He made me train less hard than I would have. He kinda slowed me down. They misunderstood him."

Mundle's best times were recorded between the ages of 28 and 34. From 34 to 44 he continued to run nearly as well. "My real decline started at age 44," Mundle says. "My time trials then indicated that I was slowing. I couldn't do the workouts I had done previously. I could do as much mileage, just not as fast.

"I took a real nosedive at age 51. I was at 16:11 (5K) and 33:30 (10K) then, but for some unexplained reason I started going downhill rapidly."

Mundle now puts in 30-40 miles a week of training concepts he helped pioneer under Bowerman, but the quality is lower. And because of the longer recovery periods he requires, he does fewer hard workouts. He feels that his cardiovascular system is still very efficient and that his V02 (maximal oxygen uptake), while it may be a little lower than it once was, has not fallen off anywhere near as much as his running times.

Mundle has around 150,000 miles on his wheels. Perhaps there is a collapse point at which the legs lose their resilience.

"As I said, mentally, I'm the same as ever. But the legs can't take the same grueling workouts day after day. They need more rest. I'm doing as well as my body permits."

A friend suggested to Mundle that he might be anemic, but he shrugs that off because he is not lacking for vigor or vitality outside of his legs. Mundle also rules out lack of flexibility, since he's done a lot of stretching in recent years without any significant effect.

Mundle, who has a master's degree in mathematics and works as a statistician and computer programmer, has analyzed various records and individual times and has observed a linear fall- off in performance to about age 65. That is not consistent with his own experience.

"I'm kind of a pioneer here," Mundle offers. "I'm one of the oldest competitors to have run continuously from high school." He mentions a few others in that category, namely, Ray Hatton, Hal Higdon, Jerry Smartt, and Tom Sturak. "Ray is the only one who has been able to maintain a high standard."

Hatton, 56, has rarely put in more than 35 miles a week in training during his many years of running. What this possibly suggests is that there is a collapse point at which the legs almost completely lose their resilience — a point at which the "use it or lose it" dictum gives way to the reality of wear and tear. Just maybe there is something to the old adage that "the legs go first."

Mundle has around 150,000 miles on his wheels and was well beyond 100,000 when he started his "nosedive." If there is a collapse point and it is somewhere beyond 100,000 miles, most runners should have no concerns. Yet it's something that competitors who continue to push their limits month after month, year after year, may want to consider. A seasonal approach to competition with moderation in training throughout the rest of the year may be the lesson to be learned here.

As Mundle says, there is still a lot we don't know and a lot to be learned in this area.

Barker Masters the Ultimate Runner-

by PHIL LOOMIS and TERI INGRAM

The first of October in Jackson, Mich., dawned hot and humid - an unpleasant awakening for the 80 men and nine women who had five events to complete that day in the Ultimate Runner.

But the weather was the least of Phil Barker's worries as he tried to fend off the speedy Bill Stewart. To make matters worse, Barker discovered after the third event that he had been "keying off" a runner he thought was Bill Stewart, but wasn't.

By virtue of this tactical error, the 43-year-old traffic policeman, who had come all the way from England to compete in the event, found himself trailing the 45-year-old Stewart after the first four events, 1388 points to 1275. Going into the marathon, Stewart

Hepner Top Performer in National Race

Final Running of NIKE/OTC 25K

The end of an era has come. This year's TAC National Masters 25K Championships was the last running of the 18th annual NIKE/OTC 25K in Eugene, Oregon, September 11.

Formerly the NIKE Marathon, this was the course where Jacqueline Hansen became the first woman to break 2:40 (2:38:19 in 1975), and seven years later, Joan Benoit set a new American women's record of 2:26:11.

The course changed to a 25K in 1985 after NIKE withdrew its prize money. This year, NIKE went one step further, ending their sponsorship, altogether, thus bringing this race to a close.

John Hepner was the top masters age-graded performer in this final year with a time of 1:40:30 in the M60-64 division, which gave him a performance of 83.9 percent (calculated by dividing the M60 time standard of 1:28:31 by Hepner's time).

Bill Brobston of Saugerties, N.Y., was next-best on the age-graded scale, winning the M75 title in 2:10:43, (80.6%).

Overall winners were Shemi Sabag (1:20:26, 88.5%) and Cathy Twomey (1:28:23, 89.4%). The race was directed by Marcia McChesney.[1 had bested Barker in the 10K (35:40 to 38:04), the 400 (58.2/59.7), the 100 (13.5/13.8), and his specialty, the mile (4:43/4:45) in an exciting race where Stewart unleashed a furious kick with 200 to go.

But for the second consecutive time. Stewart was unable to put marathon points on the board. Two years ago, he was unable to start the last event for health reasons. This year, he was forced to drop out at mile 12 because of knee trouble. That allowed Barker to coast in with the masters win following a 3:11 marathon in the pouring rain. Finishing as second master was Ted Nykiel, 43, of Belmont, Mich. Third 40 + went to Al Zeller, 41.

Thirty-one masters started the marathon. Twenty-seven finished, including Susan Mason, 42, the only female masters participant. She finished with 872 points, which would have placed her seventh of the nine women competitors.

Mason, a 42-year-old mother of two. complained of having a "bad day," but it didn't show as she finished fourth in the 10K (43:51). On the track, her excellent endurance did her no good in the sprint events as she ran the 400 in 79.7 (sixth), and the 100 in 18.4. She made a bit of a comeback in the mile with a 6:25 but was frustrated with her 4:07 marathon.

Open winners were George Kepenyes (25, 1945 points) and Ella Willis (26, 1540 points).

All runners, no matter where they finished, should be congratulated for completing such a grueling event in less-than-perfect conditions.

Overall masters female in the Ultimate Runner Jackson, Mich., Oct. 1 was Susan Mason, 42, with 872 points. Here Mason competes in the 10K for a 43:51 in 71°, 90% humidity.

o masters athletes use mental imagery and visualization as part of their training? Does it work? In 1987, we surveyed 587 masters participants at the National Masters Track and Field Championships in Eugene.

We asked athletes about their use of mental rehearsal — mentally repeating a task without movement — to help learn that task.

We found 84 percent had heard of imagery, visualization or mental practice, and at least 70 percent used these techniques daily. Sixty-nine percent visualized before their event; 25 percent did so during the event; 22 percent visualized after the event. Only 26 percent used relaxation techniques; 45 percent dreamed about their performance before competition.

Athletes from ages 30 to 44, and those with college or graduate degrees, were more likely to practice mental training. Men and women visualized

Why use mental visualization? Athletes said they felt they could cope better with stress in training and competition.

One of the most exciting findings of our study was the significant relationship between visualization and faster times in the mile, 10K and marathon.

Even though athletes used mental practice, very few practiced traditional meditation or yoga (13.5 and 4.6 percent), which might be viewed as too passive for an active sport like running.

Masters employ various strategies to enhance performance, to cope with stress and fatigue, to overcome self-doubt, and to reduce injury potential. Mental training helps them to fine tune their performances.

policies discourage many people from participating.

Many runners participate in 5K or 10K races without paying the entry fee, saying "Why should I; I could never win an award the way the age groups are set up." I'm not condoning that, just pointing out the situation. A few more awards would reduce this practice, and the extra entry fees would more than offset the cost.

Moreover, the quality of physical training of older participants is higher than many of the younger runners. The older 5K or 10K runner must be well trained; whereas a younger person in reasonably good health can usually run a 5K or 10K without nearly as much training.

In my case, age 68, I finished 5th in the 60+ group and received no award, yet I finished ahead of some of the younger award winners.

I urge all race directors to stop discriminating against women and older competitors and extend the 5-year age-group brackets up to 80, and have the same number of awards. Those races should enjoy increased participation and greater financial support.

A question: by bookmakers odds, which performance would rank you as more inspiring, a 2:58 marathon by a 16-year-old or a 2:58 marathon by a 65-year-old? You shouldn't have to be 65 to answer that.

One more question: you've been to race-award ceremonies; say you're at one where 500 people are present when the awards begin. How many of them will still be standing there when the 65-year-old gets recognized? Very few, right?

The scenario for 99% of awards' ceremonies calls for the overall winners, male and female, to be announced first. This is usually followed by Continued on page 9 other top finishers in the open division. Then the age-division awarding begins - with the youngest announced first, moving to the oldest. That means the 50, 60 and 70-year-olds wait the longest and are last to get their awards.

Next, if you grant that awesome performances by runners in their 50s, 60s and 70s are more inspiring than such performances from younger runners, the 65-year-old can hardly inspire other runners if they are not around to hear

As I look back on 25 years of distance running, it's a tribute to the sport that all comers are welcome regardless of age or sex. It took some time, but we are now treating the ladies with chivalry and equality. Currently at awards ceremonies, race directors have moved in the direction of extending recognition to runners in the 40-year division (having Shorter, Rodgers and other names there helps). But the 50, 60 and 70-year-olds are still out in left field. Not only are they the last to receive their awards, but their awards are downgraded.

So what's the point of all this? I am suggesting that in about 99% of cases, the scenario for race awards needs to be rewritten. Instead of the present practice of starting with the youngest divisions, start with the oldest and work to the youngest. You can help the MAAD cause by asking your race director to try this scenario.

National road running championships.

I do not believe our races are truly National Championships. They are really regional in nature since relatively few people outside any particular region attend.

For instance, I recently won the National 25K in Eugene with a time of 1:40:32 That is not a national calibre (M55-59) time. None of the 50-54 runners even beat that. There were few runners outside the Northwest in attendance.

If a person tried to run in all the National Championships, he would go broke on the airfare and related expenses. There are simply too many.

Two suggestions: first, cut the number of races in half and run the two groups in alternate years; second, impose some time constraints so that a person doesn't take home a National medal just for showing up.

FALSE REPORTING

In your article on the WAVA North American Track and Field Championships, you reported that Jan Roos "turned in a world M50 record of 23:22.54" in the 5K walk and was named athlete-of-the-meet.

While that's an outstanding time and one I would be proud of, it is 32 seconds short of the world M50 record of 22:52, held by Maurice Hinton of New Zealand.

Are Masters Athletes Using Drugs?

don't know how much longer I'll compete in the masters program. Originally, I saw myself at 80, throwing the shot, etc. But I am so discouraged by the use of drugs by masters athletes in the weight events, that I get no joy from throwing anymore.

It was bad enough that many Europeans were drug users, but now that so many Americans are using them, I feel like giving up. There is no competition in throwing against a pill.

The whole, wonderful idea behind masters throwing was "look at that old guy throw that thing." The idea was to be able to see just how strong a person could remain into old age by training hard and living right — all the things youthful athletes should do, but no longer do, because they have drugs to do it for them. That noble idea has now become as naive as it has for the younger athlete.

I've talked to a few athletes who have confided to me that they're using, or have used, anabolic steroids. I have no proof, of course, about any masters athlete. Only sophisticated drug testing can "prove" steroid use.

But all you have to do is look at the performances of some masters athletes. All of a sudden, their performances jump way up. Or, they suddenly drop way off. Sometimes it's injuries, but, usually, it's something else. Such dramatic changes in performance are not natural.

Anabolic steroids can improve a person's performance by 5 to 10 percent. I spend a lot of time training to throw the shot as best I can. If someone else does half the work, but is able to compete with me because he's taking pills, it's not fair.

I feel that once you become a mature adult, all the foolishness about winning, being number one, and being macho doesn't matter as much; that family and home mean more than winning at any cost. Perhaps I'm being naive to assume that most masters feel the same as I do.

I estimate that 5 to 10 percent of masters athletes are using some form of steroids. And it's not only the throwers. Some of the masters sprinters' performances the last few years have been surprising, to say the least.

Some say the only reason elite athletes take drugs is because there is now money in the sport. That's one reason, but masters athletes are becoming drug users simply to be the best—to win a gold medal—even in the local Podunk meet.

I am truly sorry that the trend seems to be moving in the direction it is. I am amazed when masters athletes who never made the National lists as young men are now throwing as far or farther than they did when they were young. I threw almost 62 feet in college, and have lost distance every year, no matter how hard or how well I trained.

I deal with the drug problem in my job as track coach. I will not allow any member of my team to use drugs. I refuse to be responsible for their future health and well being. Most of all, I refuse to let them cheat to win, for that's what drug use boils down to — cheating to be number one.

I would love to be number one, but it would be a hollow victory if I used drugs. It wouldn't be me winning; it would be my pharmacist. Those who do use drugs should be ashamed of themselves.

I agree with Edwin Moses that drug use among world-class athletes is rampant. Ben Johnson is not the only offender, but he got caught, while others, using more sophisticated drugs or timing, did not. Johnson is the scapegoat. But it might do some good, if only to let people know the extent of the problem and that something should be done, even if current drug-testing methods are not perfect.

Drug testing should be mandated at next year's World Veterans Championship for the three medalists in the throws in the M40 through M55 divisions, along with a random sample of other participants. The testing equipment is available. If competitors knew that they might be tested, it would go a long way to discourage drug use.

Granted, some masters performers take drugs for medical reasons. Those athletes could be exempted from specific drugs taken with a doctor's prescription.

I'll probably compete for another year to see what happens. The World Championships in Eugene should be an exciting event to prepare and look forward to, but my enthusiasm is dimmed by this problem. I hope we can clean it up.

Thomasville Fall Masters Decathlon

by BILL BUSBY

The fourth annual Thomasville Fall Masters Decathlon was held September 24-25, at the Thomasville, N.C., High School track, the site of the 1989 National Masters Decathlon Championships.

Twenty-seven decathletes, ages 34 to 87, from 13 states competed. Included in the field were seven national masters decathlon or pentathlon champions.

The weather Saturday was threatening, and a thunderstorm and a hail storm interrupted the high jump twice. The weather Sunday was cool (low 60s) and overcast, but there was no rain.

Overall top point scorer was Jeff Watry, 34, of Virginia with 5845 points, using the 1985 tables. Watry's top performances were a 6-4½ high jump, and a 4:37.1 1500. Second overall was perenial national champion Rex Harvey, 42, from Iowa with 5724 points, high-lighted by a 14-11/4 pole vault and a 128-8 discus throw.

Quote of the Month:

"The only way for us (athletes) to end drug use is to end it ourselves. All the testing in the world is not going to catch up with all the new tricks. That's the bottom line. The issue is whether athletes have the courage to compete without a crutch."

Rocky Mountain Games Held in Colorado

by FRANK BOWLES

The 8th Annual Rocky Mountain Games were held at Potts Field in Boulder, Colo., September 4-5, under sunny skies with temperatures in the mid-70s. The fine weather and a strong field of 132 competitors insured excellent performances and another exciting meet.

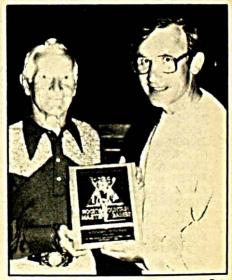

Usually, this meet features top-notch sprinting—and this year was no exception. Nevertheless, the outstanding competition this year took place in the weight pentathlon, where Montana's Tom Gage, 45, and California's Lloyd Higgins, 46, put on a tremendous battle, with Gage winning by a small margin, 3636 to 3616.

The regular pentathlon, scored by age-factoring, also saw an interesting battle for the overall winner of the annual Herb Anderson Award. Pete Stopoulos, 52, of Illinois, with the help of a U.S. single-age record long jump of 19-5½, edged out Steve Rogers, 45, of Kansas, 3301 to 3232.

Hector Cisneros of Texas was once again the Iron Man of the meet. After a hard regular pentathlon on Saturday, Cisneros, 54, entered ten events on Sunday and won the 800, pole vault, and both hurdles.

A number of women athletes also shone. Marilyn Mitchell, 45, of New York had the best times in three sprints: 50m (7.00), 100 (13:84), and 200 (27.85). Colorado's world record holder in the sprints, Polly Clarke, returned to the wars at 78 and captured the 100 and 200. Mary Palmer, 35, of Colorado, Barbara Pike, 47, of Massachusetts, and Louise Adams, 66, of Colorado were also outstanding in the sprints.

Due to its depth, the host Rocky Mountain team once again defeated a strong East contingent, 1699 to 1064.

The Truth About Pill Popping

Fishing through the contents of the packet containing my number at a recent race in the Midwest, I encountered a flyer for a product I had seen advertised in running publications. It promised peak performance, citing one triathlete who started taking the product a few days before the 1987 Ironman. He reduced his time by 42 minutes!

Later, I showed the flyer to David L. Costill, Ph.D., the respected director of the human performance laboratory at Ball State University. Costill laughed at the scientific explanations for the product's supposed success. One ingredient, supposedly found in the mitochondria of our cells, doesn't even exist, according to Costill—at least by the name under which it was advertised. Costill told me: "The guy promoting this isn't a scientist, he's a snake oil salesman."

A snake oil salesman who nevertheless was charging $44.35 for a one month's supply.

It may seem laughable that seemingly intelligent athletes might believe that two days of popping pills might result in a performance improvement equal to two years of training, but, sadly, it is so. The next day in the race, I overheard a fellow competitor touting the product to another.

Perhaps we are conditioned by all of the talk about anabolic steroids and blood-doping to believe that there exist magic routes to peak performance. Maybe they do, but as a conservative in the area of my own body's achievements, I don't want to hear about them. Apart from the ethical questions, I want to feel that everything I have achieved on the track and the roads is a result of my own diligence in training, not something I got out of a bottle.

I'm even suspicious of items as acceptable as vitamins and believe a lot of athletes overdose on these products as well. It seems a waste of money to pay extra for what comes normally in the foods we eat, provided we eat intelligently.

Agreeing with me is Ann Grandjean. Associate Director for the Swanson Center for Nutrition in Omaha, Nebraska and also a consultant to the U.S. Olympic team, Grandjean does for Olympians with food problems what another Ann (Landers) does for people with people problems.

"We try to educate our Olympians to make proper choices," Grandjean explains. "But you can't prescribe exact diets, otherwise it ends up in a food fight."

Grandjean finds working with Olympic athletes rewarding, compared to members of the general population.

"The general population is not compliant," she says. "Athletes are, because they're goal-oriented. When we ask athletes to record their diets, I have no qualms about the accuracy of what they put down. The general population, on the other hand, may want to record diet accurately, but they don't always do it."

Grandjean tries to convince Olympic athletes to stop relying on supplements for their vitamins and minerals. She considers pill-popping as a substitute for good nutrition both overly expensive, unnecessary and—practiced to an extreme—potentially detrimental to performance. "An athlete can obtain all the nutrients needed by eating well-balanced meals," she insists.

Ironically, one survey on the nutritional habits of elite athletes indicated that those needing supplements the least used them the most. Athletes who ate well-balanced meals often felt the need for more vitamins and minerals; athletes who are poorly did not. Why? Grandjean can only speculate: "If you are interested in what you eat, you are going to be at least aware of supplements. On the other hand, if you never think about nutrition, you probably are not. When you sit down with athletes with bad diets, they usually don't have many questions. Whereas the ones watching what they eat often bring in their shoebox full of supplements and want to go through all of

Among athletes, 72 percent (according to one study) use some form of supplementations (usually vitamins), compared to 50 percent of the general public. Moreover, because they believe (or at least hope) supplements can enhance their performance (by keeping them healthy), athletes tend to use more supplements than the public at large. Grandjean cites one baseball player who ingested 63 vitamin pills a day.

She believes the wisest athletes are those who both balance their diets and realize that those diets provide sufficient nutrients. One area of growing concern among nutritionists is toxicity, the fact that certain vitamins (among them: A, D and E) are fat soluble, thus remain in the body. This poses a problem when such vitamins are taken in large quantities, but nobody yet can prove whether this will cause negative effects either on health or performance.

Nutritionists also suspect that overdoses of certain necessary minerals (such as zinc) may retard the absorption of other minerals (such as iron), but the proof is not yet there.

Surveys to the contrary, Grandjean detects a lessening of what she calls "overnutrition," at least among the top class of athletes. "Athletes often are ten years ahead of the general public in terms of their eating habits, she says. Concerning the baseball player who ingested 63 pills daily, she smiles, "He's not around any more."

Meanwhile, Robert Voy, M.D. medical director at the U.S. Olympie Center, believes there may be other purposes for nutrition than merely fueling muscles. "We feel that nutrition is the alternative to some of the performance enhancing techniques, such as drugs and blood-doping, that now are illegal," he says.

I hope Voy and Grandjean are right. As an athlete who got everything he achieved by pounding out the miles. I'm tired of reading about designer drugs and pills that promise "longer sustained peak performance" and "greatly increased endurance," as the product advertised in my race packet. Apart from the fact that you're probably wasting $44.35 a month. I deel sorry for you if you think you need only a pill to beat me.

Sobering News About Beer

For all you post-race imbibers, I have a bit of bad news. Nancy Clark, MS, RD, reports in a recent issue of California Track and Running News, that beer is not all that it is cracked up to be.

Most of us have a couple after a long run or a tough marathon in order to replace fluids and feel a lot better. Well, Ms. Clark tells us that beer, actually, has a dehydrating effect.

It seems that alochol inhibits ADH, a hormone that holds water in your body. She recommends that runners first drink one or two large glasses of water to replace sweat loss, then have a beer (in moderation).

It also appears that beer is not really a good source of carbohydrates. A 12-oz. can of beer provides 16 grams of carbohydrate, while the same amount of orange juice has 40 grams. Also, the majority of beer carbohydrates are alcohol derived.

We are also not getting a lot of B-vitamins from beer. Only very small amounts of B-2 are found in beer. Whole grain breads will offer far more nutritional value.

Beer is also not a very good source of potassium. A beer replaces about 90 miligrams, while a banana gives us around 550. We lose about 400 miligrams of potassium during two hours of hard exercise.

Well, this is rather sobering news to the legions of post-exercise beer drinkers. As Ms. Clark concludes, beer in moderation compliments pizza and pretzels.

Masters Women Smash Ultra Relay Record in Oregon

by BEV LA VECK

A ten-member team of masters women, sponsored by the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, took five hours off the previous masters record in Oregon's 168-mile, Mt. Hood to Coast Relay, August 26. Each member ran three legs ranging from 4 to 5.65 miles, over terrain varying from "easy" to "very hard," the latter including coastal mountains in warm temperatures.

Team members ranged in age from 40 to 50 and included Charlotte Swanson, Linda Holst-Martin, Ricki Vadset, Kate O'Neill, Sue Covey, Carol Flexer, Judy Groombridge, Dorie Quam, Mary Miller, Julie Stiles, and Chris Curtis.

Their time of 19:34:19 placed them 79th in a total field of 580 ten-person teams, and fourth in a field of 41 women's teams.

Other teams reported that the women inspired them to dig deeper and exceed their own expectations.

35 Meet Records Fall in Virginia Meet

by JERRY WOJCIK

The 13th Annual Blue Cross/Blue Shield Virginia Track and Field Championships in Charlottesville on September 3 drew 139 Virginia and out-of-state athletes. They entered 340 individual events, setting 35 meet records and equalling two.

Virginia's Greg Marshall, M40, set three of the records, in the 100 (11.6), 200 (23.6), and 400 (53.1). Frank Wagner, M50, registered a record in the 1500 of 4:38.4 and won the 5000 in 18:05.

National champion Floyd Simmons, M65, out-threw all 60-and-over entrants in the shot put (44-91/4), discus (130-2), and javelin (141-8).

Karen Beaver of the Virginia Masters club directed the event, which is scheduled for September 2 next year.

Lightning Legs from Labor Repeat as Fittest Team

by JEFF DARMAN

Assistant Secretary of Labor Tom Komarek captained his team to a second straight victory in the eighth annual Nike Capital Challenge September 15 in Washington, D.C.'s East Potomac Park.

This unique three-mile race attracted 125 team entries and over 600 runners. As in the past, each team was captained by a U.S. Senator, Representative, Cabinet Member or sub-Cabinet presidential appointee, Federal Judge or Washington media person. The captain's job was not honorary as each had to cover the three-mile course for his team to count.

The field was filled with VIP's, including 30 Senators and Representatives — among them former presidential candidate Al Gore of Tennessee — two Cabinet members, a dozen Federal Judges, teams from the White House and most government agencies, as well as media outlets that cover the city's workings.

As always, the race had a festive air with the First United States Army Band serenading runners at the start and finish. Two race officials dressed as President Reagan and Premier Gorbachev "worked" the race crowd. Key race officials had shirts with Dukakis-Bentsen on one side along with a Nikeshod donkey, and Bush-Quayle on the other with a similarly attired elephant.

Senator Richard Lugar (R-Indiana), 56, won the Senate race with a 22:12 in the Nike Capital Challenge 3 Mile, Washington, D.C., September 15. Senator Jeff Bingaman (D-N.M.) 22:37, and Senator Al Gore (D-Tenn.) 22:46, finished two and three.

First to break the red tape at the finish was David White, running for the Hoosier Senator? team of Senator Richard Lugar, with a time of 14:21. Fastest female was Patty McGovern, a Congressional staffer, running for Democratic Representative Beverly Byron's Bollweevils, in 16:16.

The race is designed to highlight the ability of many of the Nation's busiest leaders to stay fit and raised $5,000 for Special Olympics. All entry fees were donated to Special Olympics, and Challenge sponsor, Nike, donated an additional $2,000 in the named of the winners as well as paying all race expenses.

Fastest legislators were 56-year-old Richard Lugar (R-IN) in 22:12; Representative Bart Gordon (D-TN), 18:26; and Representative Claudine Schneider (R-RI), 25:52, who captured her fourth straight title.

As usual there was hot competition for the special awards and Best Team Name honors went to the U.S. Sentencing Commission's team, Running Concurrently, who edged out Taylor's Media Tarsals of the Chronicle of Higher Education. The James B. Kenin Award for Worst Team Name was taken by WRC-TV's (NBC) Channel 4 O'Lymplans, who beat back a strong challenge from the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Agency team of Elliott Fitness' Run Touchables. The Best Uniform was won by the White House's Reagan's Revolutions team, and the Best Spirited team was again the Energy Department's Energy In Action entry. Energy Department staff members were seen serving morning coffee and rolls to judges during the race - a tactic that clearly worked.

2900 Tune-Up for NYC Marathon

by JERRY WOJCIK

The NYC Marathon Tune-Up 25K, sponsored by the New York Road Runners Club, in Central Park on September 25, attracted 2905 starters, 2462 of whom finished. Art Hall, 41, placed fourth of the 1877 men finishers with a 1:26:15. Pamela Duckworth, 41, ended in 1:53:22, 15th of 585 women.

The second master was Sam Skinner, 46, in 1:30:54. That spot in the W40-and-over race went to Susan Hale, 41, with a 1:57:55.

Kenneth Karcher, 59, took the M55 contest handily in 1:45:28. Thelma Wilson, 56, won the W50-59 race, the closest of the day, with a 2:10:41.

Top masters racewalkers were Nicholas Bdera (40, 2:13:02) and Stella Cashman (46, 2:41:04).

Open winners were Carlos Roa (35, 1:20:14) and Bonnie McLeod (25, 1:40:11).

The race was run under overcast skies with temperatures in the mid-60s, 65% humidity, and 12 mph winds.

Brown and Filutze Find Wins in Moonlight

by TERI INGRAM

Top masters did their usual 1-2-3 routine at the Maggie Valley Moonlight 8K in Maggie Valley, N.C., on August 20. That is to say the top masters were the usual top masters: Barry Brown, Bob Schlau, Barbara Filutze.

Barry Brown, the masters winner, was also the masters age-graded best (25:17, 88.9%). Brown was followed by Schlau (25:23, 88.6%), who was followed by Patrick Murphy (25:32, 88.1%) — the same order they finished in the race.

In the women's case, Filutze's 28:48, which exactly tied her 1987 8K best, gave her the lead with an 87.2%. Filutze was followed by W35 Linda Fox (30:43, 79.2%) and W50 Suzie Kluttz (35:55, 75.9%).

Overall winners were Arena Abraha (25, 23:00, 92.6%) and Margaret Groos (26, 26:48, 88.3%).

Johnson, W40, of Salt Lake City with a 3:06:39.

Overall men's winner was Tracy Fifield, 26, who led from wire to wire, finishing in 2:22:11.

The race was sponsored by the St. George Leisure Services Department, KUTV of Salt Lake City, and first Security Bank of Utah. Meet director was Kent Perkins.

Competitors go at it in the M55 200 finals at the TAC Nationals, Crlando, Aug. 4-7. The winner was Bruce Springbett (24.63), third from right.

Masters Dominate U.S. 24-Hour Run

By LARRY ROBBINS

Masters runners took seven of the top ten spots in the U.S. TAC National Open and Masters 24-Hour Championships held at the Atlanta Water Works in Atlanta, September 17-18.

Roy Pirrung, 40, of Wisconsin captured both the open and masters titles for men with 145 miles and 1464 yards. Eileen Eliot, 44, of Florida, in her first attempt at a 24-hour race, captured the women's open and masters titles by running 111 miles, 1711 yards. Both distances are course records.

Ken Brewer, 46, of Alabama was second master with 129 miles, 75 yards. Another Alabaman, Linda Sledge, 40, was second woman overall with 108 miles, 1487 yards.

Robert Johnson, 62, of Florida was 11th overall of 77 finishers with a total of 111 miles, 1560 yards.

The championships, the first U.S./TAC 24-hour ever, were hosted by the Atlanta Track Club.

The donations insured a successful bid and a solid promotional effort, including booths at the Australian Championships and the USA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. We are expecting 5000 or more competitors in Eugene.

If an additional $50,000 weredonated over the next several months, several benefits would result.

First, the donor becomes an active participant in the conduct of the World Championships.

Second, the monies collected now will provide the cash flow needed to provide the continuity of effort the Organizing Committee needs until the entry fees start arriving.

Third, the donation is a taxdeductible contribution.

The Organizing Committee is busy obtaining sponsors to cover large expenditures such as the computer and other communication systems. Those donations are largely "in kind" and don't provide the operating cash flow needed to pay the day-to-day expenses.

I don't know how much you are willing to donate, but the Championships can use every cent the Trust can collect.

We've had 1000 competitors at our National Championships. We probably have 7000 participants in track & field, and another 20,000 in long distance running. $50 from each competitor — the price of a quiet evening out on the town — would be a dramatic indication of support. It would guarantee the Organizing Committee the financial assistance it needs now.

There are many competitors who have no interest in being meet directors, administrators, or officials. A cash donation at this time from these individuals would be a tangible and visible "thank you" and support for the efforts of those volunteers who make meets go, and who will be needed to make the World Championships successful.

There are many reasons that can be used to justify asking for donations. The one I feel most comfortable in using is that this meet is being hosted by you, the U.S. competitors in long distance running and track & field—athletics, if you will. Not the U.S. government, not The Athletics Congress of the USA, but you. You have invited the world to Eugene. You are the host. It is your meet; it is my meet; it is our meet.

Help it with your financial aid. Send your contributions to the World Veterans Trust, c/o Jerry Donley, 1715 Alamo Ave., Colorado Springs, CO 80907.

Thanks.

Half of 1988 Masters T&F Meets Show Profit

Of the five 1988 masters track and field meets which submitted their financial statements to TAC, two made money, two lost, and one broke even.

The detailed chart on this page shows the National Masters Decathlon and the Western Regionals were the money-makers, while the National Indoor Championships and the Southwest Regionals went in the hole. The Outdoor Pentathlon broke even. All five meets were supported financially by TAC's Masters Track & Field Committee.

Entry fees accounted for the bulk of each meet's revenues. The major expenses were medals and the rental of a facility. T-shirts were the biggest expense item for two meets. Almost all labor needed to run the meets was donated by volunteers. If personnel had to be hired at fair-market value, all meets would have shown a staggering loss.

The chart provides valuable information for participants and meet directors. TAC has encouraged meet directors to compile financial statements, and even offers an extra subsidy to national and regional directors who do so. Despite the offer, five of the seven regional meets did not submit any data and, thus, did not receive their full grant.

At TAC's convention in Phoenix next month, the Masters Track & Field Committee will discuss whether to extend its offer of financial aid to local meets, particularly to first-time events, to encourage the staging of more competition.

If you direct — or have directed — a meet, we encourage you to send your financial statement to NMN. We'll pass it along to TAC and publish it in our next chart. If you have suggestions on how masters meets can turn a profit, please send us your advice.

here is this group of countries forming the Oceania Association of the World Association of Veteran Athletes and how long has it been in existence?

The Oceania Association was first mooted in 1979 and was the brainchild of the present Vice President (long distance) of WAVA, Clem Green. In 1979, Clem extended an open invitation to the many countries in the Oceania region to attend the 1979 New Zealand Veterans Track and Field Championships in Auckland. From that initial gathering, the new group has slowly emerged. The culmination of this spadework was the holding of the 1st Oceania Games in May, 1981, in Suva, Fiji.

At these Games, representatives of the countries in the South Pacific region established a small working Committee. In September, 1986, delegates from Australia, Fiji, Western and Eastern Samoa, Kiribati and New Zealand established a formal Oceania Association. Subsequently, Oceania has set up its "Document of Intent" and its own formal "Constitution" and is now a well established group.

As illustrated in the map, the Oceania group is spread over a very large area of the South Pacific basin. Countries included in the Oceania territories are: - American Samoa, Cook Islands, Fiji Islands, French Polynesia, Kiribati, the Marianas and Caroline Islands (U.S.), Nauru, New Caledonia, Niue, Papua-New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Tokelau, Vanuatu, Wallis and Futuna (FR), Western Samoa, Australia and New Zealand.

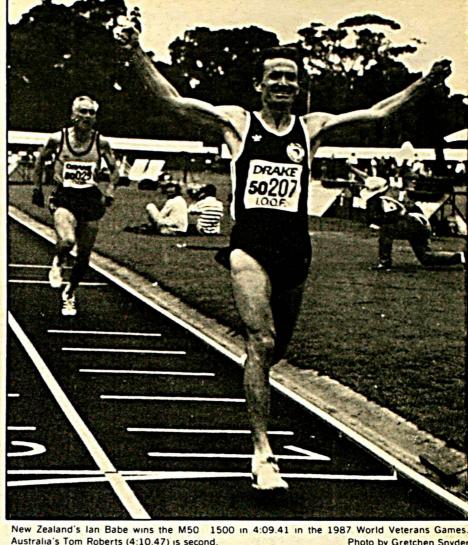

This vast spread is a problem. New Zealand, for example, is 1200 miles from Fiji and Australia.

their athletes to get together in competition also creates logistical problems.

Many of the member countries have little activity in open-grade athletics. Their veteran athletics is even more limited or, in many cases, non-existent. However, the enthusiasm and drive of a very hard-working committee is continuing to encourage and help to initiate veterans athletic activity in these areas.

Another problem in the region is the political instability which exists in many of the member countries. This was well illustrated when the 4th Oceania Games set for June of this year had to be postponed following the unrest in New Caledonia. However, with stabilization since June, the Games have been rescheduled and will now be held at the end of October and the beginning of November.

As in the case with most regions under WAVA, the Oceania Games are held every two years. Following the 1st Games in Fiji, subsequent Games have been held in Canberra, Australia in 1984, and Apia, Western Samoa in 1986. The 5th Oceania Games are to be held in Auckland, New Zealand in 1990. Although the Games are largely contested by Australia, New Zealand and the hosting Island territory, there is nevertheless enthusiasm initiated in the hosting Island country which we hope will continue and grow following the Games.

Because of the limited financial state of many of the Island territories, it is difficult to formulate a financial membership system. During the meetings to be held in Noumea, the Oceania Association will address this and hopefully, come up with a solution that is fair and reasonable to all member countries.

Oceania is in many ways at the crossroad. Its future is dependent on the goodwill and support of the National Associations of Australia and New Zealand. If this region is to continue to grow and have an established place and identity in WAVA, a dedicated effort from athletes in both nations will be needed.

The World Will Gather

by TOM JORDAN and BARBARA KOUSKY

he VIII World Veterans Championships will truly be a gathering of the world's athletes, as housing requests have been received from most of the fifty-two nations which took part in Melbourne's splendid Games. Additional entries are expected from new participants from Bulgaria, Thailand, Liechtenstein, and Cyprus. Approaches are being made to veteran athletes in the Soviet Union, China, and many of the African countries, as well.

With just eight months to go until the Opening Ceremonies in Eugene-Springfiled, competitors are urged to send in their housing deposits and entry forms as soon as possible. The deadline for both is May 1, 1989, which is just a short five months away. (If you or your club is sponsoring a masters event, and would like a supply of official Entry Booklets to have on hand, write to the WVCOC, Box 10825, Eugene, OR 97440, with plenty of lead time, and we'll send them out to you.)

An event the size of the World Veterans Championships — which will very likely be the largest track and field meet ever held — takes enormous resources in money and man power, and we would like to express our appreciation once again to the masters in the United States and around the world who have contributed so generously to the World Games Trust. Putting on the Championships would literally not be possible without this invaluable support.

Three-dot updates:...Hewlett-Packard (computers) and See Design and Production (tenting) are the latest sponsors of the VIII WVC...note in the Preliminary Competition Schedule that the W45 Heptathlon begins on the first Thursday (ITHUR/AM), not 2THUR/AM; the W40 5000 Walk will be held the second Saturday, (2SAT/AM), not 1SAT/AM...for those decathletes and open vaulters who will not be bringing poles to Eugene, there will be a supply of poles of various poundages available for competitors' use; all other field event implements will be provided as well...if you haven't ordered your "In Training For" T-shirt yet, be the first on your block to have one or more...the 378-bed University Inn is sold out; some University beds left; hotels and motels still available...if you made a room deposit, you'll receive confirmation by December 1. Hans Bitter: Oldest to Jump 5-Feet

A fter undergoing arthroscopic surgery last year, Hans Bitter was congratulated by his doctor. "You have the knees of a 35-year-old man," the surgeon told Bitter.

Indeed! Bitter's knees are not the only thing belying his age. How many 35-year-olds can high jump 5-feet? How many high school kids can do it?

On July 13, 1986, Bitter, a life-long resident of Herzogenaurach, West Germany, cleared the bar at 5-feet, 3/4-inch (1.54 meters). He was then 66 years, 4 months, and 20 days old, making him the oldest human to officially go over 5-feet.

That was a fraction below his jump of 5-1 (1.55) the year before, which is listed by the World Association of Veteran Athletes as a pending 65-69 world record (Burl Gist's 5-0 is shown as the record).

Now 68, Bitter is beginning to have doubts about going over 5-feet again. His best 1988 jump has been 4-9. But that hasn't dampened his enthusiasm. He's looking ahead to the World Games in Eugene next August. "I'm looking forward to meeting Tom (Patsalis) and Burl (Gist) right in the lions' den," Bitter says in fluent English. "Unfortunately, I'll be 69 and at the end of my age group. So I'm also looking forward to competing in 1990 when I'll be quite young again. What a wonderful system to make us rejuvenate every five years!"

In 1938, the last year before the great war, Bitter was a top-rated high jumper in German youth (to age 18) competition with a 5-11 (1.81). "But then we jumped in a very simple and little efficient style," he points out. "I used to call it a schoolgirls' style, but today you can see so many schoolgirls jumping with excellent technique."

While attending the University of Erlangen after the war, Bitter took third in the decathlon of the German Students Championships of 1953. In 1978, Bitter learned about masters track and field from some participants in the World Games at Toronto. At the European Veterans Championships in Italy that year, he jumped 4-9 to cap-become world vets champion in the Olympic stadium and to clear 1.55, which was 4 centimeters over the then world record held by my high jump friend, Burl Gist," Bitter recalls. "He had won the gold in San Juan two years before with a 1.57. I had come in third with a 1.47 only. In Rome, I was able to 'turn the leaf,' as we say in Ger-with a 17-9.

won the silver."

Bitter also won the long jump in Rome with a leap of 16-9, a little short of his then 17-0 1/4 world record for the 65-69 division, and captured silver many. Burl cleared only 1.48 there and ture the gold medal in the 55-59 division. In the World Veterans Championships in Germany the following year, he cleared 4-11 for the gold while also taking a silver in the long jump Bitter's most memorable competitive experience came in the 1985 World Games in Rome. "It was exciting to medals in the shot (12.69) and discus (45.52).

"With my ability in the jumps and throws, I have always had an inclination to the multi-events," he says. "I am able to compete in five or even six events with a good chance, but I am too slow in the 1500. I do not feel enough motivation to work hard in running, too."

A retired electrical engineer, Bitter devotes an hour a day average to conditioning. Three days are given to technique training and two days to working out with weights, while he takes weekends off except when competing.

"One hour a day is not more than everybody should practice to keep physically fit," Bitter opines. "Competition gives me a reliable motivation year by year to keep in condition for a life with a lot of interests. Besides athletics, art is an important interest of mine. After my retirement, I studied science of art, the theory of art, including architecture, for some time."

Bitter adds that he and his wife, Inge, always try to take in as much nature and culture as they can during trips to track and field meets. "On our way home from the European Championship in Verona, Italy this year, we stayed in Switzerland for a few days to wander over the mountains where in winter we practice cross-country skiing every year. In Verona, we enjoyed a spectacular performance of the opera 'Aida' with 20,000 other spectators, and we visited some of the historic places on the shores of Lake Garda."

Bitter has another strong interest, religion. "In my opinion, our everyday life cannot be the entire life of men. There must be a second part, which has to do with the true purpose of life. So I have been learning much about religion, church, and faith in recent years. This has been a very exciting experience for me."

As a longtime reader of National Masters News, Bitter has come to the conclusion that American masters are much better off than veteran competitors in West Germany. "We are lacking in leadership," he says. "Please don't misunderstand me, though. I really don't want to lament over our life as veteran athletes here in Germany. Our officials do not compete, themselves, or are not able to win. They do not fully understand or appreciate the active older athlete Veterans athletics in Germany is headed in the right direction, but we are on a slower track than American masters."

The three fastest veterans in September were Aldershot clubmates Brian O'Niel and 50-year-old Taff Davies, and Peter Jones, 40. World 10K title holder in 1985, Davies has shown a clean pair of heels to all of his rivals recently except for Jones. In the Bläckheath Harriers Cross-Country Relay at Crystal Palace (over 3000m), Jones was best veteran with 8:16 with Davies only marginally slower.

In the Southern Counties Open 6K Road Relay, Davies was fastest o'Niel, but O'Niel made amends with a stunning 14:46.1 track 5000 to rank second for the year in the U.K. (behind Jones) and post the fastest vet time in the Surrey Road Relays.

Report from Britain
by MARTIN DUFF of Athletics Weekly

Jones ran a good 31:15 10K at Chelmsford, where 37-year-old Glynis Penny clocked 35:35, and husband, Keith, 38, a 30:40.

Mike Hurd is also back in form with a third place overall (2:21:09) in the Humber Bridge Marathon.

On August 23, Canadians exulted when Ben Johnson won the Olympic 100-meter gold medal.

Few events in this century so electrified a country not generally given to overt displays of nationalism, albeit that Johnson is Jamaican-born.

It was enough that Ben had grown up and learned his running in Canada. Few single events had so unified Canada. The euphoria washed away all our many national differences.

Then came the news of the test which revealed the use of anabolic steroids. At first, there was disbelief. Then the joy turned to ashes. The shame of it hit the nation, especially when we realized that others, either actively or passively, were equally involved in the sham victory. For Canadians, this was much harder to accept than it would have been for most major nations, for we were rejoicing over our first Olympic track and field gold medal since 1932.

If you have been patient enough to have read this far, you may be wondering what this has to do with veteran athletics. Why would anyone in the veteran ranks risk his health, perhaps his life, for a performance which will get no publicity outside of our small group, and is often forgotten soon after the event ends?

Isn't our creed that we should participate, regardless of honors, as long as we can do so? Aren't we a generation who prize fair play far above a dishonestly-won award?

During WAVA's discussions with the IAAF, Hans Skaset, Chairman of the IAAF Veterans Committee, said: "You have the drug problem. Instances have already arisen in other veteran sports. You must adopt random testing."

There is not yet a WAVA-IAAF agreement and perhaps there never will be, but the WAVA Council did adopt the principle and testing will become a reality.

After all, we already have experienced instances of cheating: the veteran who suddenly appeared at the end of the Boston Marathon in a time that would have slashed the world M50 record; the runner who knowingly cut 3000 meters off a cross-country course and received a world championship medal, which he refused to return even though his name was struck from the results. Then we have had one or two deliberately declared false ages.

If the incentive to win is increased by other factors, such as prize money, would individuals like these resort to artificial means of stimulation in their quest to win?

For the vast majority of veterans, I'm sure we could resoundingly say "no."

Prize money has become a reality on the veteran scene. It is not likely to be much and will only be awarded to a few top performers, but it's a concern the WAVA Council has addressed. The decision was that while we can do nothing to prevent money payments for winning, we do not encourage them in any way.

Along New York's busy streets there is no place to park, and official signs, without reference to the misdemeanor, merely say "Don't Even Think Of It." For the sake of veteran athletics, perhaps the last haven of pure sportsmanship, let us all take that advice.

ATTENTION: RACE WALKERS NORTH AMERICAN CHAMPIONSHIPS

IN THE UNITED STATES, THE MASTERS TRACK & FIELD COMMITTEE HAS JURISDICTION OVER RACE WALKERS OVER FORTY YEARS OF AGE AND THE OPEN RACE WALKING COMMITTEE HAS JURISDICTION OVER WALKERS UNDER FORTY. IT WAS AGREED THAT THE OPEN RACE WALKING COMMITTEE WOULD HAVE MASTERS DIVISIONS IN ALL OF THEIR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS EXCEPT FOR THE INDOOR 2 MILE AND OUTDOOR 5 KM AND 20 KM RACES WHICH WOULD BE HELD AS PART OF THE MASTERS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

RACE WALKING IS THE FASTEST GROWING SPORT IN ATHLETICS, WITH THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF THE NEW PARTICIPANTS BEING MASTERS. RATHER THAN RUN A COMPLETE SLATE OF NATIONAL MASTERS CHAMPION-SHIPS, IT HAS BEEN PROPOSED THAT THE MASTERS HOLD CERTIFIED NORTH AMERICAN CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR MEN OVER FORTY AND WOMEN OVER THIRTY-FIVE AT ALL OF THE STANDARD DIS TANCES. THIS WOULD BE IN KEEPING WITH PLANNED WORLD MASTERS CHAMPIONSHIPS.

UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE NORTH AMERICAN COUNCIL OF THE WORLD ASSOCIATION OF VETERAN ATHLETES (WAVA), CHAIRED BY DAVE PAIN, I AM COMMUNICATING WITH POTENTIAL SPONSORS. ANY GROUP IN NORTH AMERICA IS WELCOME TO PARTICIPATE. THOSE INTERESTED GROUPS SHOULD COMPLETE THE ENCLOSED FORM AND RETURN IT TO ME.

WE WISH TO START THE CIRUIT IN 1989. DEPENDING ON THE RESPONSES WE CAN ALSO PLAN RACES THROUGH 1991. THE RACES MUST BE ON CERTIFIED COURSES, USING CERTIFIED OFFICIALS. Mike O'Neill Dies

The world veterans athletics community was shocked by the death of Mike O'Neill in Melbourne, Australia on September 21, 1988 at the age of 62.

O'Neill was the Secretary/Treasurer of the Australian National Veterans Association and the chief announcer at the VII World Veterans Games last year.

He had suffered a severe stroke earlier this year. Setbacks to his initial recovery necessitated further surgery at Melbourne's Alfred Hospital, where he subsequently died a few weeks later.

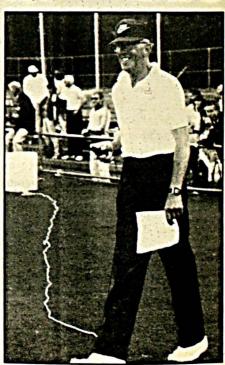

O'Neill was a colorful personality with a sense of humor, which showed during his regular commentaries at track and field meets.

Born in Liverpool, England, he served with the British Army in World War II, when he established himself as a leading middle-distance runner. He met his wife, Jean, and they migrated to Australia in 1950. He became active in athletics and said his most memorable experience was serving as an official at the 1956 Melbourne Olympics.

O'Neill was one of the founders of the Australian Veterans program and one of 35 members of the first Australian Veterans team to compete overseas in San Diego, London and Cologne.

Open by-pass surgery in 1980 marked the end of his competition days and heralded the complete devotion of his engeries to the sport he loved.

He is survived by his wife and their children: Susan, 35, Shauna, 32, and Ross, 30. — From Mike Hall

Schlau, Hearn Are The Greatest In Pittsburgh

by MIKE DAVIS

PITTSBURGH — In the September 24th Great Race, for yet another time this season, Bob Schlau stepped to the awards stand as the winner in an ICI/USRA Masters Circuit race.

For women's winner Angella Hearn, however, it was something new — a situation which points to the competitiveness in the women's division, as well as the men's.

Schlau, a 40-year-old from Charleston, S.C., toured the point-to-point 10K course in 30:31. He was comfortably ahead of runner-up Glenn Myers (41, Millersville, Pa.), but Myers (31:34) and Ken Sparks (43, Chagrin Falls, Ohio) were just a second apart.

Hearn, a Britisher who's been running just seven of the 13 years she's been in this country, got more of a challenge from Jane Hutchison. Hearn (42, New York, N.Y.) came in at 34:31, just 17 seconds ahead of Hutchison (42, Webb City, Mo.).

Bill Olrich (53, Lexington, Ky.) was first in the male 50-59 bracket at 32:36, Norma Perlmutter, 71, was the oldest competitor in the Pittsburgh Great Race 10K, Sept. 24. Perlmutter ran 1:36:57.

Bill Olrich (53, #199) won his division of the Sept. 24 Great Race 10K in Pittsburgh in 32:36 and Jill Martin (50, Brooklyn, N.Y.) took honors on the women's side at 41:00.

Gaylon Jorgensen (59, Provo, Utah) claimed a U.S. 10K record for age 59 with his performance of 34:21.

Officials said 12,258 entered the race and 10,274 finished. In the near-ideal cool weather, under cloudy skies and with the threat of rain, Betty Geiser set an American point-to-point 10K record of 31:07, beating Mary Decker's time of 31:38 from 1984. Are Nakkim of Norway was the overall men's winner in a course-record time of 27:46.

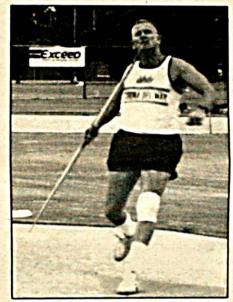

Sri Chinmoy Brings New Spirit to Masters

by BIGALITA EGGER

The first annual Sri Chinmoy Masters Track and Field event — for ages 50-and-over — was held on September 24 at UC Irvine, Calif. Athletes came from Reno, San Francisco and even Salt Lake City.

Unique for this type of event was the ongoing complimentary athletes' buffet of healthy vegetarian food; Sparkletts spring water and Exceed were also freely available all day.

The Sri Chinmoy group's enthusiasm and genuine love of the sport—and their seeing the athletes competing and transcending themselves—compensated for their lack of experience in holding such a complex event. Mary Thompson and Akemi Hanamoto, President and Vicepresident, respectively, of the Los Angeles Patriots, had graciously offered their time and expertise, and had a lot to do with the success of this meet.

Ray Fitzhugh, M50, tosses the javelin 111-2 for third in his division at the Sri Chinmoy Seniors (50+) meet, UC-Irvine, Calif., Sept. 24.

An American M60-64 record was broken by Boyce Jacques, 62, of Reno, who ran the 3000 in 10:46, coming in first overall.

A few athletes broke personal records: Del Pickarts, world M60 record-holder in the javelin (191-5) threw the discus 146-4, while M50 Bob Eldridge's 12-lb. shot touched the ground at 31-4.

The sponsors of the event — over 25, mostly young, individuals from the Sri Chinmoy Marathon Team — take their inspiration and philosophy of sports and life from their spiritual teacher, Sri Chinmoy — a masters athlete himself. The group feels that sports and competition provide an excellent backdrop upon which to build a better understanding and a feeling of oneness among all individuals. Frankly, they admitted to being very inspired in seeing these "older" people competing with so much enthusiam and joy.

George Simon summed up the event:
"You have been wonderful hosts, and I hope next year it will be four times as big."

Inspired by everyone's response and kindness, next year's Sri Chinmoy Masters Track and Field Meet is already set for Sunday, September 24.

Dave Douglas, M55, heaves the discus 96-0 at the Sri Chinmoy Seniors (50+) meet, Irvine Calif., Sept. 24.

Report From San Diego-

by DAVID PAIN

1989 will be the banner year for masters athletics in the U.S.A. We will not only host the WAVA World Championships in Eugene but also the 1989 USA/TAC Masters Track and Field Championships in San Diego, Calif. A great double header! What the Los Angeles Olympic Committee accomplished for the Olympic program, we hope to achieve for International Masters Athletics as well.

The four-day San Diego event will be conveniently held July 20-24, 1989, one week before the Eugene festivities begin.

Every effort is being made by the host San Diego Track Club to make the 1989 National Championships the best in the event's 20-year history. Masters track and field started in San Diego back in 1968 and has come a long way.

The home venue will be San Diego

State University where 1000 residencehall beds have been reserved. SDSU has just completed a $400,000 renovation of its 400-meter, 9-lane track with the world's best all-weather Mondo surface.

The second track will be historic Balboa Stadium, which, too, has undergone a Mondo facelift. No matter what track your event may be scheduled on, you will get a comparable world-class surface.

Airport pick-up and return and shuttle-bus service is included in the entry fee and will be the order of the day. Just let us know your arrival time, and flight or train number.

There will be plenty going on at SDSU other than the athletics. An all-day Sports Medicine Symposium is scheduled for Wednesday, July 19, and plans are shaping up to have nightly entertainment on the green adjacent to the Residence Halls.

On Sunday afternoon, July 23, after completion of the relays — yes, they will be on the last day so as not to sap your vitality for other events and the 10/20K road walks — we will have an outdoor Mexican fiesta, complete with Hispanic ethnic food and entertainment. So don't schedule an early flight out that day.

The entry blank will be printed this month and mailed to all entrants who competed in Eugene in 1987 or Orlando in 1988. It will also be published in the NMN shortly.

No less than 1000 foreign competitors are anticipated. They will add quality to our event and enable many of us to renew old overseas acquaintances as well as make new ones.

Yes, 1989 will be a masters banner year, so get into the fun. Don't miss

ICI/USRA Masters Circuit on a Roll

The ICI/USRA Masters Circuit is on a roll. First it was Ron Bell leading other masters under his old world record mile mark, running 4:12.5 and shattering the standard at the ICI Legends Mile. Then one week later at the next stop on the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit in Asbury Park, Barbara Filutze, Larry Olsen and Bill Olrich captured their respective age divisions beating out one of the best masters fields ever assembled.

ICI/USRA Masters Circuit Point Standings

The ICI/USRA Masters Circuit features a $20,000 grand prix style prize purse for > women's clocking at 58:11 and a strong second to Priscilla Welch at the Heartland Hustle.

1st = $3500, 2nd = $2500, 3rd = $1500, 4th = $750

As the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit moves toward the final showdown in Naples, Fla., at the $10,000 National Championship 8K, January 14, 1989, the individual races in all age groups are only going to get hotter. Despite the Foundation 30K yet to be held this month and the Charlotte 10K, January 7, still on tap before Naples, we still must take time to pause and plan ahead for the 1989 Circuit which will con-had defeated Rodgers at the Myrtle Beach Classic Circuit event and Los Angeles Marathon, Billy rose to the occasion. His new world record of 29:47 left Schlau 1:50 back and planted the seeds for his assault this month on the New York City Marathon and the American marathon record of 2:15.

On the women's side, California's Laurie Binder, despite a late start on the Circuit, has been making her presence known in a similar fashion. At Crim, she lowered Cindy Dalrymple's 10-mile mark by 1:17 to 57:11. Not to be outdone, Barbara Filutze of Erie, Pa., is making a late charge, also nearly matching Binder's 10-mile effort on the challenging Capital Trail Run with the second-fastest-ever

Masters Running '88 Available

The letters and phone calls continue to flood in, but don't worry, there are still copies of the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit annual magazine, Masters Running '88 available. While we are still distributing copies through several major events around the country through the end of the year, if you want your copy immediately, send $1 to Masters Running '88, 33A Martine Ct., Newark, DE 19711.

Plans are already underway for the "1989" edition. Masters Running '89 hopes to announce its publishing schedule within the next month.

tinue to expand.

ICI General Manager of Public Affairs, Bill Adams, and I will be at the Washington, D.C., Road Race Management Conference, November 11-13, and TAC's Convention in Phoenix late this month. We welcome the opportunity to listen to your comments and suggestions as we evaluate 1988 and plan for 1989. We also encourage race directors and runners to inform us of races that they feel should be on the Circuit. We have already added Sacramento but are hoping to expand even more on the West Coast.

We will also be meeting with the TAC Masters Long Distance Running Committee to discuss coinciding TAC championships with Circuit events and the implementation of other areas of support for masters running from the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit. Look for next month's (December) issue of Running Times to include a special 8-page section on the ICI Circuit while we are running extensive advertising across the country the next few months for the Naples National Championship.

I would like to think that one of the primary reasons the ICI/USRA Masters Circuit has been successful thus far has been that we have listened to you, the master runner. While the Grand Prix prize purse is nice and the competition brings more attention to the sport, the real goal of the Circuit is to promote masters running among all ages and abilities. And beyond the Circuit, our goal is to lobby events to increase their attention to masters runners of all groups in the form of increased prize money, travel funds, incorporating separate masters races and other attention to the 40-and-over athlete. Write us (and individual race directors) with your thoughts at: Dean Reinke & Associates, 400 N. New York Ave. - Suite 102, Winter Park, FL 32789. 407/647-2918; or Bill Adams, ICI Americas, 6 Rollins Building, Wilmington, DE 19897. 302/575-8601. And we'll see you on the Circuit.

It was good to see Canadian Mike Creery back on the Circuit at Heartland Hustle but where has his countryman Ken French been? Creery was in Seoul last month for the World Masters Championship 10K. Steve Lester's 30:09 in his hometown of Magna, Utah was admittedly on a downhill course but the factory worker still is very fit. The Circuit is considering keeping points in 1989 in "five-year-groups" instead of the current 10 - your thoughts?... Bill Olrich is hungry as he is on a mission to win the Grand Masters division. With wins at Asbury Park (including a victory over Norm Green) and Capital Trail, and a runnerup finish at Crim, Olrich showed his mettle by driving from his native Louisville to Davenport, Iowa for Heartland and a first place win over Utah's William Johnston . .

The surprises continue weekly on the Circuit with new names still popping up. Michigan's Jim O'Neal (no relation to 63-year-old Jim "San Diego" O'Neil) surprised Olrich at Crim while the latter O'Neil was surprised by Mike Shea of Raleigh at the Capital Trail Run. Shea is the father of former running stars Julie and Mary Shea. Virginia's John Hosner also got the best of O'Neil but couldn't eatch Shea . . . Jim O'Neil is backing off of the longer distance races with some back problems and is looking for a good chiropractor. Meanwhile, Howard Rubin of upstate New York has entered O'Neil's age group, making it nearly as competitive as the Grand Masters . Former Kent State star and Jim Ryun

by ARNIE SMITH

DAVENPORT, Iowa - The 10K Heartland Hustle wasn't the Olympic Games for Great Britain's Priscilla Welch, but she was glad to be in Davenport, just the same.

Welch, who finished fifth in the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic marathon, missed the Games in Seoul due to foot injuries. Welch won the Hustle's women's overall title in 34:28 and used the race as part of her recovery program.

"I just wanted to survive," she said. "I did the Hustle as a speed training. I was a little worried about my reputation."

That reputation is in the marathon, where she is the defending champion of the New York City Marathon.

The 43-year-old Welch used the Heartland Hustle as another step in the rehabilitation process that she hopes will lead to another successful New York City Marathon run in November.

"I'm a marathon runner, really" she said. "I'm glad I came and took up the challenge."

Welch is recovering from stress fractures on both feet. When told to take some time off running, she moved her workouts into a swimming pool.

"I came out of the water two weeks ago," she said. "The rest of me was fit."

field of more than 4,000. There was no one to push his pace.

After three miles, his race with the rest of the field was history. What remained was his race with himself and the record book.

"It is difficult to go for a record that way because you have a tendency to lose concentration," he said. "What I did before the race was set a mile pace in my mind that I wanted to hit.

"I was aiming for 4:45 miles the whole way but I wasn't hitting that in the first two or three miles," he said. "As the race wore on, the humidity was really affecting me. I was still not where I wanted to be as far as a time, but I was very happy to set the record."

Even as fast as he was, Rodgers realizes his days as a world class runner have slipped away. He accepts the fact that he now is a world class 40-andover runner.

"It is just physiologically impossible for me to do what I used to be able to do," Rodgers said. "My time today is still two minutes slower than someone like Arturo Barrios would run for a 10K.

"I'm getting older and training is so much harder. Recovery time is longer. Believe me, I feel my age but I can accept that." □

Rodgers to Compete in Naples

by DEAN REINKE

It's official! Masters record holder at 8K, 10K and 10 miles, Bill Rodgers, will compete in Naples at the ICI/USRA Masters National Championship, January 14. Numerous other athletes have expressed interest, including Priscilla Welch, Frank Shorter, Barb Filutze, Jim O'Neil, Bill Olrich, Jane Hutchison, Bob Schlau, and a host of others. Coordinating early invited runner requests is Jill Coulter of Dean Reinke & Associates (407/ 647-2918). Runners are requested to contact the host Registry Hotel for rooms early as the hotel is expected to fill up (contact: 813/ 597-3232). The first 500 runners to register for the event will receive a Free Spaghetti Dinner on Friday night before the "Legends Clinic" featuring Bill Rodgers. For entries, contact Reinke & Associates, 400 N. New York Ave., Suite 102, Winter Park, FL 32789.

The 1988 Masters Age Record Book is now available. Compiled by WAVA and TAC Masters T&F Records Chairman Pete Mundle, the book contains each world and U.S. single-age record for each track & field event for men and women, age 35-and-up, as of January 1, 1988, as well as U.S. age-40+ bests for all race walking events. To order, send $5 to NMN, PO Box 2372, Van Nuys, CA 91404.

The outstanding masters athletes of 1988 will be chosen at TAC's annual convention this month. If you have any recommendations, please send them to Bev LaVeck (track & field and race walking), Kirk Randall (men's LDR), or Ruth Anderson (women's LDR). All addresses are on page two.

Beginning in 1989, TAC will switch its insurance coverage to State Mutual Insurance, the same company which insures U.S. Swimming. The Accidental Death benefit will be increased to $25,000. Physical Therapy benefits will jump to $500, or $750 if prescribed prior to surgery. Anyone with a TAC card who is injured in a TAC event is eligible.

 At age 37, Mac Wilkins was the oldest Athletics competitor in the Seoul Olympics, throwing the discus an outstanding 65.90 (216-2) for fifth place. "I was a little tight, and it cost me a medal by six feet," he said.

Bob Brockway was first master in the Full Moon Frolic 4-Miler, DeLand, Fla., Aug. 24 with a time of 24:06.

EAST

 Masters competitors were in good form in the YMCA Shape-Up 10K, Central Park, NYC, September 10. Ted Haiman, 45, was fourth overall (34:10) of 466 m/finishers, and Irene Jackson, 41, was third woman (41:10) of 212 w/finishers. Manfred Konrad, 49, placed tenth (35:31). Top walkers overall were both masters: Franco Pantoni, 42, in 52:42, and Joan Rowland, 62, with a 1:07:39.

Tony Napoli of Buffalo, NY, broke two U.S. single-age records in eight days. He established an age-67 record of 18:57 for the 5K on September 2; celebrated his birthday on the eighth; and set a new 5K record for 68-year-olds with an 18:56 in the Buffalo Police Chase 5K on September 10.

• Carl Hammen, 65, Saunderstown, RI, won the M60+ division (33:06) of the Run For The Health Of It 8K, Providence, RI, at 10:00 a.m., and then headed for nearby Cranston, where, at 2 p.m., he won his division again (35:06). The morning race, with over $10,000 prize money, attracted runners from other states and countries, including Kevin Ryan of New Zealand, who won the M40+ race in 25:11.

• Eugin Roolend, 71, of the Estonian AA, broke the M70-74 triple jump WR of 32-1½, held by Mazumi Morita of Japan, with an 32-4½ in the Merrill Lynch Realty Meet, Randolph, NJ, July 3, but was ½ of an inch short of Canadian lan Hume's pending 32-5. The Merrill Lynch Realty AC won the team championships with 278 points with the NY Masters second with

• Vince Carnevale, 72, Newark, NJ, is not only a major presence in the 70+ races in the NJ-NY area, but he is also knocking them off two at a time. On September 5, he took the M70+ (35:11) in the Verona Labor Day 5 Mile, and the Run For The Roses 10K (43:33). On the 10th, he won both the 5K (21:12) and 10K (46:28) in the 11th Annual Ramsey Runs, finishing ahead of all 60-year-olds.

• Masters runners were no slouches in the Post Raisin Bran 5K, Central Park, NYC, September 18. Angella Hearn, 42, ran a crisp 17:28 for the overall women's win. Twin sister Christine Hearn Grenning was fourth woman in 18:13. Eight of the top 20 women were 40 +, with Jill Martin, 50, in the 20th slot (20:51). Olba Morofsky, 64, won the W60+ race by 11 minutes with an amazing 21:35. Art Hall, 41, was ten seconds shy of the top spot with a second-place 15:43. William Fortune, 60, of the NYPD captured the M60 race with a convincing 18:31. Finishers numbered 431 men and 266 women.

• In the Post Raisin Bran Women's Half-Marathon, run along with the 5K, Cheryl Ralya, 42, finished seventh and first 40+ with a 1:27:08. The next four masters were 50+; nine racewalkers and 444 runners finished. The last two runners were Jerseyites Jan Kulick (52, 3:04:20), and Karen Kulick (24, 3:05:10).

 Athol Barton, 40, Rockville, MD, finished fourth overall (500 runners) in 15:27, eliminating himself from the masters prizes, in the Peninsula General 5K Health Run, Salisbury, MD, September 10. Missy McGlocklin, W40, of Salisbury took the women's masters title (25:02).

SOUTHEAST

• This year has been a traumatic one for three of Tennessee's better-known masters weightmen. Southeast Region athletes were shocked by the death of Buddy Hale, 60, a star shot and discus man from Memphis. The legendary strongman and retired professor of history from Cookeville, Nolan Fowler, 74, under-went by-pass surgery; and exactly one month after winning the M60 hammer throw in Orlando, Richard Bergenback, 61, a professor of geology, underwent emergency gall bladder surgery in Chattanooga. Masters athletes of all ages look forward to seeing Fowler and Bergenback well and in competition next season.

• Late results from the Southeastern U.S. Masters Meet, Raleigh, NC, April 29-May 1, show two age-division WRs, one of 3.41/11-21/4 in the W70 long jump by Mary Bowermaster, 70, of Ohio, and another by Ed Benham, 80, of Maryland, who ran the 3000 in 13:12.43. American age-group records were set by Robert Mimm, 63, with a 1:53:19, and Paul Fairbank, 81, with a 2:37:45 in the 20K walk. Other competitors broke a host of single-age records in the meet, which drew 400 athletes from 30 states and Canada.

MIDWEST

• Doris Heritage of Seattle, holder of the W40-44 mile WR (4:54.69), went to the Olympic Trials in Indianapolis as a coach and official, but ended up in a race of her own. While running alone, she was set upon by a pack of dogs and was bitten twice before escaping by scaling a 12-foot fence.

MID AMERICA

• Bruce Mortenson (44, 1:23:40) and Diane Stoneking (40, 1:42:45) each collected $100 for masters victories in the City of Lakes 25K/RRCA National Championships, Minneapolis, September 11. Alex Ratelle, 63, won the M60+race in 1:38:45. Scott Ergen (27, 1:19:09) and Marie Boyd (28, 1:32:30) were open winners.

 Colorado's Herb Anderson, M85, should have been creditied with six golds instead of five in the September NMN list of National Champions in Orlando. Anderson also won two silvers.

WEST

• Wydan Cadura, 46, Sacramento, CA, was first woman (1:56:07) in the Foresthill 25K in Sacramento, September 11. George Billingsley, 66, Loomis, CA, set a U.S. single-age record of 1:48:36. Valentine Pisarski, M40, won the M40+ race (1:40:59).

• William Burke, 42, president of the City of Los Angeles Marathon, March 5, will join the thousands of runners at the start of the NYC Marathon, November 6. Burke has never run a marathon but was dared by NYC Marathon director, Fred Lebow, to enter the East Coast race. On a training regimen developed by world-class runner Mark Plaatjes, Burke has lost 25 pounds since he began the program. Burke has pledged $100 to each of the 26 charities that benefit from the L.A. Marathon, when he runs the race in NYC.

 The SCA/TAC Racewalking Committee is sponsoring a strictly-for-fun Team Relay and Judges' Stroll, November 20, at Clover Park in Santa Monica. TRACK & FIELD

The only activities available are the Golden Age Games, which run through the 10th in Sanford, Florida.

LONG DISTANCE RUNNING

National championships abound, starting on the 13th with the 30K in Clarksburg, Calif., followed by the 10K Cross-Country on the 20th in Holmdel, N.J., and the 5K Cross-Country on the 25th (Friday) in Raleigh, N.C. The 15K Cross-Country in Agoura (Los Angeles suburb), Calif., and the 20K Cross-Country in East Meadow, N.Y., are both on the 27th.

Regionally, the East offers the big one at the Big Apple - the NYC Marathon - and the Marine Corps Marathon in Washington, D.C., both on the 6th, and the Philadelphia Independence Marathon on the 27th. In the Southeast, runners can head for the Old Reliable 10K, Raleigh, N.C., on the 13th, or work up an appetite for the Atlanta Marathon or the Jacksonville Half-Marathon, both on Thanksgiving Day. The rest of the month's menu is tilled with the local races enticing enough to satisfy most palates.

Meet in the Sixto Escobar Stadium, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Because of a light 3-4 minute shower on the first day, the meet was wisely held at 4 p.m., for the comfort of athletes and spectators. A healthy turnout of attentive spectators, with the help of an experienced, bilingual announcer kept the meet alive. Latino spirit prevailed — boos and cheers and an occasional audible arm-waving disagreement that quickly ended with laughter and back-slapping.

The numerous, attractively-uniformed officials started the meet each day by marching ceremoniously into the stadium. During the meet they performed diligently and accurately - going out of their way to help the athletes, especially those in multievents.

The meet was highly competitive and although the Americans won a pronounced share of the golds, the warmth and friendship of the local athletes and spectators was refreshing. My "Bravos" and thanks to the meet director, Gilberto Gonzalez.

Dr. A.U. Ricciardi Reno, Nevada

KEEP THE "OLD" JAVELIN

I am writing to propose that the present TAC Masters rules that permit the use of javelins conforming to the pre-1986 IAAF specifications (Rule 252, page 129, 1988 TAC Competition Rules) be retained. I offer the following reasons for this request, even though I am aware that WAVA has adopted the new IAAF javelin specifications:

1) The "new" IAAF specifications were established solely because Uwe Hohn of East Germany threw the "old" javelin 344 feet in 1984. That meant that the javelin could no longer be safely thrown on the infield within the track in elite competition. No masters thrower in the world has ever thrown over 260 feet. World class throwers are now throwing the "new" javelin over 280 feet, so masters throws with the "old" javelin are not approaching the "safe" distances reached by elite throwers with the "new" javelin.

2) All of the masters javelin throwers and decathletes that I have talked to in the last two years would rather throw the "old" javelin than the "new" one. (I compete regularly in both the javelin and decathlon in the age 40-44 group - 5th ranked nationally in the javelin

3) All existing javelin records in age groups from 40-59 would be obsolete. Throws with the "new" javelin cannot be compared to throws with the "old" javelin, since the "new" javelin goes a significantly shorter distance than the 'old" with identical throws.

4) All masters javelin throwers and decathletes would have to buy new javelins, which cost from $150 to $250. Javelins made to the "old" specifications are readily available in the U.S., since high school throwers still use the "old" javelin. (This may not be the case in Europe, where the use of the "new" javelin for masters competition began.)

5) Only one masters javelin thrower in the entire U.S. is directly affected by the WAVA ruling. That thrower is Larry Stuart, who holds the world record for the javelin in the 45-49 age group (set with the "old" javelin) and has a pending age 50-54 record. No other U.S. masters thrower currently competing in the age groups 40-59 has remotely approached world-record distances.

6) Throwing technique with the "new" javelin is significantly different than with the "old." The "new" javelin has to be thrown much higher and nose dives abruptly. Aesthetically, the flight of the "new" javelin is ugly. Use of the "new" javelin means that all of us "old dogs" must "learn new tricks" and try to forget what we have learned from many years of throwing the "old" javelin.

I have discussed this topic at length with Bob Boal, National TAC Masters LDR Chairman and U.S. representative on the IAAF Veterans Committee, and also with Rex Harvey, TAC Masters Multi-Events Coordinator. and they were both very supportive of my request.

ATTENTION! ALL VETERAN WEIGHT THROWERS

The directors of the Eugene World Veterans Championships in 1989 cannot include a weight pentathlon like that held in Melbourne in 1987. However, it may still be possible to hold the event if there is sufficient interest. Therefore, we badly need your show of interest by filling out this questionnaire.

1.	I would expect to participate:
	a. If held in Eugene on August 7
	b. If held in Los Angeles or San Diego on either July 24 or July 25
	c. Either of above locations
2.	I would consider making a pledge to help defray costs:
	$25 $50 $100

All verified performances in 1988 races which equal or better the above times in the appropriate sex/age groups will be published as the best times of the year and will qualify for outstanding performance certificates. Contact TACSTATS/USA for more information.

At the request of TACSTATS, NMN is printing only the top ten performers in each five-year age division. A complete list of each distance, approximately 25-40 deep, is available from TACSTATS for $5. A complete set of all distances, enclosed in a three-ring binder with index tabs and an update service, is $35. Send to TACSTATS, 7745 S.W. Terrace, Miami, FL 33158.

* NATIONAL MASTERS NEWS Subscription Form

The National Masters News is the official world and U.S. publication for Masters track & field, long distance running and race walking.

Masters competition is sponsored worldwide by the World Association of Veteran Athletes and in the USA by The Athletics Congress. The National Masters News gives you information that's available nowhere else: schedule information, meet and race results, training advice, race and meet stories, profiles, photos and articles by the top Masters writers in the nation. It's the best - if not the only - source of world, national, regional and local Masters information.

The National Masters News is only $18.75 a year for 12 information-packed issues. Or you can take advantage of our special two-year rate of $35 - a 25% savings off the single-copy price. A 3-year subscription saves 29%.

let's face it! throwers MASTERS throwers

YOU CAN'T BE

A MAC WILKINS AN AL FEUERBACH A TOM PETRANOFF

A WILLIE BANKS or A YURIY SYEDKH

But—THEY CAN TEACH YOU TO BE THE BEST THAT YOU CAN BE

These VIDEO TEACHING TAPES feature some of the most accomplished throwers in the great history of Track & Field. The teaching techniques have been hailed by peers as the best, and one has received international awards for its excellence.

MAC WILKINS' Gold Medal Discus

"I consider this video training program to be one of my finest achievements in 20 years with the discus." It is a unique instructional package that teaches the mechanical, physical and mental aspects of discus throwing for young and old alike. In addition to my demonstrations, you will learn from studying the techniques of such discus greats, past and present, as L.J. Silvester, Wolfgang Schmidt, Imrich Bugar and Luis Delis with my "voice over" instructional comments. The program contains nine sections: 1. The Throw Part I; 2. The Throw Part II; 3. Drills; 4. Rhythm; 5. Advanced Technique; 6. Visualization; 7. Troubleshooting; 8. Conditioning; 9. Motivation.

"I have found that Masters throwers can be as dedicated to their own pursuit of excellence as youngsters and established competitors. That is why I felt this training program would be of great help to you Masters competitors. Join me in your quest to be the best that you can be."

YURIY SYEDIKH'S SyberVision Hammer Video

East meets West. This one-of-a-kind video teaching tape combines hammer techniques of the East with the latest learning technologies of the West. Emphasis on the basics of the hammer throw takes the mystery out of the event. Instruc-Yuriy Syedikh — USSR. Winning Hammer Ways was produced by SyberVision wiith Ed Burke (widely renowned U.S. Olympian), Stewart Tougher and Dr. L. Pataki acting as technical advisors and directors.

TOM PETRANOFF'S Javelin Video

A video encyclopedia of the javelin throw covers complete instructions on: Drills...Weight Training...Conditioning...Pliometrics...Throwing Technique and Mental Preparation. Your instructor is Tom Petranoff, one of the world's finest competitors and instructors of the javelin throw. In 1983. Tom threw to a World's Record of 327' and in 1986 threw to a World Best. 280' (new javelin) and was ranked #1 in the world.

COMBINATION DISCUS & SHOT

With both teaching cassettes combined into one tape, you have over 40 years' competitive experience by Wilkins and Feuerbach in approximately one hour of instructional viewing and learning. If you follow the pattern of most throwers, you are probably learning and competing in both the discus and the shot. This is your opportunity to be taught both events by two of the best ever competitors and achievers... and at a savings over the cost of two individual cassettes.

AL FEUERBACH'S Basic 70 Foot Shot Putting

"Shot Putting was never a part-time thing with me...it was an obsession." Through a competitive career spanning 22 years and including over 525 competitions in 24 countries, AI was able to experience this event as few athletes have. Every bit of his learning experience is packed into the video teaching cassette and provides some critical keys to progress for Masters shot putters like you.

You will be instructed by AI, Dave Laut (72' 3"), Olympic Bronze Medalist 1984, 4 time U.S. National Champion and Mac Wilkins (69' 11/2"). Dave demonstrates the rotational style throw and Mac instructs on its technique.

Basic 70 Foot Shot Putting presents the foundation for personal shot putting progress and is potentially as useful to the 40' thrower as it is to the 70' thrower. "I truly enjoyed my many years of experience with the shot. I'd like to share them with you."
